The Committee on the Board of Church Extension report to the General Assembly that they have examined the Annual Report and the Minutes of the Board, and find them worthy of approval. And in relation to the important work of this Board, they recommend the adoption by the Assembly of the following resolutions, viz.

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly, with devout gratitude, acknowledge the good measure of prosperity which God has bestowed upon this Board during the past year, in inclining a number of churches larger by one hundred and forty-seven than last year, to contribute to this cause; from this and other sources raising its receipts to $24,847, a sum greater by $5622 than last year received; enabling it thus to increase both the number and the amount of its appropriations, and yet to report an encouraging balance.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly cherish and express entire confidence in the wisdom, zeal, and prudence, with which its operations have been conducted during the past year, and that in these respects the Board be commended to the prayerful affection and support of all the churches.

Resolved, 3. That the increase of one hundred per cent. in the cost of building, together with the diminished pecuniary resources of many of our new and frontier churches, and the dismantling and destruction of many church edifices by the presence and ravages of war, combine to enhance, to a great degree, the importance of this cause, and give it a claim more powerful than ever upon the interest of Christians.

Resolved, 4. That the Assembly regret to contemplate the large number of churches under its care, which as yet have failed to make any contribution to this cause, and that it earnestly ask from all a support for the coming year, which shall be proportioned to the exigencies of the present crisis.

Resolved, 5. That the Board be directed to appropriate its resources during the coming year, with the utmost liberality which is consistent with prudence, trusting to that goodness of God, and that liberality of his people, which have characterized so largely the year past.

The Committee on the Board of Education respectfully report, that they have examined the Annual Report, with an abstract of the Treasurer's accounts, and the several record books of the Board and the Executive Committee, and finding in them evidences of correctness, fidelity, progress, and success, cordially recommend approval, and the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the continued success of the operations of the Board of Education during the past year, furnishes occasion for the reiteration of fervent thanksgiving to God for his approving smiles; that amidst the grievous desolations of an unprecedented civil war, which has filled our Zion and our land with sorrow, the Board of Education has been enabled to meet all the authorized demands upon their treasury, and retain a balance sufficient to enter upon the new fiscal year with an encouraging promise of efficiency.

Resolved, 2. That the General Assembly rejoice to know that progress has been made during the last year towards a higher standard of ministerial qualifications, and that so much evidence is afforded of the good which has resulted from the greater caution exhibited on the part of Presbyteries in receiving and watching over the candidates under their care.

Resolved, 3. That the General Assembly learn with gratitude and commendation of the evidence of increasing interest manifested by the courts of our Church in the schools, academies, and colleges under their supervision, in connection with the Board; especially the growing confidence of the Church in the Ashmun Institute, the only institution of our Church in our country whose sole object is the education of coloured students for the Christian ministry, and other important positions.

Resolved, 4. That whereas a large number of the African race in our country, known as the freedmen, are in great need both of moral and intellectual culture, the General Assembly do hereby instruct the Board of Education to endeavour to supply these wants for them at all such points as are now or may in the future become accessible, and the funds which are now or may hereafter be in the department of schools may authorize, and that the necessary and long-established rule for the organization of parochial schools be considered as no hinderance to this important and pressing work.

Resolved, 5. That although the number of candidates received during the last year is larger than it was the year previous, yet this General Assembly cannot fail to notice with deep concern the alarming disproportion existing between the increase of candidates for the gospel ministry and the increase of the membership of our churches, which fact prompts them again to urge most affectionately this vital subject upon the prayerful attention of the ministers, elders, and membership of our entire Zion.

Resolved, 6. That the General Assembly most cheerfully concur in the recommendation of the Board, and do hereby ordain that the maximum of the scholarships, for the present, be increased from eighty to one hundred dollars to academical students, and from one hundred to one hundred and twenty for college students, and from one hundred and twenty to one hundred and fifty dollars for theological students; and that the Board be requested to make it one hundred and seventy-five dollars, if in their judgment the funds will warrant it.

Resolved, 7. That this Assembly renew with increased earnestness the recommendation of previous General Assemblies, that the last Thursday of February may be designated as a day of special prayer for the children of the Covenant and the youth of the world, especially those gathered in our various educational institutions; and that it also be recommended to all the churches to take up collections on that occasion for the fund devoted to the aid of parochial schools, academies, and colleges.

Resolved, 8. That the securities which came under the name and control of the Board of Education by the acts of the Agent or Standing Committee of the Presbytery of Chicago, the proceeds of which are to be devoted to the cause of education among the French-speaking Canadians of St. Ann and Kankakee, in Illinois, be returned by the Trustees of the Board of Education to the Presbytery of Chicago, to be applied by them, as intended by the original donors of said funds.

The Rev. L. M. Miller moved to refer the whole of the 6th resolution to the Board of Education, with instructions to increase to one hundred and seventy-five dollars the allowance made to theological students, if in the judgment of the Board its funds will warrant such increase. Carried.

Dr. D. X. Junkin, Chairman, presented and read the Report of the Committee on Theological Seminaries. The report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Theological Seminaries respectfully report to the General Assembly, that the following documents have been submitted to their inspection, viz.

1. The Fifty-second Annual Report of the Directors of the Theological Seminary at Princeton; and the Thirty-ninth Annual Report of the Trustees of the same.

2. The Thirty-seventh Annual Report of the Directors of the Western Theological Seminary, at Allegheny; and the Nineteenth Annual Report of the Trustees of the same.

3. The Fifth Annual Report of the Directors of the Theological Seminary of the North-west, at Chicago; embracing also a summary of the Report of the Trustees of the same, as presented through their Treasurer, E. Wood, Esq.

4. The Eleventh Annual Report of the Directors of the Danville Theological Seminary; and the Eleventh Annual Report of the Trustees of the same institution.

As it has been the custom of the General Assembly to publish, in their Minutes, the reports of these Seminaries, your Committee deem it unnecessary to embody in this report any thing more than the most succinct syllabus of the points in the several reports, to which it may be proper to call the attention of the General Assembly.

1. Princeton. During the year elapsing since the last report, sixty-seven new students have been received into the Seminary; and the whole number connected with the Institution during the year, is one hundred and eighty-five—five more than last year. One student died during the year, at his home in Indiana. The Directors report improved regularity in attendance, up to the close of the session; and also good attention to study, devotion, and other duties, and very satisfactory examinations. Forty-two members of the Senior Class received certificates of having finished the whole course of three years—four more than last year. Three others received specific certificates. Of the whole number, nearly one-half are already at work as pastors or missionaries.

The Directors report that the terms of office of the following members of their Board expires during the present sessions of the Assembly, viz.

Ministers—William D. Snodgrass, D. D., Joseph McElroy, D. D., George W. Musgrave, D. D., Samuel B. Jones, D. D., Thomas L. Janeway, D. D., and Gardiner Spring, D. D. Ruling Elders—Robert Carter, Matthew Newkirk, and George Sharswood, LL.D. And that two vacancies have been occasioned by death, viz.—that of George W. Thompson, D. D., and John N. Campbell, D. D.

The Trustees of this Seminary report the entire number of volumes in the library, 19,684—of which the library of the late Dr. J. A. Alexander, consisting of 3400 very valuable volumes, forms a part; and is the donation to the Seminary of R. L. & A. Stuart, Esquires. Four hundred and sixty-three volumes are the gift of Samuel Agnew, Esq., of Philadelphia. And there are other valuable gifts, which are detailed in the report.

The account of the Treasurer, duly audited and approved, exhibits a general balance of $7999.12. The Trustees have received, during the year, from Mrs. Isabella Brown, of Baltimore, the munificent gift of $30,000, to build a new edifice, to be named "Brown Hall," which is now in process of erection.

2. Allegheny Seminary reports thirty-four students admitted since last report. Whole number on the roll, one hundred and fourteen; whole number in attendance, one hundred. Twenty-three received the diploma of the institution—having completed the prescribed course. The report speaks in terms of high commendation of the diligence in study, the piety, Christian earnestness, and general good deportment of the students. Two of the Senior Class have offered themselves to the work of foreign missions.

The Board of Directors ask the General Assembly to fill the vacancy in the chair of Theology.

Three members of the Board of Directors have been removed by death, viz.—the Rev. Drs. James Hoge, Josiah D. Smith, and Alexander B. Brown.

The term of office of the following Directors will expire during this meeting of the Assembly—Elisha P. Swift, D. D., Josiah D. Smith, D. D., William B. McIlvaine, James Alexander, D. D., Cyrus Dickson, D. D., John Kerr, A. O. Patterson, D. D., ministers; and Luke Loomis, Alexander Johnston, James Carothers, M. D., ruling elders. There is also a vacancy to be filled for one year, vice Dr. Hoge deceased, and one for two years, vice Dr. Brown deceased.

The Trustees of this Seminary gratefully report that they have been enabled to pay all current expenses, and slightly to increase their permanent fund. The Treasurer's accounts, carefully audited, exhibit a balance of $1104.74; and the Librarian acknowledges some valuable donations to the library. The Trustees deplore the death of a venerable member of their Board, John Irwin, Esq.

3. Seminary of the Northwest, Chicago. The Report of the Directors is numbered as the Fifth; and yet it may not be improper to remember and record the fact, that the institution is historically older than this title of the Report would indicate; as this numbering refers only to the time when the Seminary was taken under the care of the General Assembly. It is due to the verity of history, to the memory of the honoured dead, to the services of many still living, and to a large number of its alumni; and is also a just tribute to the great Head of the Church, to record the fact that theological education in the North-west began more than thirty years ago at Hanover, Indiana, under the venerable John Mathews, D. D.; and that the Seminary then commenced continued to exist, under Synodical control, there and at New Albany, Indiana, until the time of its transfer to the care of the General Assembly, and its removal to Chicago. During the period of its operations in the two localities first named, about two hundred students were trained in it, many of whom are now eminent and efficient labourers in the Lord's vineyard.

In their Report, the Directors gratefully mention the obtaining possession of a gift of twenty-five acres of land at Chicago, and the erection of a beautiful and appropriate seminary building on it. They acknowledge the gift of a $2000 scholarship from Dr. A. M. Bruen of New York, and handsome gifts of books from H. K. Corning and others. The libraries, which consist of the Corning, the New Albany, and the General Library, number together about seven thousand volumes. Five new students were admitted. Professor Charles Elliott, D. D., was duly inaugurated into the chair of Biblical Literature and Exegesis. The examinations of the students were highly creditable to the Professors and students; and the prospects of the Seminary for wide usefulness seem encouraging.

The Board of Trustees report decided financial advance; and a balance on hand of $1479.37. The terms of the following Directors expire during the present General Assembly, viz. Ministers—John H. Brown, D. D., David Stevenson, S. J. P. Anderson, D. D., James Wood, D. D., J. Howard Nixon. Ruling Elders—Hon. H. R. Gamble (deceased), J. D. Thorpe, Charles Crosby, E. M. Drury, John Todd, M. D., and the Board ask the Assembly to fill the vacancies.

4. Danville Seminary. The location of this institution, near to one of the theatres of the vast civil war, has seriously affected its operations; yet the Report of the Board of Directors breathes the spirit of hope and encouragement. They report six new students admitted during the year, fourteen in all in attendance; and two as having received a certificate of having completed the full course of study. They speak of an encouraging prospective increase, which recent revivals in Kentucky, and especially a large number of conversions in the Centre College, bids them expect. The exercises of the Seminary have not been interrupted during the year; and the Professors have all been at their posts. The Directors invite the attention of the General Assembly to the fact that the increased prices of living have diminished the relative value of the Professors' salaries, and invoke the wisdom of the Assembly to devise a remedy. The Librarian reports the addition of one hundred and twenty volumes to the library, chiefly by gift from the Board of Publication.

The term of service of the following Directors expires during the sessions of the present Assembly. Ministers—John H. Gray, R. F. Caldwell, J. Mitchell, T. F. Cortelyou, W. W. Hill, E. T. Baird, Samuel Steel, J. K. Lyle, R. G. Brank. Ruling Elders—John McCullough, Curran Pope, C. H. Rochester, T. W. Bullock, C. Carter, Thomas Henderson, J. B. Neely, John A. Lyle, W. Addison Smith. The death of Dr. Lewis W. Green occasions a vacancy in the class of Directors whose term will expire in 1866. Colonel Curran Pope and Thomas Henderson, Esq., honoured members of the class whose term now expires, are numbered with the dead.

The Trustees of this Seminary exhibit a full account of its fiscal condition, showing a balance of $1416.05.

Your Committee recommend that the request of the Directors of the Western Theological Seminary, to fill the Chair of Theology, be granted, and that the Assembly proceed to the election of a Professor.

They also recommend that it be left discretionary with the Board of Directors of the Danville Theological Seminary, whether or not to put an agent in the field, for the purpose of raising funds to supplement the deficiency of the Professors' salaries, in accordance with the suggestion upon that subject contained in the Report of the Board of Directors. And that the Assembly recommend that an effort be made to make the salaries, during the period of high prices, adequate to the support of the Professors.

Dr. Elliott moved that the Assembly now receive nominations for the vacant Professorship in the Western Theological Seminary at Allegheny.

Carried.

The following nominations were made, viz., the Rev. A. A. Hodge, D. D., of Wilkesbarre, Pa.; the Rev. John M. Lowrie, D. D., of Fort Wayne, Indiana; the Rev. J. Edwards, D. D., of Philadelphia; and the Rev. E. D. MacMaster, D. D., of Indiana.

At the request of the Moderator, the Rev. Dr Elliott led in prayer for Divine direction in the choice of a Professor to fill this vacancy.

At the suggestion of Dr. A. S. MacMaster, and by leave of the Assembly, Dr. Candee withdrew his nomination of the name of Dr. E. D. MacMaster.

The first order of the day was then taken up, and Dr. Backus, from the Standing Committee on the Board of Publication, presented a report.

The Rev. W. E. Schenk, D. D., Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Publication, addressed the Assembly.

After discussion, the report was unanimously adopted, as follows:

After careful examination of the books of minutes of the Board of Publication and of its Executive Committee, and their balance-sheet exhibited to us, it is recommended that these records be approved.

The Committee with pleasure report that they discover abundant evidence of fidelity and success in the prosecution of this important work of our Church. Particular attention is invited to the fact that the Board promptly and cordially conformed to the directions of the last Assembly, and that they are enabled to say in their Report, that they find themselves, "at the end of the first year after, in a condition of comfort and prosperity," hoping that "the future progress" of the Board may be marked by an experience of "generous confidence from all sides." The Board were, unfortunately, not able to effect the purpose of the Assembly in respect to the annuity for the family of whatever Secretary might die in office, the company with whom the deposit was made declining to permit the withdrawal of the funds, on the ground that it is a permanent investment.

But the hopeful view of the Report appears to be fully authorized by the facts, so far as your Committee have discovered, and the following action is recommended to the Assembly in relation to this subject.

Resolved, 1. That the growing importance of this work is recognized by the Assembly, and urged upon the churches, as a means of supplying our people, and especially our youth, in this day of prevalent pernicious literature, the facilities afforded by our Board of Publication for healthful efforts in the direction of congregational and Sabbath-school libraries, and for those forms of parish colportage now becoming more and more manifestly the essential auxiliary of our ministry in their work, are commended to our pastors and churches. That the Assembly approve of and highly appreciate the successful efforts of the Board to enlarge its list of Sabbath-school books, affording (as we believe) an invaluable supply for the Church, in their excellent character and superior attractions. And that the recommendations of previous Assemblies be earnestly reiterated in regard to the circulation of the Home and Foreign Record in our families, and of the Sabbath-school Visitor in our Church schools. At the same time the Assembly say to the Board, that in these respects, and pre-eminently in regard to reading matter for Sabbath-schools, their motto more than ever should be "Excelsior;" that here, under the Divine blessing, is the hope of our Church in the efficiency of this Board for developing our peculiar resource and power as a denomination.

Resolved, 2. That the liberal outlay of the Board on behalf of our young men in the army and in the navy, and of our sick and wounded in the hospitals, and the gratuities to our military prisoners, and to the freedmen, are warmly approved; and that the duty and privilege of a zealous coöperation in this work of love and mercy, so greatly owned and blessed of God, is urged upon all our churches. Especially is it advised, that the efforts of our people, through that noble and well-named enterprise, the Christian Commission, recognize the preëminent suitableness of our own publications for the religious purposes of the camp and the hospital.

Resolved, 3. That the Assembly direct the Synods and Presbyteries, at their next regular meeting hereafter, to take order upon these suggestions, and consider the expediency of appointing a Committee to secure regular and proper coöperation from the churches with the Board.

Resolved, 4. That the Assembly approve of the temporary increase of salaries allowed by the Board in consequence of the times, and regard it as not inconsistent with the directions of the last Assembly upon the subject of remunerations. And they also recommend, for the same reason, a fair addition to the pay of our colporteurs.

On motion, the paper of Dr. MacMaster, on the observance of a day of prayer in all our churches, was made the first order of the day for this evening.

A letter was received from F. W. Ricord, Esq., Librarian of the Newark Library Association, tendering the use of their library to the members of the Assembly.

On motion, it was made the duty of the Permanent Clerk to write to the Library Association, and thank them for their generous offer.

The Assembly adjourned, after prayer by Dr. Musgrave.

D., and Joseph Allison, ruling elder, delegates from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, now sitting in Dayton, Ohio, addressed the Assembly, in the interchange of fraternal salutations, and were responded to by the Moderator.

Dr. Grundy reports, that he was received as your delegate, “kindly and cordially; and that they responded to your salutation in a fraternal spirit, and by a unanimous resolution, expressing in the strongest terms their warm reciprocation, and their determination to coöperate with you, as a branch of the great Presbyterian family, in building up the kingdom of Christ.” Your Committee recommend this Assembly to express their gratification with the manner in which their delegate was received; and that this Assembly reciprocate the spirit manifested towards this body, through him.

TUESDAY EVENING, 7½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, after recess, and took up the first order of the day, viz., the consideration of a paper from Dr. A. S. MacMaster, for the observance of a day of prayer in all our churches.

Dr. MacMaster presented and read his paper, which, on motion of Dr. Musgrave, was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Judge Ryerson, Chairman, presented a report from the Special Committee on an increase in ministers' salaries, which was unanimously adopted, and is as follows:

The committee of ruling elders, appointed to consider the subject of pastors' salaries, beg leave to report the accompanying letter, for the adoption of the Assembly. They would recommend that it be sent, properly authenticated by the officers of the Assembly, to the Board of Trustees and the Session of every congregation under the charge of the Assembly; and that every such congregation report to their appropriate Presbytery, at its next stated meeting after they receive it, their action hereon, and that the Presbyteries report the result to the next General Assembly.

Letter of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, to the Ruling Elders, Deacons, and Trustees of the churches under the care of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church.

Beloved Brethren—We have, on various occasions, addressed our churches on the subject of providing an adequate support for the ministers of the gospel, and are happy to know that this obligation has been generally recognized in our communion.

Under ordinary circumstances, it might have been superfluous to advert to the subject again. But the calamitous war, which has been so recklessly and causelessly forced upon our country by unscrupulous and wicked men, bringing with it so many new duties, trials, and sorrows, and affecting in various ways the vital interests of the Church, is telling with extreme severity upon the comfort and usefulness of the Christian ministry. Many, very many, worthy, faithful, and devoted pastors, while they and their families have been suffering for want of the comforts, and often the necessities of life, have most sensibly been caused to realize some of the consequences of the great sin of rebellion.

It would be but a waste of time to dwell upon the greatly increased expenses of living; you have but too many proofs of it already. The inevitable consequence has been a corresponding advance in wages and salaries, and a corresponding loss to all dependent upon fixed incomes. Families have increased the wages of their domestics; farmers and mechanics, of their workmen; merchants, commercial institutions, corporations of every kind, and public offices—municipal, state, and national—of their clerks and agents. A movement so general and comprehensive must have had an adequate cause; the necessity which compelled it must be one reaching all classes of society—all, at least, dependent upon fixed salaries for a livelihood—and none should be denied a participation in these measures of relief.

We have, however, reason to fear that up to this period, with some rare and honourable exceptions, the claims of the ministry have been overlooked. The salaries of pastors, always small, always much less than they could have earned in secular pursuits, and too often insufficient for even a meagre support, remain in a large majority of cases stationary, while the price of living has advanced fully fifty per cent. We believe this is the result, not of design, but of inadvertence. Pastors shrink from asking an increase, and it is not the way of the world to enlarge salaries where there is neither demand nor complaint. But we are sure that our people would not willingly subject their ministers to the mortification of supplicating an increase of their stipends. We cannot doubt their readiness to act in the premises, whenever it shall be properly brought before them. To believe otherwise would be a reproach to their intelligence, their sense of justice, their appreciation of Christian ordinances, and their fidelity to the Saviour. They are not yet prepared to condemn His wise and equitable decree, "that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel." What our congregations need, is that some competent authority should bring the subject to their notice.

It is with this view, beloved brethren, that we address this letter to you, the respected ruling elders and trustees of our churches. We ask you to bring the subject before your respective congregations with the least possible delay. We beg you to have it candidly and prayerfully considered. Deal justly, nay generously, by your pastors. Your liberality to them will not be a lost investment, but will yield a rich return to you and your families: for in this, as in other relations, "he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully." You will begin to reap at once, for a congregation always finds its own present advantage in relieving its pastor of all perplexity about his support, and placing him in a position where he can work with comfort, his mind free from anxious and harassing cares about his temporal support. And then, if other motive still be needed, you have it in those touching and wonderful words of our Lord and Saviour, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." If the Saviour were here, is there a church bearing his name that would not covet the privilege of ministering to his wants?

We are deeply impressed with the importance of this subject. It is not at all in the light of a personal favour to the ministers of the gospel that we bring it before you. It is vital to the Church, and vital to our afflicted country. Our most precious interests, secular and spiritual, ecclesiastical and national, demand that the hands of the evangelical ministry be strengthened in every practicable way, and the ordinances of the sanctuary clothed with the highest degree of efficiency. We are now being punished most grievously for the past wickedness of the nation, and it cannot be too often, nor too strongly, impressed upon the minds and hearts of our people that there cannot be any rational hope of maintaining our free institutions except by the all-pervading influence of the gospel. "Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people." "If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed." All history abundantly confirms these clear teachings of the Bible, and we must heed them if we desire to escape the fate of the many great and powerful nations that have perished from the earth. How is it possible to produce these blessed results, so dear to the heart of every Christian, of every true patriot, unless we maintain the Christian ministry, and the ordinances of the gospel, in a condition of the highest practicable efficiency? And how can that be done without an adequate support of the ministry?

We leave the matter in your hands, dear brethren, satisfied that you will deal with it in a spirit of Christian kindness to your pastors, and of unfeigned love to our common Lord and Master.

P. S. This letter relates to Pastors. But the policy it recommends pertains, with equal reason, to ministers who are faithfully serving the Church in her Colleges, Seminaries, and Boards, and in this view we invite attention to it on the part of all concerned in the management of those Institutions.

The Committee on Correspondence presented a report, pending the consideration of which

The Assembly adjourned, after prayer by Dr. Burtis.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, May 25.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator. A half hour was spent in devotional exercises.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

The Committee on Commissions reported that the following persons had presented commissions, and had been enrolled, viz., F. Frazer, minister; J. M. Briggs and Henry Harper, ruling elders.

The Permanent Clerk reported a letter from the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States of America, now sitting in Philadelphia. The letter was read, and is as follows:

PHILADELPHIA, May 24, 1864.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America.

Brethren—The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States of America has received your fraternal letter, notifying us of your resolution to spend the afternoon of to-morrow (Wednesday, 25th inst.) in thanksgiving to Almighty God for past mercies, and inviting us to unite with you in a similar service at the same hour.

We have already devoted an entire day to religious services in behalf of our nation since the opening of our Conference, nevertheless, we recognize the open hand of the Father of Mercies, and acknowledge with you his many blessings to us, to our households, the church, and to our beloved country, and we accept your invitation, and designate to-morrow afternoon for a special service of thanksgiving, the service to be under the charge of the Bishop presiding.

W. I. HARRIS,

Secretary of General Conference.

Judge Ryerson moved that the Address to Elders, Deacons, and Trustees, contained in the Report on Ministers' Salaries, be printed and sent out by the Permanent Clerk of the General Assembly, at the expense of the Board of Publication. Carried.

Judge Ryerson moved a resolution, recommending to the Presbyteries to take certain action on the subject of Systematic Benevolence. The resolution was, on his motion, referred to the Committee on Systematic Benevolence.

Dr. Maclean, from the Judicial Committee, reported

Case No. 2, being the complaint of the Session of the Seventh Church of Cincinnati, and the appeal or complaint of the Presbytery of Cincinnati against a decision of the Synod of Cincinnati in the case of the Messrs. Brown. The Committee find both these complaints to be in order, and recommend that they be considered as one, and in the order laid down for No. 6 below. The recommendation was adopted, and the case was placed upon the docket.

Case No. 3, complaint of the Rev. C. J. Abbott. The Committee recommend that inasmuch as no person has appeared to conduct this case, it be referred to the next General Assembly. The case was placed upon the docket.

Case No. 6, complaint of the Rev. N. West against the Synod of New York. The Committee report that they find the complaint to be in order, and recommend that it be tried in the following order: 1. The reading of the decision complained of. 2. The complaint itself. 3. The proceedings of the lower courts. 4. The hearing of the parties. 5. The judgment of the Assembly. The recommendation was adopted, and the case was placed upon the docket.

Case No. 7, complaint of John B. Saye against the Synod of Illinois. The case was placed upon the docket.

The first order of the day was taken up, and Dr. Candee presented a report from the Standing Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions.

The report was accepted.

The Rev. John C. Lowrie, D. D., Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, by invitation addressed the Assembly.

The Rev. W. Speer moved a sixth resolution as an amendment to the report. Carried.

The whole report was then adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee, to whom was referred the Report of the Board of Foreign Missions, beg leave respectfully to present to the Assembly the following suggestions and resolutions:

They have examined with care both the Report of the Board and the Minutes of the Executive Committee; from the latter deriving the strong conviction of the care and caution with which, in these times of unusual pecuniary derangement, they have managed the funds committed to their trust.

The duty of the Church in the spread of truth, is not bounded by her own families or firesides, nor is it limited to her own churches and neighbourhoods. The wide world is her field; and in carrying out her plans of evangelization, her agents must traverse every land and become inured to every clime.

The report encourages us to go forward in the great work of furnishing to the whole world the means of salvation. It is not needful that your Committee should review, in this report, the whole field of the Board's operations, nor would time permit. But we are glad to say that in nearly all the fields occupied by our missions, there are strong encouragements to go forward.

Among these encouragements we may mention

The missions to those of the Indian tribes which the rebellion has left within our reach, among whom a great work is being done at very small expense.

In South America, especially in Bogota, in consequence of certain governmental action, a collision has arisen between the clergy and state authorities, which has tended to turn the attention of the people toward the truth.

We may mention here also, the encouragement which our missionaries receive from the authorities in India; and also the protection extended to them in China—a mission having been established, and a missionary actually residing in Pekin, the capital of that vast empire.

We are happy to state also that there has been, during the past year, an increase, both in the amount of contributions from the churches, and in the number of churches that have contributed. Of the twenty-six Synods whose churches have sent up their offerings, all but four have very considerably increased their donations. The income of the Board during the year now closed, has been larger than that of the previous year by a large amount. This fact is encouraging, as showing the deeper hold this cause is taking upon the hearts of the people.

Thus the greatly increased expense of transmitting funds to our foreign missionaries has been met by a corresponding increase in the contributions to the cause. But we must not forget that probably even a greater increase of cost in this direction is to be met another year, and that no provision has been made to meet it. We would say to the churches, whose servants we are for Jesus' sake, let not these interests languish.

The increase in the number of native helpers, and the growth of the native churches, is an encouraging and animating feature of this work. In every field the work is progressing. There are, of necessity, loud calls for men to occupy these opening harvest fields. Are there not in all our tens of thousands of families, and in our hundreds of thousands of purses, men and money enough to answer all these calls? The silver and the gold are the Lord's, and the cattle upon a thousand hills.

In view of these facts, the Committee recommend to the Assembly the adoption of the resolutions following, viz.

Resolved, 1. That our earnest thanks are due to the great Head of the Church—1st. For the raising up of so many efficient native helpers in the foreign field. 2d. That the work is progressing in every field now occupied by the missions of our Church. In this we recognize the tokens of the Divine blessing on this cause.

Resolved, 2. That our felt dependence on the Spirit of God, for carrying on this work, and giving success to our efforts, does not lessen our obligation to pray and give of our substance to this end, but rather increases our obligation thereto.

Regarding the means and agencies bearing on our work,

Resolved, 3. That the periodicals issued by the Board of Foreign Missions be commended to our church-members and Sunday-school pupils, as well adapted to stir up a spirit of prayer, and excite increased efforts for the promotion of the cause.

Resolved, 4. That as the way opens, and the fields expand, we do earnestly encourage the Board to enter in and occupy.

New missions are needed. Shall they be established? Is it inquired, Where are the means? We answer, They are in the hands of Christians, who are God's stewards. Let a proper demand be made; let this Assembly call on the churches in the name of the Lord, and that call will be answered. The response will come to us in the spirit of that consecration in which all God's people have laid themselves and their all upon his altar.

Resolved, 5. That this Assembly say to the Board of Foreign Missions—Go forward in the great work to which God and this Church have called you.

Resolved, 6. That, in the opinion of this General Assembly, the Presbyterian Church under its care should, during the ensuing year, increase the amount of funds put under the command of the Board of Foreign Missions, for the spread of the gospel among the heathen, to not less than three hundred thousand dollars.

Dr. Sheldon moved that it be the second order of the day for to-morrow (Thursday,) to appoint the place for the next meeting of the Assembly. Carried.

Dr. Maclean moved that it be the first order of the day for Thursday evening, to take up Judicial Case No. 5. Carried.

The second order of the day was taken up, and nominations called for to fill vacancies in the Boards and Theological Seminaries.

The Assembly then adjourned, with prayer by Dr. Maclean.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

At half-past five P. M. the Assembly took a recess until evening.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, 7½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, after recess.

ISAAC C. BETOL.

The Assembly took up the second order of the day for the evening, viz., the consideration of the report from Judge Matthews, of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, upon Overture No. 12.

Judge Matthews moved, and it was carried at the request of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, that the word "conscious" be stricken out from the sentence, "for our conscious continuance in sin."

It was moved that the report be adopted.

The Assembly adjourned, after prayer by Dr. Reynolds.

THURSDAY MORNING, May 26.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator. A half hour was spent in devotional exercises.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

C. N. Todd, Chairman of the Mileage Committee, reported as follows:

The Committee on Mileage would respectfully report that there has been paid into the treasury for the Commissioners' Fund, $1035.91. There has been 17,152 miles travelled by the Commissioners in coming to this Assembly, who claim mileage, which, at six cents per mile, makes the sum of $1029.12, leaving a balance this day in the treasury of $6.79. The Committee recommend that the Assembly direct their Trustees to draw an order on their Treasurer for said amount, and that he pay it out in sums as herein stated, provided that no one receives more than his expenses in coming to and going from this Assembly.

The report was accepted and adopted.

On motion, nominations were made for members of the Board of Domestic Missions.

The order of the day was suspended long enough to allow Dr. Tustin, as delegate to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, last year sitting in Philadelphia, to finish his report, which was done. The report was accepted, and the fidelity of the Commissioner approved.

The first order of the day was taken up, and Dr. Burtis, from the Committee on the Disabled Ministers' Fund, presented the report of that Committee.

The report was accepted.

Joseph H. Jones, D. D., Secretary for the Disabled Ministers' Fund, by invitation addressed the Assembly.

The report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Assembly in relation to Disabled Ministers, have carefully considered this report, and learn from it, with great satisfaction, that the contributions to this good cause have been increased, and that its affairs have been managed with wisdom and efficiency.

The Committee would submit the following resolutions to the consideration of the Assembly.

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly has listened, with deep interest, to the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Disabled Ministers in need, and the destitute widows and orphans of deceased ministers.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly rejoices to learn that this important cause is gaining a stronger hold on the churches, and that the contributions to it during the past year have been greatly increased.

Resolved, 3. That while in the judgment of this Assembly a fund, accruing from legacies and other sources, may in some respects be desirable, the chief dependence of this scheme of benevolence should be placed—as it is in the case of the several Boards of the Assembly—on the annual contributions made by the churches in this behalf.

Resolved, 4. That the Report be appended to the Minutes of this Assembly, and be printed by the Board of Publication; and that a copy of the same be sent to each pastor and stated supply, and the session of each vacant church, with a request that this important subject be laid before their several congregations.

Resolved, 5. That this Assembly earnestly calls upon the churches in its connection to consider their responsibility and duty to contribute to this cause; and in view of the extreme reluctance on the part of the most needy and deserving to make application for aid, urges upon the several Presbyteries the duty of searching out those within their bounds who are proper subjects of relief, and of making the requisite application to the Trustees in their behalf.

Resolved, 6. That in consideration of the urgent wants of those needing relief, and of the increased expenses of living, the Assembly recommends that the yearly appropriations to the recipients of this fund be, if possible, largely increased.

Resolved, 7. That the Assembly acknowledges with gratitude the kindness of those friends of the cause by whose liberality a large proportion of the expenses of this important agency is provided for.

The second order of the day was taken up, viz., the choice of a place for the next meeting of the Assembly.

Dr. Elliott nominated the First Church of Pittsburgh, Pa.; and no other place being put in nomination, Pittsburgh was unanimously chosen.

On motion of R. Carter, it was Resolved, That on account of the rain, the Assembly will not go to New York this afternoon.

It was moved and carried that the Assembly, when it adjourns, adjourn to 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Dr. Backus moved to postpone the third order of the day for this forenoon, and to make it the first order for the afternoon. Carried.

The Assembly adjourned, after prayer by the Rev. J. Y. Cowhick.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

Mr. S. D. Powel, Chairman, presented the Report of the Finance Committee, which was read and adopted, and is as follows:

The Finance Committee, to whom was referred the accounts of the Treasurer of the General Assembly, respectfully report:

That they have examined the Report of the Treasurer, and compared the statements of the accounts therein presented with his books, and find the same correct. The expenditures during the year were $43,636.47; leaving a balance in the hands of the Treasurer, at the close of the year, of $12,592.36.

5. Statement of permanent funds, showing a balance uninvested of $1551.20.
6. Statement of investments held by the Assembly, amounting to $115,838.53.

The Committee deem it proper to say, that while they have not had the securities of the General Assembly placed in their hands, judging from the usual certificates before them, they have reason to believe that the investments have been properly and safely made.

An extract from the minutes of the Trustees of the General Assembly, placed in the hands of your Committee, shows a deficiency in the Contingent Fund, to meet which deficiency the Committee recommend to the General Assembly the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Trustees of the General Assembly be, and they hereby are, authorized hereafter to charge seventy-five cents per copy for the Minutes of the Assembly.

Overture No. 2 was taken from the docket.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures recommended that the Overture be adopted, which was done. It is as follows:

Whereas, the importance of providing Parsonages for the comfortable accommodation of Presbyterian ministers and their families, is a duty, the performance of which cannot be much longer delayed, but the magnitude of the operation demands a careful scrutiny of the state of the Church, and a thorough knowledge of her condition, therefore

Resolved, That the churches under the care of the General Assembly be requested to reply to the following questions:

1st. Please give the name of your church, with the year of its organization.

2d. What has been (about) the annual rent paid by your minister for a house to live in? or

3d. Have you a parsonage for your minister, thereby securing him a comfortable home?

4th. If you have a parsonage, how long has it been finished, and (about) what amount in rent does your minister annually save by living in the parsonage?

5th. What was the plan you adopted to awaken the interest of the people, and thus secured the means to build your parsonage? You will please let your answer to this question be as full as possible, (as these replies will be published,) and you thereby aid your brethren who have not yet erected a parsonage, but who will do so as soon as they may see how it can be done, by showing them how it has been done.

6th. Have you a glebe attached to your parsonage? If so, what is saved to a minister's family by tilling a few acres?

7th. Please give a description of your parsonage, its size, and accommodations, with specifications of its cost, as far as possible, with diagrams of the arrangement of the rooms, the attention paid to ventilation, the capacity of its library or study, together with such other suggestions as may tend to increase the value of these returns.

Resolved, That the ministers, ruling elders, deacons, trustees, or members of the churches under the care of this General Assembly, be earnestly requested to make early and full replies to these questions, adding any information or making any suggestions that may awaken an interest in behalf of parsonages, or comfortable homes for Presbyterian ministers.

Resolved, That said replies, suggestions, and information, be sent to Joseph M. Wilson, Philadelphia, Pa., to be by him arranged and classified in time to be presented to the next General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church.

Resolved, That Joseph M. Wilson be authorized to supply the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries in connection with this General Assembly, with a sufficient number of copies of this overture as there are churches within the bounds of said Presbyteries, with the understanding that the Stated Clerks will attend to their distribution among the churches.

Resolved, That in order to the fulfilment of the objects contemplated, the Presbyteries be enjoined to make inquiries from time to time, testing the diligence of the churches in replying to the questions contained in this overture.

The Assembly took up the first order of the day, viz., the Report of the Committee on Psalmody, the first resolution being under discussion.

The several resolutions of the Report were adopted, seriatim. The paper as a whole was then adopted, and is as follows:

The last General Assembly, in the appointment of the Committee on Psalmody, proceeded upon the assumption of "a growing desire, in all parts of the Church, that our psalmody should be enriched from the large stores of lyric poetry which have accumulated since our Hymn Book was compiled." And, in view of an overture from one of our Presbyteries, asking for a book of hymns, with tunes affixed, the Committee were directed to "take the whole subject into consideration, and to report to the next (i. e. to this) Assembly what changes, if any, should be made in our present Book of Psalms and Hymns. They were "also to consider the expediency of arranging portions of the word of God in a form suitable for chanting in our congregations."

In accordance with this appointment, six of the Committee—Drs. Prime, Boardman, Blackwood, Shields, and Burt, with the Chairman—convened in Philadelphia last October; and again the same persons (excepting Drs. Boardman and Blackwood, and in addition, Drs. Lord and Dickson, with ruling elders Todd, Carter, and Kinnicut, nine of the Committee) met in New York just previous to the meeting of the Assembly. After endeavouring to "consider the whole subject," the Committee have unanimously agreed to the recommendations of this report. It is our conviction that the wishes and the interests of the Church demand immediate and earnest attention to this matter. We are at the same time compelled to recognize the fact of great diversity of views and preferences in regard to this. That there is a warm attachment to our present Book of Psalms and Hymns, cannot, we think, be denied. It has become, to a large portion of our people, endeared and sacredly associated. Yet, of these friends of the Book, it is indisputable that a large portion desire to have it "enriched" by a supplement. Valuable as it may be, and comparing not unfavourably with other books of the sort, it is felt by many not to be what the Church is entitled to have.

At the same time, we have no doubt that there is in most, if not in all, parts of the Church, a strong and increasing desire to have what is good and suitable in our present book, "enriched" by important modifications, and especially by the substitution of some absent and indispensable hymns, for many in the book that may well be dispensed with. We believe it can thus be made a model book for the purposes of worship; and in our opinion, the felt necessity of this cannot be disregarded without serious detriment to our Church. We recognize, in the multiplication of books of hymns with tunes, and in the prevalent supply of our Sabbath-schools, and to some extent of our social services, with a very undesirable and even noxious psalmody—a psalmody in which, as one of our Committee sarcastically observed, "if only there were a little religion, there would be a little of almost everything." In this, and other such indications, we recognize a restless purpose to have this outcry of the Church somehow responded to.

The simple question would seem to be, Who shall supply the want? Shall we yield our churches, and families, and Sabbath-schools, in this vital matter, to the control of parties outside of our communion and sympathies as a Church? Shall we expose our Church nurseries, and the devotions of the people, to multiform influences averse from our system, and in which poison is often sugar-coated, or shall we resolutely and faithfully retain the control of these tendencies?

The Committee express the opinion that a small, rather than a large collection, for the purposes of public and social worship, will best meet all these wants of the Church. We presume that it will not be deemed expedient to attempt providing, in the proposed book, a treasury of sacred poetry adequate to all the needs of Christian experience and Christian nurture. We think it unsatisfactory, therefore, to urge on behalf of a large, rather than a small collection, that there is so great a diversity of tastes and prejudices. Because this plea would forbid any limitation, and preclude any law of just taste. We assume that there are some settled principles, and that, with a becoming regard for our peculiarities as a people, our aim must be to correct errors of taste and practice in this important part of divine service, and construct a book which may rather educate ourselves to excellence here, than pander to pernicious influences so prevalent under the guise of musical attractions.

A book of about five hundred hymns, wisely selected, and representing every principal phase of truth and experience, would tend to familiarize our people with what is of rare worth in sacred song, and avoid the evil of a multitude of commonplace hymns, of little or no devotional adaptedness.

In our opinion, there are two aims for the proposed book—to provide for the worship of God in "psalms and hymns, and spiritual songs;" and that this worship shall be rendered by all present in the service. Admit that there may be occasional exceptions, when some other end may be sought by means of music and song in the church; but do not we agree that usually the worship of God is the proper end of psalmody in public or social worship? And are we not prepared to insist that this duty of praising the Lord is incumbent upon all present, and may not properly be deputed to a few?

If the Assembly accede to these views, it is evident that our object is greatly simplified, and can be accomplished more surely by selecting what the Church has approved and loved, and by hymns and tunes, when from other sources, of corresponding quality and fitness to Christian experience. Pursuing such an end, and by such a method, it will be found (we think) that a book of the size already indicated will exhaust the existing supply, and amply meet all the wants of the Church. We can at once gratify those who desire what they have not in this respect, and avoid great and radical changes. Such a book may easily be made to answer the demand of a supplement for our present book, and, at the same time, with suitable tunes affixed, will meet all reasonable and maturely considered calls of those in the Church who ask for a small selection, either to be used in all religious services, or for the less formal occasions of our social meetings and Sabbath-schools. By this plan we hope that all classes may be satisfied, and our psalmody truly improved without such a revolution as could disturb any portion of the Church. The tendency, we believe, will be to induce general participation in this part of worship, and to make it sound and devout. Our young people may thus be gratified and advantaged by what will only benefit and edify all. The Committee, after a careful consideration of the subject in all its bearings, are of opinion that we offer the only plan which can hope to command and relieve the various preferences which prevail in our Church.

We therefore respectfully recommend to this Assembly to resolve,

1. That a selection of psalms and hymns be made from our present book and from other sources, and published with suitable tunes; and that all the hymns in this new selection, which are not in our present book, be published as a supplement for the use of those who prefer it; and that the hymns in the new selection, in addition to their own numbers, shall retain the numbers in the old book, so that both may be used in the same congregation without embarrassment.

2. That in accordance with the recommendation of previous assemblies, and responsive to the wish of many in the Church, there shall be made a careful selection from the Bible of passages to be arranged for chanting; and that this shall be fitted to be bound both with the selection of hymns and tunes, and with the supplement, at the option of the churches.

3. That the volumes thus provided for shall be furnished with ample indices after the style of the best improvements in this respect.

4. That a committee of five be appointed by this Assembly, who shall have power to employ all needful talent and means, at the expense of the Board of Publication, for the accomplishment of these ends as perfectly and speedily as possible, and report the result to some future Assembly.

5. That the Board of Publication be instructed to defray the personal expenses of the present Committee, incurred in performing this service.

It was moved and carried that the Moderator appoint a committee to nominate members for the committee of five, called for by the fourth resolution of the report just adopted. The Moderator appointed as the committee the Rev. W. E. Schenck, D.D., the Rev. J. T. Backus, D.D., and ruling elder C. N. Todd.

The Assembly spent a half hour in devotional exercises, after which it took a recess until 7½ o'clock, P. M.

THURSDAY EVENING, 7½ o'clock.

The Assembly met after recess.

The first order of the day was taken up, viz., the consideration of Judicial Case No. 5.

Before entering upon the case, the Moderator reminded the members that they were about to sit in the high character of a court of Jesus Christ.

It was ordered that the hearing of the case proceed in the same order as that directed in the Book of Discipline in cases of appeal.

The following papers were then read: 1. The decision of the Presbytery of St. Louis, which is appealed from. 2. The complaint of Dr. McPheeters, and that of W. W. Green and others.

At this stage of the proceedings, the reading of a Memorial from sundry ministers and ruling elders of the Presbytery of St. Louis was objected to, when it was moved and carried that the reading thereof be dispensed with.

The Assembly adjourned, after prayer by Dr. Beatty.

FRIDAY MORNING, May 27.

DAYTON, OHIO, May 24th, 1864.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., in session at Newark, N. J.

Rev. and Dear Brother—I have been instructed to communicate to the reverend body over which you preside, the following extract from the Records of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., in session in this city, this 24th of May, 1864.

A written communication was received from the General Assembly in session at Newark, New Jersey, conveying more fully the information received by telegraph on the 21st inst., that, in view of the condition of our country, they had resolved to spend Wednesday afternoon of this week in thanksgiving to Almighty God for past mercies, and in prayer for his continued blessing upon our country, with the request that this Assembly would unite with them, at the same time, in the same object.

Whereupon, it was resolved to comply with the request, and that the Stated Clerk be instructed to communicate this action to the Moderator of the General Assembly at Newark, New Jersey, with the assurance of our hearty sympathy with them in thus commending the case of our beloved country to the favourable regards of the God of our fathers—the great Head of the Church—both theirs and ours.

A true extract.

Dr. Breckinridge, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported, Overture No. 24, to allow the Second church at Nashville, Tenn., to transfer its Presbyterial connection.

The Committee recommend that, the last General Assembly having attached the Second Presbyterian church in Nashville to the Presbytery of Transylvania, and there being now a prospect of the Presbytery of Nashville rescinding the act by which it seceded from the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America; therefore,

Resolved, That so soon as the Presbytery shall have so rescinded its act of secession, the Second church in Nashville shall be authorized to transfer its connection with the Presbytery of Transylvania to the Presbytery of Nashville.

The recommendation was adopted.

The Special Committee to which was referred the memorials from the Presbyteries of Miami and Ogdensburg, on the subject of union with the New-school body, reported, and its report was accepted and placed upon the docket.

The order of the day was taken up, viz., the consideration of Judge Matthews' report on Overture No. 12.

Judge Ryerson moved to amend the report, by substituting for the words, "In view, therefore, of its former testimonies upon the subject, the General Assembly does hereby devoutly express its gratitude to Almighty God for the great deliverance He has prepared for our country from the evil and guilt of slavery; its cordial approbation of the measures taken by the national and State authorities for its extirpation, as the root of bitterness from which has sprung rebellion," the following, viz. "In view, therefore, of its former testimonies upon the subject, the General Assembly does hereby devoutly express its gratitude to Almighty God for having overruled the wickedness and calamities of the rebellion so as to work out the deliverance of our country from the evil and guilt of slavery; its earnest desire for the extirpation of slavery as the root of bitterness from which has sprung rebellion," &c., &c.

Dr. D. X. Junkin moved to amend by erasing the words, "It is their declared policy not to consent to the reorganization of civil government within the seceded States upon any other basis than that of emancipation."

Judge Ryerson moved as a substitute to amend by changing in the sentence just quoted the words, "It is their declared policy," so as to read, "It is the President's declared policy." Judge Ryerson's amendment was adopted.

Dr. Krebs moved the following further amendments:

1. Instead of the words, "In our early days our Church in America delivered," to insert the words, "From the earliest period of our Church, the General Assembly delivered."

2. Instead of the words, "nor do we assume the right confidently to declare," to insert the words, "whilst we do not believe."

3. To strike out the words, "from every good man."

4. To insert the word "American" in the sentence, "The spirit of American slavery, not content, &c."

5. To strike out the word "national" from the sentence, "the highest national authorities have abolished, &c.," and insert "executive."

6. To substitute "trust" for "belief" in the sentence, "its earnest belief that the thorough removal, &c."

These amendments were all adopted. The whole paper was then, with almost entire unanimity, adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures report

Overture No. 12, from the Presbytery of Newton, reciting the former deliverances of the General Assembly upon the subject of slavery in this country, and the duty of emancipation, and asking this General Assembly to take such action as in their wisdom seems proper to meet the present aspects of human bondage in our country, and recommend the adoption of the following:

In the opinion of the General Assembly, the solemn and momentous circumstances of our times, the state of our country, and the condition of our Church, demand a plain declaration of its sentiments upon the question of slavery, in view of its present aspects in this country.

From the earliest period of our Church, the General Assembly delivered unequivocal testimonies upon this subject, which it will be profitable now to reaffirm.

In the year 1787, the Synod of New York and Philadelphia, in view of movements then on foot looking to the abolition of slavery, and highly approving of them, declared that "inasmuch as men introduced from a servile state to a participation of all the privileges of civil society, without a proper education, and without previous habits of industry, may be, in many respects, dangerous to the community, therefore they earnestly recommend to all the members belonging to their communion to give these persons who are at present held in servitude, such good education as to prepare them for the better enjoyment of freedom." * * * "And finally they recommend it to all their people to use the most prudent measures consistent with the interest and the state of civil society in the countries where they live, to procure eventually the final abolition of slavery in America."

In 1795, the General Assembly "assured all the churches under their care that they view with the deepest concern any vestiges of slavery which may exist in our country."

In 1815 the following record was made: "The General Assembly have repeatedly declared their cordial approbation of those principles of civil liberty which appear to be recognized by the federal and state governments in these United States. They have expressed their regret that the slavery of the Africans and of their descendants still continues in so many places, and even among those within the pale of the Church, and have urged the Presbyteries under their care to adopt such measures as will secure, at least to the rising generation of slaves, within the bounds of the Church, a religious education, that they may be prepared for the exercise and enjoyment of liberty, when God in his providence may open a door for their emancipation."

The action of the General Assembly upon the subject of slavery in the year 1818 is unequivocal, and so well known that it need not be recited at length. The following extracts, however, we regard as applicable to our present circumstances, and proper now to be reiterated:

"We consider the voluntary enslaving of one portion of the human race by another as a gross violation of the most precious and sacred rights of human nature, as utterly inconsistent with the law of God, which requires us to love our neighbour as ourselves, and as totally irreconcilable with the spirit and principles of the gospel of Christ, which enjoins 'that all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them.' Slavery creates a paradox in the moral system. It exhibits rational, moral, and accountable beings in such circumstances as scarcely to leave them the power of moral action. It exhibits them as dependent on the will of others, whether they shall receive religious instruction, whether they shall know and worship the true God, whether they shall enjoy the ordinances of the gospel, whether they shall perform the duties and cherish the endearments of husbands and wives, parents and children, neighbours and friends; whether they shall preserve their chastity and purity, or regard the dictates of justice and humanity. Such are some of the consequences of slavery—consequences not imaginary, but which connect themselves with its very existence." * * * * *

"From this view of the consequences resulting from the practice, into which Christian people have most inconsistently fallen, of enslaving a portion of their brethren of mankind, . . . it is manifestly the duty of all Christians, who enjoy the light of the present day, when the inconsistency of slavery, both with the dictates of humanity and of religion, has been demonstrated, and is generally seen and acknowledged, to use their honest, earnest, and unwearied endeavours to correct the errors of former times, and as speedily as possible to efface this blot on our holy religion, and to obtain the complete abolition of slavery throughout Christendom, and if possible throughout the world."

They earnestly exhorted those portions of the Church where the evil of slavery had been entailed upon them, "to continue, and, if possible, to increase their exertions to effect a total abolition of slavery, and to suffer no greater delay to take place in this most interesting concern than a regard to public welfare truly and indispensably demands;" and declare "that our country ought to be governed in this matter by no other consideration than an honest and impartial regard to the happiness of the injured party, uninfluenced by the expense or inconvenience which such a regard may involve;" warning "all who belong to our denomination of Christians against unduly extending this plea of necessity; against making it a cover for the love and practice of slavery, or a pretence for not using efforts that are lawful and practicable to extinguish this evil."

Such were the early and unequivocal instructions of our Church. It is not necessary too minutely to inquire how faithful and obedient to these lessons and warnings those to whom they were addressed have been. It ought to be acknowledged that we have all much to confess and lament as to our shortcomings in this respect. Whether a strict and careful application of this advice would have rescued the country from the evil of its condition, and the dangers which have since threatened it, is known to the Omniscient alone. Whilst we do not believe that the present judgments of our Heavenly Father, and Almighty and Righteous Governor, have been inflicted solely in punishment for our continuance in this sin; yet it is our judgment that the recent events of our history, and the present condition of our Church and country, furnish manifest tokens that the time has at length come, in the providence of God, when it is His will that every vestige of human slavery among us should be effaced, and that every Christian man should address himself with industry and earnestness to his appropriate part in the performance of this great duty.

Whatever excuses for its postponement may heretofore have existed, no longer avail. When the country was at peace within itself, and the Church was unbroken, many consciences were perplexed in the presence of this great evil, for the want of an adequate remedy. Slavery was so formidably intrenched behind the ramparts of personal interests and prejudices, that to attack it with a view to its speedy overthrow appeared to be attacking the very existence of the social order itself, and was characterized as the inevitable introduction of an anarchy, worse in its consequences than the evil for which it seemed to be the only cure. But the folly and weakness of men have been the illustrations of God's wisdom and power. Under the influence of the most incomprehensible infatuation of wickedness, those who were most deeply interested in the perpetuation of slavery have taken away every motive for its further toleration. The spirit of American slavery, not content with its defences to be found in the laws of the States, the provisions of the Federal Constitution, the prejudices in favour of existing institutions, and the fear of change, has taken arms against law, organized a bloody rebellion against the national authority, made formidable war upon the Federal Union, and in order to found an empire upon the corner-stone of slavery, threatens not only our existence as a people, but the annihilation of the principles of free Christian government; and thus has rendered the continuance of negro slavery incompatible with the preservation of our own liberty and independence.

In the struggle of the nation for existence against this powerful and wicked treason, the highest executive authorities have proclaimed the abolition of slavery within most of the rebel States, and decreed its extinction by military force. They have enlisted those formerly held as slaves to be soldiers in the national armies. They have taken measures to organize the labour of the freedmen, and instituted measures for their support and government in their new condition. It is the President's declared policy not to consent to the reorganization of civil government within the seceded States upon any other basis than that of emancipation. In the loyal States where slavery has not been abolished, measures of emancipation, in different stages of progress, have been set on foot, and are near their consummation; and propositions for an amendment to the Federal Constitution, prohibiting slavery in all the States and Territories, are now pending in the national Congress. So that, in our present situation, the interests of peace and of social order are identified with the success of the cause of emancipation. The difficulties which formerly seemed insurmountable, in the providence of God, appear now to be almost removed. The most formidable remaining obstacle, we think, will be found to be the unwillingness of the human heart to see and accept the truth against the prejudices of habit and of interest; and to act towards those who have been heretofore degraded as slaves, with the charity of Christian principle in the necessary efforts to improve and elevate them.

In view, therefore, of its former testimonies upon the subject, the General Assembly does hereby devoutly express its gratitude to Almighty God for having overruled the wickedness and calamities of the rebellion, so as to work out the deliverance of our country from the evil and guilt of slavery; its earnest desire for the extirpation of slavery, as the root of bitterness from which has sprung rebellion, war, and bloodshed, and the long list of horrors that follow in their train: its earnest trust that the thorough removal of this prolific source of evil and harm will be speedily followed by the blessings of our Heavenly Father, the return of peace, union and fraternity, and abounding prosperity to the whole land; and recommend to all in our communion to labour honestly, earnestly, and unweariedly in their respective spheres for this glorious consummation, to which human justice, Christian love, national peace and prosperity, every earthly and every religious interest, combine to pledge them.

The tellers on the vote to fill the chair of Didactic and Pastoral Theology in the Theological Seminary at Allegheny, reported that one hundred and eighty-five ballots were cast, of which three were blanks; two were scattering; twenty-nine were for the Rev. Jonathan Edwards, D. D.; and one hundred and fifty-one were for the Rev. Archibald Alexander Hodge, D. D., and that Dr. Hodge is elected accordingly.

It was moved and carried, that the Rev. William Johnstone, of Belfast, Ireland, now present, be invited to address the Assembly for fifteen minutes in the course of its devotional exercises, which was done.

After spending a half hour in devotional exercises, the Assembly took a recess until half-past seven o'clock, P. M.

FRIDAY EVENING, 7½ o'clock.

The Assembly met after recess.

Dr. Beatty moved the following, which was carried:

Resolved, That the Directors and Faculty of the Western Theological Seminary have the privilege of making an arrangement of the studies in the several departments, which arrangement, if intended to be permanent, shall be submitted in their report to the next General Assembly.

The Rev. L. M. Miller, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that they have granted leave to the following persons, viz., Ministers—R. H. Beattie, after the sessions of Thursday; J. S. Gordon for the sessions of Friday. Ruling Elders—William Ernst, J. C. Mateer, James Parker, after the sessions of Thursday; Lewis McBride, William Wilson, James O. Merritt, after the sessions of Friday; T. C. Henry, after the sessions of Saturday.

Dr. Reynolds from the Special Committee to draw up a Minute in reference to the United States Christian Commission, presented a report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

This General Assembly would express their full confidence in the United States Christian Commission; their earnest sympathy in, and unqualified approbation of the great and good and noble objects it has in view; their high admiration at the heroism which has been manifested by its officers, agents, and delegates, through much self-sacrificing devotion to the physical and spiritual wants of our armies and navy, in the camp, on the march, on battle-fields, and in hospitals; their praise of the economy and extraordinary efficiency with which its vast and widely-extended operations have been conducted; and their gratitude to God for the success which, through his blessing, has attended its efforts.

While the General Assembly has nothing to say, except in terms of cordial approval, of all properly conducted organized benevolent enterprises in behalf of the noble, and often suffering men, who on land and on sea are defending our national liberties, integrity, and honour, against a powerful and atrociously wicked rebellion, but would bid all such God-speed—for alas! there is work enough for all—they would, and hereby do, in a special manner, commend the United States Christian Commission to the liberal support and encouragement of all their churches and congregations, and of all the individuals and families composing them; and invite their warm coöperation with it.

Having the entire confidence and favour of the government, and of the military authorities throughout the land; having unsurpassed, if equalled, facilities for the conveyance and application of the benefactions of a freely offering people to those for whom they are designed; and—as its chief excellence, entitling it to the high regard of Christians—having as its eminent aim and effort to care for the souls of our soldiers and sailors, both officers and privates, supplying them with religious reading, preaching to them the gospel of Christ, with untiring love watching and praying by and with the suffering and dying, and directing them to the blood which cleanses from all sin, while it is not left behind any other association in the zeal and energy with which it seeks to relieve the physical wants of the sick and wounded, the wearied and naked and hungry, we invite all to make to it, and through it, liberal donations of money and sanitary stores and religious books and tracts.

And we would urgently ask that large donations be made speedily, for the need of them is immediately great and pressing. Tens of thousands of sick and wounded are now in the hospitals, and must not be left to any suffering which human means can relieve or prevent. And mighty battles are yet, probably, to be fought, and other thousands will be to be ministered unto. Let liberal offerings be made at once, to be followed frequently by others still, as long as this war shall keep in the field our sons, husbands, and brothers, and friends, and countrymen.

A report was received from a Committee appointed by the last General Assembly on the subject of a day of prayer for the youth of our country. The report was accepted and adopted, and the Committee was discharged.

The report is as follows:

The Committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1863 to inquire into the expediency of changing the day of prayer for the youth of the country, respectfully report:

That, having considered the question referred to them, they recommend that no change of the day be made, and they ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

E. C. WINES, Chairman.

The order of the day was postponed to hear Dr. Musgrave, from the Special Committee on the Religious Instruction of the Freedmen, read a report.

The report was accepted and placed on the docket.

The Moderator announced the following persons as a Committee to inform the Rev. A. A. Hodge, D. D., of his election to the vacant chair in the Western Theological Seminary, viz., Rev. Dr. Beatty, Rev. Moses A. Hoge, and Charles E. Lathrop, ruling elder.

The order of the day was taken up, viz., to continue the hearing of Judicial Case No. 5.

Dr. Maclean moved that this case, after being now taken up, be proceeded with without interruption until it is terminated. Carried.

The Clerk read the record of the proceedings of the inferior judicatories. One of the original parties was then heard; Judge W. T. Wood, of St. Louis, appearing on the part of the complainants, and addressing the Assembly.

The report of the Committee on Correspondence, on the Tercentenary of Calvin's death, was taken from the docket and read. The report was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Correspondence, to whom was referred the resolutions of Mr. Kempshall on the circular address of Rev. Merle D'Aubigné, D. D., noting the occurrence on Friday, the 27th instant, of the three hundredth anniversary of the day on which John Calvin, the Reformer, died, and soliciting aid toward the erection in Geneva, Switzerland, of a Memorial Hall, report the same with an additional resolution, and recommend their adoption.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America, in session at Newark, N. J., May, 1864, in view of the published appeal of the Rev. Merle D'Aubigné, D. D., of Geneva, Switzerland, resolves, 1st. That it cordially sympathizes with the Christians of Geneva in their efforts to erect a large hall in that city to be used for the exposition of the great truths of redemption, and as a testimonial of gratitude to God, who gave to Geneva and to the world the great Reformer.

2d. That it expresses ardent and unabated attachment to the system of religious truth as set forth by John Calvin, and cordially commends to the liberality of the Church the appeal of Dr. D'Aubigné.

And 3d. That William Rankin, Jr., Esq., Treasurer of the Board of Foreign Missions, receive and transmit to Geneva any funds which may be contributed for this object.

The Assembly then adjourned after prayer by the Rev. B. S. Everitt.

SATURDAY MORNING, May 28.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator. A half hour was spent in devotional exercises.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

A communication was received from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church now sitting in Dayton, Ohio. It was read, and is as follows:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, in session at Dayton, Ohio, May 25, 1864.

The Committee on the Polity of the Church, to which was referred the overture of the St. Lawrence Presbytery, upon the re-union of the two General Assemblies of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, propose the following declaration, viz.,

1st. That this Assembly cordially welcome all signs of increased love and union among those who hold to the same facts and doctrines of the gospel, and bears its solemn testimony, with self-humiliation, against whatever fosters alienation and genders strife among the disciples of our Lord.

2d. That the tendencies of modern society, the condition of Protestant Christianity, the increase of infidelity, the progress of Romanism, and the present and prospective state of our country, afford powerful arguments against further subdivisions, and in favour of that union and unity of the Church, into which it is to grow, and which is to be its consummation; and that we record with unfeigned gratitude our profound conviction that the spirit of disunion and of sectarianism is waning, and that the spirit of brotherly kindness and mutual confidence is largely on the increase.

3d. That in an especial manner are those Churches bound to foster this spirit, which adopt the same standards of faith and order, and whose divisions are local, personal, and incidental, and for whose reunion there is only needed a wise deference to each other's rights, and a higher measure of Christian charity. Adopting the same formulas of faith and Form of Government, all that is needed is to receive them in the same spirit.

4th. That as the Churches represented by this Assembly did not inaugurate the separation, so, too, they hold to no principles and views, and would impose no terms inconsistent with a full and cordial re-union, whenever and wherever the will of the Great Head of the Church, as indicated by divine providence, may open the way for us all to meet together again on the same basis on which of old our fathers stood; and that we should rejoice in such reunion as a pledge of the future prosperity, and an augury of the accelerated growth of the kingdom of Christ through the length and breadth of our land; and that it is our united and fervent prayer to our common Master, that he would so remove all hinderances as to make a plain path for our feet whereon we may walk together, being of one heart and mind, in the ways of the Lord.

5th. That while we do not deem it expedient now to appoint such a committee as that asked for in the memorial of the St. Lawrence Presbytery, yet, that this expression of our principles and convictions, with our heartfelt Christian salutations, be transmitted to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church now in session in Newark, New Jersey.

The report and recommendation were unanimously adopted.

A true extract.

EDWIN F. HATFIELD, Stated Clerk.

By unanimous consent, on motion of Judge Matthews, the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on Overture No. 12, adopted yesterday, was amended in the sentence reading as follows: "The highest Executive authorities have abolished slavery," so as to read, "The highest Executive authorities have proclaimed the abolition of slavery."

The Committee on Correspondence reported a recommendation, that the Rev. E. R. Craven, D. D., principal, and Rev. J. T. Backus, D. D., alternate, be appointed delegates to attend the General Synod of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church. The report was accepted and adopted.

Ruling Elders—Samuel Linn, for the sessions of Saturday; John Gourley, J. S. Aldrich, E. Crosby, after the sessions of Friday; William K. Oat, F. W. Hastings, Joseph Wallace, after the sessions of Saturday; N. Dodge, after the sessions of Monday.

The Committee on Correspondence reported a list of nominations to corresponding bodies. The report was accepted, and placed upon the docket.

Dr. Maclean, from the Judicial Committee, reported Case No. 8, being a complaint of John Crozier and John Mack against the Synod of Illinois. The Committee find the complaint in order, and recommend that it be heard. It was placed upon the docket.

Mr. Haskell moved that it be the order of the day for Monday, at three o'clock, P. M., to take up the report of the Special Committee on a Union of the two branches of the Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Musgrave moved as an amendment, "Provided Judicial Case No. 5 be concluded by that time." The amendment was carried.

The motion of Mr. Haskell, as thus amended, was carried.

Dr. Schenck moved that the communication from the General Assembly now sitting at Dayton, Ohio, be referred to the Special Committee on a Union of the two branches of the Presbyterian Church. Carried.

Dr. Craven, from the Committee on Devotional Exercises, reported further arrangements for the services of to-morrow. The report was approved.

The Assembly, after prayer by Dr. D. X. Junkin, adjourned to Monday at 9 o'clock, A. M.

MONDAY MORNING, May 30.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator. A half hour was spent in devotional exercises.

The minutes of Saturday were read and approved.

The following communication was received from the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church now sitting in Philadelphia:

PHILADELPHIA, May 27, 1864.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

The General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, having received a communication from the reverend body over which you preside, asking its coöperation with your Assembly "in thanksgiving to Almighty God for past mercies, and in prayer for his continued blessing on our country," and being unanimously impressed with the importance of the proposed subjects of thanksgiving and prayer, regrets that such a coöperation is impossible, from the fact that the Assembly was not yet convened at the time appointed.

The General Assembly has, however, appointed a time for like devotional exercises.

By order of the Correspondence Committee,

JAMES R. DOIG.

Dr. Schenck, Chairman of the Committee appointed to nominate persons to form the committee of five called for by the report of the Committee on Psalmody, presented a report, which, on motion of Dr. Musgrave, was recommitted for amendment.

Rev. Mr. Kempshall moved the following, which was unanimously carried:

Whereas, Owing to the rapid growth of our Church, the amount of business which annually comes before the General Assembly is largely increasing. And Whereas, it is of great importance to have the people of our congregations more correctly informed upon the operations of our Boards, therefore

Resolved, That it be made a standing rule of the General Assembly that the Reports of the several Boards, and of the Committees on these reports, be heard in the evenings during the sessions of the Assembly, in such order as the several Secretaries of the Boards may agree upon, and previously report to the General Assembly.

The Rev. Mr. Lawson moved to take from the docket the report of the Committee on the Records of the Synod of Sandusky. Carried.

The report was taken up and unanimously adopted. It is as follows:

The Committee on the Minutes of the Synod of Sandusky report that they have examined these records, and find them correct, and recommend their approval—except that the Synod has entered upon its minutes on page 75, a “formal protest” against the action of the last General Assembly.

Your Committee judge that remonstrance or complaint, for the reopening of a question, may be made by an inferior judicatory to a superior; but that protest against the action of the General Assembly can be made only by a minority of the body itself.

The order of the day was taken up, viz., the consideration of Judicial Case No. 5.

The Moderator again reminded the members to regard their high character as a court of Jesus Christ.

Dr. McPheeters was further heard on behalf of the complainants.

Mr. George P. Strong was heard on behalf of the memorialists, a minority of the members of the Pine Street Church in St. Louis.

Before Mr. Strong had finished, the Assembly adjourned, after prayer by Dr. Elliott.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Dr. Schenck.

Dr. Elliott, Chairman of the Special Committee to which had been referred sundry papers on the Union of the two branches of the Presbyterian Church, presented a report, which was placed upon the docket.

Dr. Schenck, from the Committee to nominate persons to form the Committee of five called for by the fourth resolution of the report of the Committee on Psalmody, reported the following as suitable persons, viz., John M. Krebs, D. D., J. Trumbull Backus, D. D., Robert Davidson, D. D., J. E. Rockwell, D. D., and Willis Lord, D. D.

The report was accepted and adopted.

Dr. J. M. Lowrie, from the Committee on Systematic Benevolence, presented a report, which was read, accepted, and adopted. It is as follows:

The Committee on Systematic Benevolence would respectfully report to the General Assembly, that reports, according to the proper form as ordered by the Assembly, have been placed in their hands by thirty-three Presbyteries, and three irregularly drawn up—thirty-six in all.

Coming from so few of the Presbyteries of the entire Church, these statistical papers cannot be thought to indicate the true progress of the cause of Systematic Benevolence. The Reports of the various Boards on the floor of this Assembly declare that more churches have contributed to their funds during the past year than ever before, and that the amounts show increased liberality. We have good reason to think that substantial advancement has been made in securing the interest of the churches in all our enterprises. That there are delinquencies in some Presbyteries of which better things should be expected, the reports in the hands of the Committee clearly reveal; and it is some evidence of a lack of interest that so many Presbyteries have wholly failed to make reports as the Assembly has ordered. But we fully believe that the system of securing contributions through the labours of the regular ministry is the most efficient and excellent for our Church; and that this may be made equal to the great necessities that rise before us.

Your Committee do not deem it needful to discuss the great principles of Christian benevolence in a report to this body, though they esteem it of great importance that the attention of the people, through the ministry, should be constantly, plainly, and earnestly directed to this matter. A paper has been referred by the Assembly to this Committee which expresses a high sense of the importance of the duties now devolving upon the Board of Domestic Missions, and the importance of enlarged liberality in the churches to meet these enlarged claims. This paper does not cover the whole ground, and we must state the matter in wider terms. If it be true, as therein affirmed, that the work of domestic missions widens immensely upon our hands, and that the increased cost of living makes it imperative to advance the contributions to enable the Board to maintain its position, much more to enlarge its operations, as much is true in every other direction. It is hard to magnify the work of domestic missions in the vastness of what should be undertaken, and in the importance of early and efficient service. But the Boards of Education and of Church Extension find a valid plea for larger contributions in the increased cost of securing success in their work; the Board of Foreign Missions is compelled to double its appropriations, if it would not disband its schools and recall or withhold its missionaries; the Bible Society has never done so much as now; and the Board of Publication has extraordinary calls to labour among our soldiers, sailors and prisoners, and appeals to us in terms against which Christian patriotism cannot close its ears. Never was the cause of Systematic Benevolence more important than now.

Just as true is it that the capability of giving on the part of our people has never before been so shown. God has shown us how much we can give, and how we should secure our gifts from every quarter. Thousands upon thousands of dollars have been cheerfully, voluntarily given to support our civil institutions, to bring comfort to our citizen soldiers in their camps, to relieve the wounded and dying in our hospitals and upon our battle-fields. Perhaps God is thus teaching our churches how much we can do when our hearts are in any cause, how much pleasure there is in benevolence, and how truly even the poorest can find the means of giving, and can magnify their humble offering by the poverty from which it springs. Perhaps He means that the warm patriotism of the country should reprove the cold piety of the Church. Shall not the large benevolence of our communities—and in these labours certainly Christian people have been behind no others—react upon the benevolent operations directly belonging to the Church of God? Giving prepares men for giving; and the people of God should not allow these benevolent affections, once aroused, to die out for want of exercise; but should call them forth for Jesus and the souls of men. The Church has this same land to bless, and more; and both as patriots and as Christians should we desire to emulate the examples of liberality which our times have called forth.

There should be no question that every part of the great work committed to the Church will flourish in proportion as the people of God are aroused to the affection of Christian benevolence, and are earnest in works of pious beneficence. We hail it as a token of good that the ministers and congregations of our communion have a growing interest in these duties, and feel more the responsibilities of Christian stewardship. Yet, indeed, we know that much remains to be done. Our Presbyteries and Synods should take continual care to have these duties urged upon all their churches, large and small, vacant and supplied. Our ministers should faithfully and frequently urge the claims of the suffering cause of Christ, and teach their people in the Master's words, that "it is more blessed to give than to receive." Our people should learn that if they possess not the Spirit of Christ, they are none of his, and should be encouraged to cast even the mites of bereavement and poverty into the treasury of the Lord. And the greatness of the work given to this generation, and the brief time in which we must do it, and the remembrance that this is but the seed-time, whose immense harvest may wave after we are gone, should combine to awaken in us new zeal to do with our might what our hands find to do.

The Committee recommend,

1st. That the previous orders of the Assembly touching the days for regular contributions, and the transmission of circulars to promote this object, be again enjoined:

2. That our ministers be exhorted to present these claims every year to all our churches, and that each pastor be directed, during the coming year, to preach directly upon systematic beneficence.

3. That the attention of our ruling elders be called to the work which they may accomplish, not only in vacant churches, but in aid of their pastors, for calling forth the activity and benevolence of our congregations.

The order of the day was taken up, viz., the consideration of Judicial Case No. 5. Mr. George P. Strong was further heard on behalf of the memorialists, a minority of the members of the Pine Street Church in St. Louis.

Dr. Rice moved, and it was carried, to suspend the order in regard to devotional exercises for this afternoon, so as to allow Mr. Strong to proceed with his remarks until the hour for recess.

At 5½ o'clock, P. M., the Assembly took a recess until 7½ o'clock, P. M.

MONDAY EVENING, 7½ o'clock.

The Assembly met after recess.

Mr. George P. Strong was further heard on the same behalf.

By leave of the Assembly, the Rev. Dr. McPheeters again addressed the body for fifteen minutes.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

Dr. Musgrave offered a resolution in reference to amending the Constitution of the United States, which was placed upon the docket.

The Rev. L. M. Miller, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that they had granted leave to Ministers—John Johnston, after the sessions of Saturday last; W. H. Van Doren, for the sessions of yesterday. Ruling Elders—To Thomas Owen, J. M. Burchfield, J. W. Kinnicutt, John F. Furst, W. C. Bovard, Benjamin S. Disbrow, William H. Dr. Schenck moved that the report be accepted, and that the letter to the Presbyterian Church in Ireland be approved and ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes of this Assembly. Carried.

Dr. Breckinridge, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported Overture No. 25, from the Presbytery of Dane, requesting that the Assembly urge ruling elders to take the superintendence of Sabbath-schools, it being their duty to feed the lambs.

The Committee report that the overture having come in at this late date, the Committee think there is no time for the consideration of it at this Assembly. The report was adopted. Also Overture No. 26, from the Rev. J. C. Thornton, asking the Assembly to declare whether Presbytery has absolute power over the settlement of ministers.

The Committee recommend that the querist be answered by referring him to the Form of Government and the past adjudications of the Church.

The recommendation of the Committee was adopted.

The order of the day was taken up, viz., the consideration of Judicial Case No. 5.

The Presbytery of St. Louis was heard in defence of its decision appealed from by the complainants; when J. W. Sutherland and Eustace H. Smith, ruling elders, and Rev. J. F. Fenton, commissioners from the Presbytery of St. Louis, addressed the Assembly.

By leave of the Assembly, Dr. McPheeters was permitted to make a short statement.

The Assembly then adjourned, after prayer by Dr. Reynolds.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly took a recess until 7½ o'clock, P. M.

TUESDAY EVENING, 7½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and the Clerk continued the calling of the roll, which had been interrupted by the recess.

Judge Ryerson moved, and it was carried, that when the Assembly adjourns, it be to to-morrow morning at 8½ o'clock.

The Assembly then adjourned, after prayer by Dr. Rodgers.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, June 1.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator. A half hour was spent in devotional exercises.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

The Rev. L. M. Miller, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that they had granted leave to Ministers—S. B. Westervelt and J. A. Liggett, after the sessions of yesterday; J. V. Reynolds, J. R. Warner, James W. Dale, and Gilbert Lane, after the sessions of to-day. Ruling Elders—Stanley Matthews and James Andrews, after the sessions of yesterday. C. E. Lathrop, F. A. Foster, W. Helphinstine, Thomas Archer, James Patton, J. W. Sutherland, and J. M. Chambers, after the sessions of to-day.

The Clerk resumed the calling of the roll, interrupted by adjournment last evening.

Dr. Lowrie moved the following, which was unanimously carried:

That a committee of five be appointed upon unfinished business, whose duty it shall be to consider what matters of business upon the docket of this Assembly may properly be postponed indefinitely, what may be deferred to the next Assembly, and what imperatively demands attention during our present sessions. The Committee to be composed of Drs. Krebs, Candee, and Tustin, and Judge Linn and R. Carter.

The Assembly adjourned, after prayer by Dr. Tustin.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. A. P. Forman.

The Clerk resumed the calling of the roll for opinions in Judicial Case No. 5.

The Rev. L. M. Miller moved, and it was carried, to suspend the order for devotional exercises this afternoon, and to proceed with the calling of the roll until 5½ o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly took a recess until 7 o'clock, P. M.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, 7 o'clock.

The Assembly met after recess.

The Clerk resumed and finished the calling of the roll for opinions in Judicial Case No. 5.

It was moved and carried that the Assembly will meet to-morrow morning at 8½ o'clock.

The Moderator explained the state of the question, and read the action of the Presbytery of St. Louis complained against, which was as follows:

The memorial of certain members of Pine Street church having been presented, after discussion,

Resolved, 1. That by the action of Presbytery in June, 1863, the pastoral relation between Dr. McPheeters and the Pine Street church was dissolved, and Dr. McPheeters ceased to be the pastor of that church, and ceased to have the right to exercise discipline, or perform the functions of the pastoral office in that church.

Resolved, 2. That inasmuch as this action was taken by Presbytery in the exercise of its power, "to ordain whatever pertains to the spiritual welfare of the churches under their care;" and is its solemn judgment that the interests of the Pine Street church required that Dr. McPheeters should cease to exercise the functions of minister to that church; therefore Presbytery learn with regret that Dr. McPheeters is still officiating as minister in that church, whether by invitation of session or at his own instance, is not known to Presbytery; but in either case they do hereby ordain and declare that in the judgment of Presbytery the peace and harmony and spiritual interests of Pine Street church, as well as a proper respect for the feelings of a large minority opposed to the ministrations of their former pastor, require that Dr. McPheeters shall cease all connection with that church, and no longer attempt to minister to that congregation.

The vote in the case was then taken by calling the roll, and with the following result: To sustain the complaints against the Presbytery, 47; not to sustain, 119; to sustain in part, 2; excused from voting, 1.

Whereupon, the Moderator announced that the complaints in this case against the Presbytery of St. Louis were not sustained.

Dr. Krebs moved, and it was carried, to appoint a Committee to draw up and report a minute in this case.

The following persons were appointed as the Committee, viz., Drs. Beatty, Musgrave, Elliott, Tustin, Craven, and Judge Linn.

The Assembly then adjourned, after prayer by the Rev. Mr. Hynes.

THURSDAY MORNING, June 2.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator. A half hour was spent in devotional exercises.

Dr. Wright and ruling elder R. Carter asked and received leave to give in their votes in Judicial Case No. 5.

The Rev. L. M. Miller, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that they have granted leave to the following persons, viz.

Ministers—A. McA. Thorburn, Alfred Taylor, David Tully, H. H. Hopkins, Joseph Platt, O. Lawson, J. J. Walsh, R. H. Beattie, after the sessions of yesterday; to T. A. Grove, W. F. Kean, M. L. Wortman, J. R. Warner, after the sessions of to-day. Ruling Elders—W. P. Van Rensselaer, after the sessions of Tuesday last; J. H. Willson, A. Christie, C. Falconer, after the sessions of yesterday; J. G. Allen, T. B. Beall, James Brown, Robert Patterson, J. P. Lapsley, William Allen, after the sessions of to-day; to James Rankin, William Mercer, G. B. Pogue, after this morning's session.

The report was adopted.

The Rev. Mr. Logan moved, and it was carried, to suspend all orders of the day until we have heard the report of the Committee to examine and report upon the docket.

Dr. Krebs, chairman of the Committee to examine the docket, presented a report, and brought forward the following items of business, which were upon the docket.

Judicial Case No. 1, being a complaint of the Presbytery of St. Clairsville against the Synod of Wheeling, for taking exception to their minutes on the ground "that their entire action in the case of the church of Kirkwood was unwise and inexpedient."

The Committee recommend that this complaint be dismissed, on the ground that in the action complained of the Synod passed no judgment in the case, but only expressed an opinion, and that there is therefore no constitutional ground for complaint. (See Book of Discipline, chap. vii., sec. iv., sub. sec. ii.) The report was adopted.

Judicial Case No. 2, being the complaint of the session of the Seventh church of Cincinnati, and the appeal or complaint of the Presbytery of Cincinnati, of the decision of the Synod of Cincinnati, in the case of the Misses Brown.

The Judicial Committee find both these complaints to be in order, and recommend that they be considered as one, and in the same order as Case No. 6 below.

A letter from the Rev. J. G. Monfort, D. D., in reference to this case, was read, requesting, for reasons stated, a reference of this case to the next General Assembly.

The Assembly, for these and other reasons, ordered it to be so referred.

Judicial Case No. 3, being a complaint of Mr. C. J. Abbott against certain action of the Synod of Missouri.

On motion, this case was dismissed, on the ground that it had been several years before the Assembly, and that no person had appeared to prosecute it.

Judicial Case No. 4. A memorial of the pastors and ruling elders of the church of Bloomington, Illinois, in respect to the decision of the last Assembly upon the appeal of Dr. T. F. Worrell.

The Committee recommend that this memorial be dismissed, on the ground that it is not competent for this Assembly to revise the proceedings of a previous Assembly in a judicial case.

The recommendation was adopted.

Judicial Case No. 6, being a complaint of the Rev. N. West against the Synod of New York.

The Committee on the docket recommend that this case be taken up and adjudicated by this Assembly. Carried.

Judicial Case No. 8, being a complaint of John Crozier and John Mack against the Synod of Illinois.

It was moved and carried that this case be referred to the next Assembly.

Overture No. 1, from the Board of Domestic Missions, requesting a modification of the resolution adopted by the Assembly of 1861 on certificates of honorary membership.

On motion of Dr. Musgrave, this overture was referred to the next Assembly.

Overture No. 3, from the Presbytery of West Jersey, respecting a parsonage fund.

In view of the action already taken on Overture No. 2, the Committee on Bills and Overtures recommended that no action be at present taken. Carried.

Overture No. 4, being a memorial from the Presbytery of Highland, asking for a division of that Presbytery.

It was resolved, that the request be granted. It was as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred the subject of the division of Presbytery, presented the following report, which was unanimously adopted.

The Presbytery of Highland, in session at Burlingame, Kansas, would most respectfully represent to the General Assembly to meet at Newark, N. J., in May next, that

Whereas, Our Presbytery extends over the entire State of Kansas and part of Nebraska, and consists of fifteen members and twenty-one churches; and whereas, The Synod of Upper Missouri has not met for two years, and there is no prospect that it can meet soon; therefore,

Resolved, That we respectfully request your venerable body to make of us the following division:

I. To commence at the Missouri River, where the south line of Atchison county strikes said river, and run west to the western boundary of the State; that part north of said line to retain the name, papers, and organization of Highland Presbytery, and to meet upon our own adjournment.

II. To commence on the aforesaid line, running west to the north-west corner of Jefferson county; thence south to the south-west corner of Franklin county, thence east to the eastern boundary of the State, thence north by the State line to the place of beginning; including ministers Reaser, Woodward, Read, Starrett, Wilson, and Day, and the churches of Westminster, 1st Leavenworth, Union of Lawrence, Lecompton, Osaukee, Wyandotte, Elmgrove, etc., to be called the "Presbytery of Leavenworth," to hold its first meeting in Leavenworth City, on the first Monday of October, at seven o'clock, P. M., the oldest minister present to preach the opening sermon, and preside until a Moderator be chosen.

III. The remaining part of our territory including ministers Linn, Warner, Steele, Pryse, and Morrison, with the churches of Carlyle, Fort Scott, Bethel, Burlingame, Auburn, Salina, Topeka, etc., to be called the "Presbytery of Topeka," to hold its first meeting at Topeka, on Friday before the first Monday of October next, at seven o'clock, P. M., the oldest minister present to preach the sermon, and preside until a Moderator be chosen.

Resolved, 2. That these three Presbyteries be erected into a Synod, to be called the "Synod of Kansas," to hold its first meeting at Lawrence, the first Wednesday of October, at seven o'clock, the oldest member present to preach the opening sermon, and preside till a Moderator be chosen.

Overture No. 5, from the Presbytery of Marion, as follows:

A minister receives a dismission to unite with a distant Presbytery, and travels in the region indicated, but does not remove his family. After an absence of months, perhaps of more than a year, he returns to the residence of his family. During his absence, however, the Synod sets off "all the ministers" of his Presbytery "residing north of the south line" of his county to form part of a new Presbytery. Holding the original certificate, to which Presbytery does he belong, and in case of the necessity of process for unministerial conduct, which Presbytery is bound to proceed in his case?

It was

Resolved, That the minister in question be held to belong to the Presbytery which granted him the certificate.

Overtures 6, 10, 15, and 22, were disposed of by the following resolutions, which were adopted.

Resolved, That the Overtures of the Synods of New York, New Jersey, Philadelphia, and Baltimore, recommending a change in the Form of Government and Book of Discipline on the subject of the constitution of courts of appeal, be referred to a special Committee of five to consider the whole subject, and report to the next Assembly.

Resolved, That if in the judgment of said Committee, a change be desirable and practicable, they be directed to digest and report a plan for the constitution of said court for the consideration of the Assembly.

The Moderator appointed the following persons on the Committee, viz., Drs. Craven, Krebs, Candee, and Judges Ryerson and Lynn.

Overture No. 7, from the Presbytery of St. Clairsville. Would it be consistent for a minister of the Presbyterian Church to administer the ordinance of baptism to a member of the Friends' Society, who professes to believe that "Jesus is the Son of God" and the essential doctrines of the Christian religion, but declares his intention to continue his connection with the Friends' Society.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported a recommendation that the inquirers be referred to the answers in the Larger and Shorter Catechisms, to the question, "To whom is baptism to be administered?"

The report was adopted.

Overture No. 8, from the Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary, asking "that it be required of candidates for the ministry in our Church, before entering the theological seminary, or commencing their regular course of theological study, to put themselves under the care of a Presbytery, unless specially hindered, in which case it shall be done at the first stated meeting of the proper Presbytery thereafter."

The Committee on Bills and Overtures recommended that it be strongly recommended to all young men entering the theological seminaries to put themselves under the care of the Presbyteries to which they naturally belong, as soon as possible.

The recommendation was adopted.

Overture No. 9, from the Presbytery of Allegheny on the Book of Psalms and Hymns. It was Resolved, That the Overture be referred to the Committee which has been raised under the report of the Committee on Psalmody.

Overture No. 11, from the Synod of the Pacific, on the amendment of the Constitution of the United States.

On the recommendation of the Committee to examine the docket, the following paper, previously offered by Dr. Musgrave, was taken from the docket, and adopted as a sufficient answer.

Whereas, Almighty God, the God of nations, is the head and source of all authority and power in civil government, and nations as such are the subjects of his moral laws, and his revealed will is the supreme law of national life: whereas, the Christian and loyal people of our country are everywhere beseeching God to interpose for our deliverance as a nation from the assaults of a most groundless and wicked rebellion, and to establish and maintain the national unity and authority: and whereas, resolutions have already passed the Senate of the United States, and are pending in the House of Representatives, recommending amendment of the National Constitution in several other particulars. Therefore,

Resolved, That it is our solemn national duty so to amend our fundamental and organic law, that the preamble of the National Constitution shall read in substance as follows: "We the people of the United States, [humbly acknowledging Almighty God as the source of all authority and power in civil government, the Lord Jesus Christ as the Governor among the nations, and His revealed Will as the supreme law of the land, in order to constitute a Christian government, and] in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquillity, provide for the common defence, promote the general welfare, and secure [the inalienable rights and] the blessings of [life,] liberty, [and the pursuit of happiness,] to ourselves, our posterity, [and all the people,] do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America."

And, further,

Resolved, That this General Assembly recommend to all the people in the congregations under its care to memorialize Congress upon this subject.

Overture No. 13, being a letter from the Rev. John Montgomery, requesting the Assembly to take such action as shall authorize a meeting of the Presbytery of Lafayette, Synod of Upper Missouri, at the First Church of Pettis, in the county of Pettis, state of Missouri, on Friday, the 16th day of September, 1864.

It was

Resolved, That the request be granted in the terms proposed.

Overture No. 18, from the Presbyterian Historical Society, requesting the Assembly to recommend their proposition to erect a fire-proof building for their use.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures recommend that the following resolution be adopted, viz.

Resolved, That the Assembly renewedly expresses its cordial approbation of the objects and aims of the Society in its efforts to preserve and perpetuate the history of the Presbyterian Church.

The resolution was adopted.

Overture No. 19, from the Presbytery of Columbus, memorializing the Assembly to authorize the Presbytery of Lake Superior, which is incompetent to transact presbyterial business in consequence of being reduced to less than a quorum, to receive the Rev. William T. Hendren as a member of that Presbytery upon a letter of dismissal from the Presbytery of Columbus.

On motion, the overture was referred to the Synod of St. Paul.

Overture No. 20, from the Synod of Sandusky, asking "Whether baptism administered by the denomination of Disciples (usually styled Campbellites) ought to be regarded as valid?"

The Committee on Bills and Overtures recommended that the question be answered in the negative, and the recommendation was adopted.

Overture No. 21, from the remnant of the Presbytery of Platte, requesting that that Presbytery be united with the Presbytery of Upper Missouri.

The Committee recommended that the Presbytery of Platte be united with the Presbytery of Upper Missouri, and that the Presbytery of Upper Missouri, as thus constituted, meet at St. Joseph, Missouri, on the second Thursday of July, at 8 o'clock, P. M.; and that the Rev. R. Scott, or, in his absence, the oldest minister present, preside until a moderator be chosen. The recommendation was adopted.

Overture No. 23, on the paper of Dr. A. S. MacMaster, referred by the Assembly to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Committee recommended the adoption of the following:

The General Assembly hereby appoints the first Thursday of September, or such other day as the President of the United States may in the mean time appoint as a season of national humiliation, as a day of fasting, humiliation, and prayer, in view of the sins of the nation and of the Church, for which we are justly suffering under the displeasure of God. The Assembly calls the special attention of our churches and people to the prevailing covetousness, the idolatry of wealth, the luxury and sinful extravagance, the sins and evils essentially growing out of and sustained by our long-continued system of slavery, Sabbath-breaking, profanity, intemperance, fraud, and violence, pride and boasting, and insensibility under God's judgments; the injustice, oppression, and cruelty practised towards the Indian race; the abounding corruption of the people; the prevalence of that extreme party spirit which leads even good men, in their devotion to party, to support for positions of trust and power candidates of known unfitness or bad character, in preference to those possessing every mental and moral qualification, as worthy of special remembrance and repentance.

In view of these sins and evils, the Assembly hereby calls upon all its churches and ministers to humble themselves before God, and to seek at the throne of grace, through the sacrifice and mediation of Jesus, our great High Priest, the pardon and removal of these transgressions, and the outpouring of the Spirit upon our rulers and people.

The recommendation was adopted.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Forman, the remaining Presbyteries of the Synod of Upper Missouri, viz., Upper Missouri and Lafayette, were attached to the Synod of Missouri.

On motion of Mr. Rankin, it was Resolved, That the expenses incurred by the Committee just appointed for revising that part of the Book of Discipline relating to Courts of Appeal, be defrayed by the Board of Publication.

On motion of Dr. Krebs, the revision of the Book of Discipline was taken from the docket, and the subject was referred to the next Assembly.

The report of Dr. Krebs from the Committee of the last Assembly, on unemployed ministers and vacant churches, was taken from the docket and unanimously adopted. It is as follows:

The last General Assembly (Minutes, 1863, pp. 66 and 69) appointed a Committee "to consider the expediency of a plan by which ministers without charge, and licentiates, and vacant churches, shall be brought to acquaintance with each other, and to report the same to the next General Assembly."

The Assembly made no provision for the meeting of the Committee; and the only opportunity of comparing views was by letter. As the result of that correspondence, the Chairman respectfully submits the following:

There being no general system for introducing unemployed ministers to vacant churches, the spectacle is frequently exhibited of such ministers and licentiates soliciting introductions to vacant pulpits; and to this number are to be added perhaps not a few pastors who, in the hope of bettering their condition, solicit the same opportunities of appearing as candidates.

But the number of ministers designated as "without charge" in the Statistical Tables of 1863, is about four hundred and sixty, and the number of licentiates about two hundred and ninety. The number of vacant churches is about five hundred. An abatement, however, must be made, so as to present the true state of the case.

For example: Of the very considerable number of licentiates reported from year to year, it is to be observed that a large proportion speedily obtain pastoral charges. The classes graduating from our theological seminaries are taken up much more rapidly than the ministers without charge. And thus, while the number of licentiates is kept up by the annual additions to it, it is believed that the individuals are, for the most part, transferred from the list of licentiates to the list of pastors without unreasonable delay; and it would seem, that there are comparatively few who remain for years as probationers, or who become teachers by profession, or who cease to preach as candidates.

The greater number of the permanently or long unemployed preachers is made up of ordained ministers, the bulk of whom have once or oftener been settled, but who, from failure of health, or insufficient support, or other causes—sometimes their own discontent, sometimes the dissatisfaction of their congregations, and perhaps for very slight and insufficient reasons—have been separated from their charges, and being afloat, are on that very account regarded unfavourably by desirable congregations which prefer younger and even untried men, or seek to fill their pulpits by calling, with the attraction of greater inducements, the acceptable pastors of other churches.

If we scrutinize the list of ministers without charge, it may appear that there are not so many able and desiring to be settled, or in need of some plan for introducing them to the vacant churches, as is commonly supposed.

The writer has more personal acquaintance with the Synod of which he is a member, and therefore selects it for the purpose of analyzing, as accurately as he can, the actual position of the preachers reported as without charge, and of the vacant churches.

The Synod of New York consists of 7 native Presbyteries, (3 others attached to it being foreign missionary Presbyteries,) and these seven Presbyteries comprise 192 ministers, 141 churches, and 31 licentiates.

The ministers marked without charge are	55
The churches marked vacant are	11
Of those ministers marked W. C. are
Advanced in years, and supposed to be infirm or disabled, and retired from the pastoral care,	14
From failure in health, occupied in secular pursuits, but preaching occasionally,	4
Retired on private means of support, but preaching occasionally,	5
Have become pastors,	7
Deceased,	1
Not known to be making any overtures toward a settlement as pastors,	2
Waiting, or probably seeking settlement,	7
Unknown, as to circumstances, health, employment, &c.	15
Of the 31 licentiates,
Have since become pastors,	15
Are chaplains,	3
Are teachers,	6
Unknown,	7
Of the 11 vacant churches,
Have obtained pastors,	2
Able to support pastors, and it may be presumed are "hearing candidates" of their own selection,	8
Feeble,	1

But notwithstanding the abatement suggested by the above examples, there is still a considerable number of unemployed preachers and vacant churches, whom it is desirable, if practicable, to make acquainted with each other.

The question occurs, Why are there so many?

There has probably been an increasing relaxation of the care which Presbyteries formerly had for their own unemployed preachers and vacant churches—the churches being left to "supply themselves," instead of asking "supplies" from their Presbyteries. Hence, the unemployed ministers and licentiates within their respective bounds are not sent by the Presbyteries to exercise their gifts in the vacancies, but are left to seek and solicit introductions as best they may.

Some Presbyteries have considerably more ministers without charge and licentiates, than vacant churches or mission ground to be occupied; and there is no system by which the surplus can be sent into the bounds of other Presbyteries where there may be more churches than pastors or unemployed preachers.

It does not necessarily follow that the introduction and opportunity of acquaintance, howsoever brought about, results in settling the candidates. The preachers may be fastidious as to the places where they would settle; and the churches do not always incline to call the "candidates" whom they hear. Vacant, but not vocant; or vocant, perhaps, but not successful.

It must be frankly stated that there are—it is not said how many—of both ministers and licentiates, whom churches will not call, and can hardly be persuaded to hear as candidates. For whatever reason, they are unacceptable.

Many of the vacant churches are probably too feeble to afford a competent support to a pastor, even with the aid of the Board of Domestic Missions. While the self-denial, the labour, and the patience required to cultivate such fields and bring them up to better condition are more than all ministers are willing or capable of enduring. And, on the other hand, there are churches which do not sufficiently appreciate their own ability to render a full support to their pastors, who therefore leave them.

For a remedy in part, there must be inculcated on preachers and people a greater degree of patience, energy, and self-denial, a higher spirituality, and a nobler and believing view of the aims and ends of the pastoral relation. Preachers must be willing to endure hardness, and to bear some privations of taste, of association, and even of convenience, at least while endeavouring to improve the fields to which they may be called. And the churches must cease to think more highly of themselves than they ought to think—cease to exact from their preachers the rare talents of Paul and Apollos, to be exercised for their delectation, and that too for the compensation (?) of a mere pittance, hardly more than the wages of a day-labourer or a village constable.

But the question now is as to a plan for making these preachers and churches "acquainted with each other," so that they may have an opportunity of mutually and intelligently considering their respective attractions and merits with a view to settlement.

Such a plan must be a General Agency.

The General Assembly, some years ago, required that a registry of the unemployed ministers, &c., and vacant churches, should be kept in the office of the Board of Domestic Missions, the names being sent to the Board by the Presbyteries. This plan amounted to nothing. It had no life in it, and no intelligence.

A general agency must be able to collect confidential information as to the qualifications of ministers and the character and condition of churches. This feature is as essential to the usefulness of the agency, as it is an essential feature of the commercial agencies. Otherwise the agency could not intelligently, wisely, and efficiently recommend the right men for the right places.

But how shall it collect this information? Would the Presbyteries furnish it, making invidious distinctions between their own members? or indiscriminately recommending all—drones, dullards, and incapables, as well as the more acceptable? What individuals in each Presbytery would undertake to furnish it? Would it, could it, be as frank as the information respecting the vacant churches might more likely be? And at whose expense should or could the agency be sustained? By fees from applicants, or by a general fund? Would either be practicable? And how far could the agency effectually operate in making acquainted with each other, in person, "the unemployed preachers and the vacant churches?" If, e. g. a church writes to the agency requesting it to suggest a suitable minister, is the agency to be barely the medium of introduction and correspondence between the parties, or shall it have power to send the minister to make personal acquaintance with the church, and at whose expense shall he be sent? What if one of the parties be in New Jersey or Pennsylvania and the other in Minnesota, the preacher without means of travelling, and the church too poor to pay his expenses in so long a journey, which, after all, might not result in the desired settlement of a pastor? Or, on the other hand, if a minister applies for an introduction to some vacant church, shall the agency simply correspond by letter, or send him at once to the field it may select?

These are practical questions which must be met; and the chairman of the Committee confesses that he has no means to solve them. They confront every scheme that suggests itself, and in theory seems plausible enough.

Supposing them to be met and satisfactorily answered, the question would remain, Where shall this agency reside? Of whom shall it be composed? Who shall appoint it?

It has been suggested that it be committed to the theological seminaries. It is not easy to see what more effectually could be done by the seminaries than they now do properly enough in meeting inquiries from vacant churches, and promoting the settlement of their own pupils, who, moreover, would naturally be first provided for in preference to other preachers within their purview.

It has been suggested that the agency should be an appendage to the Board of Domestic Missions. If that Board, which is now relied on largely to aid the churches which are recommended to it by their Presbyteries, by commissioning and partly supporting the missionaries already labouring in those churches, could enlarge its plans so as to send out suitable men to explore and cultivate new fields, and itinerate among new and feeble, or older and abler vacant churches, it might accomplish somewhat the reduction of the number of unemployed preachers. But, as to making it, or a bureau in it, the central agency contemplated, it might be feared that little, if anything, more could be accomplished by a bureau of the Board for this purpose than the same Board found itself able to do for Church Extension, which department, in order to secure greater efficiency, the Assembly has committed to a separate Board.

Will the Church create and sustain a new Board, having charge of the work of making unemployed preachers and vacant churches acquainted with each other? It is not believed that it would.

Again, it has been suggested that this business might be undertaken by some enterprising and capable person, who, especially if sanctioned by the General Assembly, and compensated by fees paid by the parties concerned, would probably be more efficient and successful than either of the other plans above suggested. This would be a private ministerial and ecclesiastical intelligence office, which any person, it is supposed, might set up on his own account, and in time it might grow into an agency, finding favour and patronage, and rendering good service. Should this be deemed a desirable plan, something of dignity and responsibility might be gained for it by the Assembly appointing the person to conduct it, and thus far forestalling and preventing the multiplication and rivalry of such agencies, with the attendant collision and confusion which would possibly be the unseemly result of leaving the whole business to spontaneous private enterprise.

But the whole subject is environed with difficulty. It relates, however, to the exceptional, and not to the general—to that part of the working of our free system which is herein defective, but which is an incident in all free communities and in all things which involve the instrumentality of human beings. If our Church—like some others—could appoint her ministers to their fields with authority, she might in that case find a place for every preacher, and a minister for every place. But that is not our way. We must then expect and accept the defects which, more or less, are incident to our system—at least, until we cease to educate and ordain ministers and plant churches. There will always be among us ministers without churches and churches without ministers, so long as our Church grows, and our territory enlarges, and men have preferences, and congregations choose their own pastors, and will not choose such as are unacceptable to them. If we were a small body we could better devise a remedy for the alleged evil. But as the Church of Scotland could not exempt herself from “sticket ministers,” so neither can we prevent or annihilate “everlasting candidates.” The plans better adapted to smaller bodies and to our own earlier history—and there and then only partially successful—are not practicable to the point of perfection, nor even to its approximation, in our extended Church in our day.

These thoughts are submitted with great diffidence. They do not realize the hope with which this Committee was appointed. But they are the best that the writer of this paper is able to furnish.

If the Assembly should see fit to refer them to a Committee of its own members to consider and report before the close of the present Assembly, such a Committee would have advantages for gaining more light upon the subject, and might make a report which would either conduce to such a plan as was sought by the last Assembly, or prove to the churches that no plan for the purpose in view is necessary or practicable, in the present circumstances of the Church.

JOHN M. KREBS,
WILLIAM C. ROBERTS.

The undersigned concurs with the above report.

ROBERT CARTER.

On motion of the Rev. S. F. Colt the following was adopted:

Whereas, in the experience of this General Assembly, and others, the confusion arising from the frequent interruption of important business by other items of business wholly disconnected, has greatly hindered the satisfactory interest and understanding of the members, as well as protracted our proceedings; therefore,

Resolved, That it be made a standing rule of the Assembly that all judicial cases be continued, without interruption, during the sessions of the day, after the Assembly shall have entered upon them, according to appointment, for the order of the day.

The Report of the Committee on the Religious Instruction of the Freedmen was taken from the docket, and amended.

Dr. Rodgers moved the previous question, which motion being duly seconded, the main question was put, and the amended report was adopted as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred so much of the report on the Board of Education as relates to the establishment of schools among the freedmen of our country, have carefully considered the whole subject in the light of such information as they have been able to gather, and they are constrained to believe that the attempt, on the part of our Board of Education, to conduct an enterprise of such a magnitude, would seriously cripple it in its legitimate work, which was never more important than at the present time, while the results of its efforts must disappoint the expect-tations awakened. The Committee, therefore, recommend the following for the adoption of the Assembly, viz.

The General Assembly, recognizing the Divine providence which has removed the shackles of bondage from a multitude of the African race, thus bringing them within the reach of missionary effort as objects of Christian benevolence; and persuaded that their condition is such as to now appeal to the Christian heart of God's people, would call the attention of our churches, and the members of our communion, to a consideration of their duty to this degraded and suffering race. We rejoice in the fact that God has, in the midst of the desolation of so much of our country, opened a way for the instruction, and, as we hope, elevation of this long degraded people.

Their unsettled posture forbids the hope, at this time, of establishing any permanent schools or churches among them. They are without homes, and although now gathered in communities under the immediate care of the government, the shifting events of civil strife are liable to break up these communities any day; while it is evident that as soon as the government shall cease to issue rations to them, they must be scattered, in order to find employment and support. But while it is evident that no scheme can now be inaugurated for an adequate systematic effort for the Christian education and evangelization of this people, this Assembly is persuaded that something may be done, and must be done, toward preparing them for the enjoyment and right use of that liberty which has so suddenly fallen to them, and for the reception of an intelligent hope of the gospel. The Presbyterian Church must be true to its historic doctrine and faith, that the hope of the African race, under God, is in Christian education, and in "the liberty wherewith Christ makes his people free," and not in the possession of civil privileges alone. Our communion must also be mindful of the fact, that while now multitudes of these freedmen are taught the use of arms, and trained in military tactics, and inspired with the thought that they are now called of God to conquer for their people a position among the races of mankind, no human foresight can assure us of safety from issues of this civil strife, when a people having such a history, and educated only in the school of war, shall be cast into a society with inveterate prejudices against them.

Moreover, the facts go to show not only that this field of Christian effort is thrust upon the Church of God of all denominations, but that those who have entered it, have done so with good promise of success. It is indeed a work of vast magnitude, and must be beset with manifold difficulties. But it is clear to this Assembly that God, in his adorable providence, is calling upon our Church to arise; gird itself with the spirit of the Master, and do what it can for the elevation and salvation of this down-trodden and long abused people.

While, therefore, we recommend to the members of our communion to coöperate with all evangelical Christian effort for the education of the freedmen, yet in order to draw forth and direct more fully their efforts toward this work, therefore,

Resolved, 1. That two committees be appointed by this Assembly, consisting of two ministers and three ruling elders each, to be called the General Assembly's Committees for the Education of Freedmen, which committees shall receive, control, and disburse all funds which may be contributed for the establishment and support of schools among freedmen, or for the support of missionaries who may give themselves to the work of preaching the gospel among them.

Resolved, 2. One of these Committees shall have its headquarters in Philadelphia, the other at Indianapolis. They shall coöperate, dividing the oversight of the field as may best suit their convenience, both for the collection and disbursement of funds, and for operations among the freedmen. They may appoint teachers and ministers for the work only upon the endorsement of the Presbyteries or Committees of the same, within whose boundaries such teachers or ministers may reside. They may fix the salaries of the same, determine the character of the books to be used, and do all other things necessary to the control of such an enterprise. But they are allowed in no wise to interfere with the plans or work of the Board of Domestic Missions.

Resolved, 3. These committees are requested to call upon our people, for funds to be expended in this work—by circulars, by printed or personal appeals through the pastors and sessions. But in making public collections, care must be taken not to interfere with the plan already adopted in reference to the support of the several Boards of the Church.

Resolved, 4. These Committees shall collect facts, keep a correct account of their receipts, expenditures, and disbursement of funds, and report to the next General Assembly upon the whole subject of their appointment, which Assembly shall continue, alter, or disband such Committees at its pleasure.

Resolved, 5. The Board of Publication is directed to furnish gratis, at its discretion, upon the order of these Committees, such of its publications as may be used for the education and evangelization of this people.

The Moderator announced the following as the two Committees on the Religious Instruction of the Freedmen.

The Committee at Philadelphia—Rev. W. P. Breed, Rev. S. F. Colt, and ruling elders Morris Patterson, John McArthur, and Wilfred Hall.

The Committee at Indianapolis—Rev. J. H. Nixon, Rev. S. C. Logan, and ruling elders James M. Ray, Charles N. Todd, and Jesse L. Williams.

Dr. Sheldon, from the Committee to bring in a minute in reference to the American Bible Society, presented a report, which was accepted, when

The Rev. W. J. R. Taylor, D. D., Secretary of the American Bible Society, by invitation, addressed the Assembly.

After which the report was adopted, as follows:

The Committee appointed to prepare a minute in reference to the American Bible Society recommend the adoption of the following resolutions, viz.

Resolved, 1. That we devoutly recognize the paramount importance of the universal diffusion of the sacred Scriptures among men; and that as the Assembly do not publish the Bible, but depend for our missionary work at home and abroad, and for the principal supply of our people, on the American Bible Society, we feel the deepest interest in the work and success of that institution.

Resolved, 2. That it is an occasion of lively gratitude to Almighty God, for his gracious favour to the Society during the past year, while our country is in the midst of sore and great troubles, that its issues have reached the unprecedented number of one million five hundred thousand five hundred and sixty-four volumes, in forty-six languages, so greatly does the word of the Lord multiply and prevail.

Resolved, 3. That we rejoice in the abundant provision of the sacred word that has been made for our army and navy during the present calamitous war, growing out of the rebellion of the Southern States, more than two millions of volumes having been furnished for this most important department of the Society's labours. In addition to the equipment of the vast armies of the nation's defenders with the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, this holy book has been put into the hands of the sick and wounded in hospitals, camps, and on vessels of war and battle-fields, and of more than one hundred and twenty thousand prisoners of war. This Assembly do cordially approve of the policy and work of the Society, in having already granted, with the free consent of our government, two hundred and fifty thousand volumes to the people of the seceded States, who are engaged in war against us. Surely the word of God is not bound.

Resolved, 4. That as so many doors are opening for the entrance of this Divine light in other lands, and as the field is the world, and the seed is the word of God, the hopes and prayers of the Church must be associated with the foreign work of the Society. The Assembly are thankful to God for what has been already done, and will greatly rejoice if, in view of these numerous and wonderful openings, the Society shall be able to give early and considerable enlargement to this department of its labours.

Resolved, 5. That in view of the foregoing considerations, this Assembly do renewedly urge it upon the churches under its care, to take annual and liberal collections for the Bible Society.

The Assembly adjourned, after prayer by Dr. Breckinridge.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Frazer.

The Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Domestic Missions was taken up and adopted. It is as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred the Annual Report of the Board of Domestic Missions, and also certain papers relating to the Board, from the Presbyteries of New Lisbon and Louisville, respectfully state: That they have examined the Report of the Board with care, and find in it matter of deep and sacred interest. It furnishes evidences of substantial progress during the year, both as it respects the resources of the Board, and the extent and efficiency of its operations. It also furnishes evidence that our people, as well as the Board, are gaining a truer and more influential conception of the vast home-work committed to the Church, to attempt and to do. That work is no less than the subjection of our whole country to the evangelical truth, and to Christ.

The Committee have also given due attention to the additional papers referred to them.

That from the Presbytery of New Lisbon contemplates prompt and vigorous missionary efforts in the South, as the progress of our arms may open the way; and especially the religious care and instruction of that large and constantly increasing class, once slaves, but now freedmen. This matter seems to the Committee one of great moment, and they would commend it to the favourable consideration and action of this General Assembly.

The paper from the Presbytery of Louisville is of a different character. It complains of the Board for obtaining from the War Department certain facilities for the prosecution of its missionary work, in various portions of the country, now in military possession and under military rule; and calls upon the General Assembly "at once to disavow this action of the Board, and so save the Church from the sin, reproach and ruin which this thing is calculated to bring upon her." The Committee regard this paper as a misconception and misstatement of the real facts in the case. In their judgment, the course of the Board, in the matter referred to, was eminently proper, and indeed indispensable, if in those portions of the country they would carry forward their great and holy work.

In view then of the Report of the Board, and of the papers referred with it, the Committee recommend for adoption, by this General Assembly, the following resolutions, viz.

Resolved, 1. That the Sixty-second Annual Report of the Board of Domestic Missions be accepted and published; and that an abstract of the Report be inserted in the Appendix to the Minutes of this Assembly.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly recognizes with devout gratitude the goodness of God, in the enlarged means placed by his people at the disposal of the Board, and also in the increased favourable results of its sacred labours during the year. Let the praise be given to His adorable name.

Resolved, 3. That in view of the greatly increased cost of living, and the consequent embarrassment and even suffering of many of our missionaries, the Board be instructed to increase its appropriations to such extent as its means will permit, in all cases of real need; and also, while exercising a just liberality towards churches truly feeble and dependent, to consider whether there are not some now receiving aid, which have the ability, and therefore ought to be self-sustaining.

Resolved, 4. That the Assembly regards with favour the plan of the Board touching the appointment of District Missionaries, to act in connection with Synods and Presbyteries, as detailed on pages 13 and 14 of the Annual Report; but would also direct the Board, while carrying out this plan with all due vigour, to remember that it is an experiment, and to be ready for such changes or modifications of it as actual trial may show to be necessary or expedient.

Resolved, 5. That in the wonderful providence of God, spreading out before us so immense a work; in the increase of our home-born population; in the swelling tide of emigrants from the old world; in the desolations resulting from the present stupendous rebellion; and in the condition and wants of the long-oppressed children of Africa—this Assembly has a most imperative and a Divine call to redoubled zeal, labour, and sacrifice; and it hereby enjoins upon the Board, and upon the churches under its care, to put themselves, by divine grace, in a posture of thought, feeling, and effort, corresponding to the greatness and urgency of the work.

Resolved, 6. That the Assembly commend to the careful attention of the Board, all those claims on its sympathy and its active efforts, which arise in connection with the progress and the results of this gigantic war with rebellion; and especially to coöperate, so far as practicable, with the other Boards of the Church, in carrying the light, and all the various blessings of religion, to the multitudes emancipated from slavery; that so their sufferings may be alleviated, their ignorance dispelled, their character transformed, and they be fitted for the duties and privileges of American citizenship, and made heirs of the kingdom of God.

The Report of the Committee on Correspondence was taken from the docket, and adopted, as follows:

The Committee on Correspondence nominate the following persons as delegates to attend the next meetings of Corresponding Bodies:

1. To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church to meet next May in Brooklyn, N. Y., the Rev. M. J. Hickok, D. D., and ruling elder Martin Ryerson, principals, with the Rev. N. L. Rice, D. D., and ruling elder T. C. Henry, alternates.

2. To the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, the Rev. D. X. Junkin, D. D., and ruling elder Stanley Matthews, principals, with the Rev. John M. Lowrie, D. D., and ruling elder Robert Carter, alternates.

3. To the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, the Rev. N. C. Burt, D. D., principal, and the Rev. I. N. Candee, D. D., alternate.

4. To the Associate Reformed Synod of New York, the Rev. Ravaud K. Rodgers, D. D., principal, and the Rev. Alfred Nevin, D. D., alternate. The report was adopted, and the nominations confirmed.

Dr. D. X. Junkin moved that the column for coloured communicants be omitted from the Statistical Tables in the Appendix to the Minutes. Carried.

The Report of the Committee to which was referred Overture No. 17, on the subject of a union of the two branches of the Presbyterian Church, was taken from the docket, and adopted. It is as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred an overture from the Presbytery of Miami, and certain resolutions of the Presbyteries of Ogdensburg and Buffalo City, in relation to a union of the two great branches of the Presbyterian Church, submit to the Assembly the following resolutions for their consideration and adoption, viz.

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly have witnessed, with unalloyed satisfaction, the happy influence of the correspondence initiated by a former Assembly between the two bodies, in promoting fraternal and Christian affection, and thus preparing the way for a still closer union at some future day, (if such should be judged best for the promotion of the glory of God, and of the spiritual interests of the whole Church.)

Resolved, 2. That in view of the pleasing results which have already been developed from the plan of correspondence now in successful operation, the Assembly do not deem it expedient at present to propose any additional measure towards the consummation of the object contemplated by the Presbyteries whose action has been submitted to their consideration.

Resolved, 3. That with a view still further to attain and strengthen that "unity of the spirit" which is so essential to organic unity, the Assembly express their concurrence with the suggestions and counsels of the Assembly of 1863, as contained in the third resolution adopted by that body, (page 39 of their Minutes,) and recommend them to the prayerful consideration of the parties concerned.

An additional report from the same Committee, having reference to the communication received on the 27th ult. from the General Assembly in session at Dayton, Ohio, and which had been referred to this Committee, was also taken from the docket and adopted. It is as follows:

In regard to the paper referred to them since the preceding resolutions were reported—which paper contains a Declaration of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, in session at Dayton, Ohio, being an expression of their views on "an overture of the St. Lawrence Presbytery upon the reunion of the two General Assemblies of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America"—your Committee would further report the following minute, and recommend its adoption by this General Assembly, viz.

That while this Assembly receive in the spirit of fraternal kindness the "Declaration" transmitted to them, and thank their brethren for the courtesy thus promptly extended to them, yet, having so fully expressed their views on the same general subject in the foregoing resolutions, they deem it unnecessary to add anything further, and recommend that those resolutions, together with this minute, be transmitted by the Stated Clerk to the Moderator of the General Assembly in session at Dayton, Ohio, and reciprocate the feelings manifested.

Dr. Beatty, from the Committee appointed to bring in a minute upon Judicial Case No. 5, reported the following minute, which was adopted:

The Assembly does not sustain the complainants, because the proceedings of the Presbytery of St. Louis in this case appear constitutional and regular, and, so far as we can perceive, were judicious, equitable, and for the edification of the Church.

These complaints, both in their language and the necessity of the case, brought the whole proceedings under our review. The question of a dissolution of the pastoral relation between Dr. McPheeters and the Pine Street Church was originally brought in an orderly manner before the Presbytery, by petition from a minority of said church, and a personal tender of resignation by the pastor; and after all the constitutional steps were taken with care and deliberation, was decided by the Presbytery, acting for the peace and welfare of that church. That which was called an appeal and complaint to Synod against that action could not so suspend all further proceedings as to prevent the Presbytery from considering and acting upon the continued disturbed state of that congregation; and when, at a subsequent stated meeting of that body, this subject came before them, they did, almost unanimously, deem it unadvisable that the late pastor should continue ministerial labours in that congregation. Against this decision of the Presbytery, Dr. McPheeters and others have uttered these complaints, which we do not sustain.

The Assembly has patiently listened to the history of this case from the opposite points of view taken, but in their decision have strictly confined themselves to the facts on record. The resignation of the pastoral relation, and the distracted state of the church, seemed plainly to call for the action of the Presbytery; and being upon the ground, and conversant with all the circumstances and demands of the case, they seem most competent to understand and decide what that action should be. The question of the pastor's loyalty to his national government, which seemed to be so largely a disturbing element in the church, has not been properly before the Assembly, as it was not pronounced upon in any Presbyterial action. They judged it best for the peace and prosperity of that particular church that the late pastor should retire altogether, and cease from his public ministrations to them; and this Assembly cannot decide otherwise. And though many of the members of the Presbytery were absent from that meeting which so decided, this could not invalidate their proceedings, as it was a regular and lawful meeting of that body.

The right and duty of the Presbytery "to order whatever pertains to the spiritual welfare of the churches under their care," and especially to heal dissensions, by seeking to remove the occasions of them, is a distinctive and important feature in our Presbyterian polity. And when the pastor himself so far recognized the propriety of his withdrawal as to tender to the Presbytery his resignation, it was clearly competent for that body not only to grant his request, but to order, if necessary, that he cease his ministrations to that people, if they believed that by longer continuing to serve them the dissensions would be fomented, the strife become embittered, and the spiritual interests of the church endangered. And when the Presbytery did, at length, so interfere and direct, without pronouncing upon the rumours and side issues which were the occasions of the strife and unhappy condition of the church, they simply undertook to control the relations of pastor and people for the welfare of the church, without impeaching, by any expression, the moral character and ministerial standing of that pastor. They only ordered, as a prudential measure, that the resignation which he had himself voluntarily tendered to them, should properly and entirely be carried out, by his ceasing in any way to keep up this unhappy state of things, and by ceasing to minister to them as their pastor.

Dr. Krebs moved to restore to the Statistical Tables in the Appendix to the Minutes, the column for contributions to the Contingent Fund of the Assembly, and that the Presbyteries be instructed to see to it that collections are taken up and transmitted.

Dr. Rodgers moved the following, which was carried unanimously:

Resolved, That the cordial thanks of this General Assembly be and they are hereby tendered to the citizens of Newark and its vicinity, for their kind and abundant hospitality to the members during the sessions of this body.

The resolution was responded to in felicitous remarks by ruling elder William Rankin, Jr., a resident of Newark.

The Assembly spent a half hour in devotional exercises, after which it took a recess until 7 o'clock, P. M.

THURSDAY EVENING, 7 o'clock.

The Assembly met after recess.

The Rev. Samuel Miller offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Assembly hereby recommends to all the churches under its care the observance of the first eight days of the month of January, A. D. 1865, to wit, from the first to the second Sabbath inclusive, as a season of special united prayer in concert with other evangelical Christians throughout the world, for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit and the coming of the Redeemer's kingdom throughout the whole world.

The Assembly took up Judicial Case No. 6, being the complaint of the Rev. N. West, D. D., against the Synod of New York.

Mr. Rowland had absented himself from the ordinances of the Second Church of Brooklyn, New York, for some months. Upon application for his certificate, the Session gave him a certificate, omitting the words, "at present in good and regular standing," and substituting for them a testimonial to his previous good Christian character; inserting, at the same time, a statement of the fact of his recent absence from the ordinances of the church. Mr. Rowland brought a complaint against the Session, before the Presbytery of Nassau, and the Presbytery sustained the complaint. Mr. West complained to the Synod against the Presbytery. The Synod of New York, by a vote of 10 to sustain, 12 to sustain in part, and 21 not to sustain—sustained the complaint of Rev. N. West against the Presbytery; and then, in its final minute, ordered a letter in the usual form to be given to Mr. Rowland. Against the decision of the Synod, in adopting this minute, Mr. West complains.

The Moderator reminded the members, that as they were about to sit in a judicial capacity, they should regard their high character as members of a court of Jesus Christ.

The sentence complained of was read, and is as follows:

“The Committee appointed to bring in a minute in the case of the complaint of the Rev. N. West against the action of the Presbytery of Nassau, report as follows: The vote of the Synod was—to sustain the complaint, 10; to sustain in part, 12; not to sustain, 21. The Synod therefore sustains the complaint only in part. In this judgment the Synod does not decide that the papers given to Mr. Rowland were unconstitutional, but that, under the circumstances, they deem them to have been unadvised, and therefore, as a measure of peace, the Synod directs the Session of the Second Church to give to Mr. Rowland and wife certificates of church-membership, in such form as is usual among the churches of this city, in dismissing members in good standing.

The reasons assigned by the complainant for his complaint were then read; also the whole record of the inferior judicatories in the case, including the testimony and the reasons for their action.

The Rev. N. West, D. D., the complainant in the case, was heard.

The Synod of New York was heard, the Clerk calling the names of its commissioners. After which the parties were directed to retire.

It was moved and carried, that the calling of the roll be dispensed with.

The vote was then taken, and the complaint was almost unanimously sustained.

Dr. Rodgers offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the complaint of the Rev. N. West, D. D., be sustained, and the decision of the Synod, in its final minute, be, and it hereby is reversed; and further, that the Synod erred in prescribing to the Session of the Second Church of Brooklyn, the form of a certificate to be granted to Mr. Rowland, after they had already granted a certificate to him which was agreeable to the Constitution of the Church and to the truth.

The Report of the Committee on the Records of the Synod of New York was taken from the docket, and was adopted, as follows:

The Committee appointed to examine the records of the Synod of New York, recommend that they be approved, with the exception of the action of the Synod in the case of the Rev. N. West, D. D., against the Presbytery of Nassau, in which the Assembly has adjudicated as follows: That the decision of the Synod, in its final minute, on pages 128 and 129, be, and it hereby is reversed; and further, that the Synod erred in prescribing to the Session of the Second Church in Brooklyn, the form of a certificate to be granted to Mr. Rowland, &c., after they had already granted to him a certificate of dismission which was constitutional and true.

The Rev. L. M. Miller, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that they had granted leave to the following persons:

Ministers—L. M. Stevens, Andrew Virtue, A. P. Forman, J. Y. Cowhick, J. F. Fenton, and W. H. Lester, after the sessions of this morning.
Ruling Elder—Samuel Linn, after this morning's session.

The Rev. Mr. McCarrell offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Assembly are hereby tendered to the pastor, ruling elders, and trustees of this church, for the accommodations they have furnished to the Assembly and its committees.

The minutes of to-day were read and approved.

On motion of Dr. D. X. Junkin, it was Resolved, That this General Assembly be now dissolved; and that another General Assembly, chosen in like manner, be required to meet in the First Presbyterian Church of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, on the third Thursday of May, at eleven o'clock, A. M., in the year of our Lord 1865.

Closed with singing, prayer, and the apostolical benediction.

NARRATIVE OF THE STATE OF RELIGION.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA TO THE CHURCHES UNDER THEIR CARE:

Beloved Brethren—The state of religion within our bounds is the matter of deepest concern to the General Assembly, and to all the Presbyteries and churches which it represents. The highest end of the Church's organization is the promotion of the glory of its living Head in the advancement of the cause of vital godliness in the world. "He gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ."

A full and accurate narrative of the state of religion would exhibit the sum total of results of all the efforts of the Church, in all divinely appointed modes of action—in the use of all ordinances and the enjoyment of all privileges. It would exhibit the results of the Spirit's work in the body of Christ on earth, going forth in the preaching of the word, the administration of the sacraments, the prayers of the pious, the nurture of the young, the administration of benevolence, the work of discipline, and the whole life of piety.

The state of religion in the churches, of course, varies from year to year, according to the varying dispensations of the sovereign Spirit of God, according to the varying providences of God, and according to the manner in which the people of God are disposed and enabled to act in reference to these. The providences of God are at this time so peculiar toward our beloved country, and hence toward our Church, that a narrative of the state of religion may now be considered as of peculiar interest. The future historian of the Church of our country, will, we apprehend, inquire with special solicitude into the condition of the Church, during the years of the great civil war. He will ask, what were the effects of the war on the spiritual life of the Church?—what were the modifications of the Church's state wrought by the terribly strange and seemingly adverse providences of God?

For the materials of our narrative we have the reports of seventy-nine Presbyteries, the whole number of Presbyteries sending Commissioners to the present Assembly being one hundred and five.

The most striking feature in these reports, calling for our first consideration and our most devout thanksgiving, is this, that while there has not been during the past year a general outpouring of the Spirit on the churches, God has not left us without frequent evidences of his special favour. In these times of rebuke and sorrow, it is permitted us to record the fact, that in twenty-two out of the seventy-nine Presbyteries reporting to the Assembly, there have been, in one or more churches of each Presbytery, special revivings and awakenings. It is remarkable further, in regard to these, that some of the most signal and powerful revivals have been in regions of the country much exposed to the distracting and even desolating influences of the war. One Presbytery, greatly harassed in its outward estate, reports unusual religious interest in, and large additions to no less than five of its churches. Still further it ought to be observed, that these gracious visitations have been upon a large number of our most important colleges and other seminaries of learning. In large numbers, the youth of the Church, of age and character and circumstances most hopeful for their Christian usefulness in various spheres of life, and especially in the ministry of the gospel, have been led to consecrate themselves to the Lord's service. And our acknowledgment of God's mercy in all this, is the more loudly demanded, inasmuch as it is an evident answer to the special prayers of his people. Revivals in the churches have followed closely upon the week of prayer, and those in the colleges upon the day of prayer, recommended by the Assembly and generally observed by our people. It came to pass, that while we were yet calling upon God, he answered our petitions.

Passing from this most interesting feature of the Presbyterial reports, it is pleasant next to note several particulars of a favourable sort, presented by many of these reports. (1) Frequent mention is made of the systematic instruction of the young, by parents, pastors, and Sabbath-school teachers. Next to the abundant outpouring of the Spirit of God, the Assembly is rejoiced to hear of these efforts. In the faithful, patient nurture of the children of the Church, the Assembly recognizes God's appointed means for bringing them on to a life of piety. In Sabbath-schools, likewise, the Assembly recognizes one of the most efficient agencies for conducting the aggressive work to which the Church is called, upon the large element of our uninstructed and irreligious population. We earnestly desire that effort in this direction in all cases be prompted by something higher than a mere restless activity of zeal, and may aim at something more than the mere entertainment of children with that which is only in a general way religious in its character. Deep spirituality, a wise intelligence, and a tender sympathy for souls, must be united to the zeal and the tact which happily interest the young, in order that the highest results be attained. (2) Many of the Presbyteries report increased attention to the matter of Systematic Benevolence. The plan for benevolent contributions proposed by the Assembly has been widely adopted by the churches. It is greatly to be desired that renewed and still increasing attention be given by Presbyteries and Sessions to this subject, until every church and every member of the church shall fully come into the communion of the saints herein realized. "See that ye abound in this grace also." (3) Not a few of the Presbyteries report with interest the removal of church-debts, in cases where they had long been an incumbrance, and also the increase of pastors' salaries, according to the necessities of the times.

Thus far in our narrative little has appeared which might not have occurred when the country was at peace. There is much, however, in the reports of the Presbyteries, which either appears in a new light when viewed in connection with the fact that we are in the midst of war, or else is peculiar as being occasioned directly by the war itself.

It is a wonderful fact, for example, that in the midst of the tumults and agitations of this contest for national existence, our missionary operations at home and abroad should remain almost wholly undisturbed and prosperous; and that encouraging reports of the state of religion should come to this Assembly from our far-off Presbyteries, not only in this land, but in Africa, and India, and China. Nor is the fact, generally referred to by the Presbyteries, without unusual significance, that, in most of the churches, the simple truths of the gospel have, during the year past, been faithfully inculcated for the salvation of men; that while the pulpit has in general been true to its character in teaching the religious duty of the citizen—in inculcating the duty of subjection to the powers that be, and exposing the guilt of treason and rebellion, and in observing suitably the various calls to thanksgiving and to humiliation, made by our civil rulers—it has not been diverted from its great mission as the interpreter of God's revealed truth to men, and become the expounder of questions which are purely secular. Herein is cause for rejoicing. And thus, doubtless, is the pulpit best serving the country, even by furthering directly and to the utmost the Church's spiritual edification.

As more directly occasioned by the war, may further be enumerated several particulars, most of which, yet not all, are of unfavourable character.

(1) Many churches report the absence in the army of a considerable portion of their members. These absent members are frequently the most active and earnest persons in the churches, and their loss is keenly felt. In some cases, churches have been so much weakened hereby, as to be unable longer to support preaching, and pastoral relations have consequently been sundered. Yet, in the same connection, it is sometimes mentioned, that great tenderness of Christian feeling in churches has been occasioned by anxieties for relatives and friends in the army, amidst their great privations and perils, and by affliction in the death of such on the field of battle. Anxious and bereaved hearts, in ten thousand homes, are turning for support and comfort to Him who heareth prayer—to the God of all consolation; and, in many instances, they are found availing themselves of proffered Christian sympathy, and coming to the places where God's people together approach his mercy-seat.

(2) A few cases are reported, in which diversity of political sentiment in congregations has led to alienations and divisions, and even to the separation of pastor and people. While it is to be lamented that any such cases have occurred, it is worthy of our attention and our gratitude that they are so few. Considering the intensity of party feeling in many places, the indications are, that in general our pastors and people are animated by a spirit of true patriotism, and, at the same time, of Christian forbearance and prudence.

(3) The instances are more numerous, in which complaint is made, that in the absorbing interests of the day, the professed disciples of Christ are hindered from exhibiting a suitable devotion to their Master. The love of many, in this season of worldly distraction, waxes cold. Assuredly this is greatly to be deplored. Now, if ever, should the people of God be walking closely with him in covenant, and receiving and exhibiting much of his Spirit. God's judgments upon the nation are a chastisement of the Church; and those who fear God should humble themselves under his mighty hand. God's people, moreover, are appointed to intercede with him for blessings upon others. They may be regarded as, in an important sense, the appointed saviours of the country. And how can they hope to prevail in intercession, and bring the blessing which alone can save us, unless they keep themselves pure from the world, and alive in the love of God? The case is still more deplorable, when, as in a few instances is also reported, professedly Christian people are found compromising themselves with the positive immoralities of the wicked. The case of such is full of fear. This is a time which tests men. "The time is come, that judgment must begin at the house of God."

(4.) Not only are the churches attending more generally to the matter of Systematic Beneficence, and giving more largely than usual to the General Assembly's Boards, but further it appears from many of the reports, that our people are giving liberally in aid of those agencies which seek to carry the blessings of home and the sanctuary to those who have gone forth from these in the service of the country. In this the Assembly rejoices. A bright feature in these sombre times, is that of the grand demonstration of practical benevolence made by the people at large, and especially by Christian people, the equal of which was probably never seen in the history of the world, and certainly was never seen as the immediate occasion, and on the dark back-ground of so terrible a war. As, connected with all things earthly, incidental evils may be found, so here, it must be said, that methods for the raising of charitable funds have sometimes been adopted which we cannot approve; yet in the chief methods and objects of the Sanitary, and especially of the Christian Commission, we see much which we most cordially approve; and we are glad that, in connection with these, our people and our ministers are permitted, in the very spirit of the Master, to relieve the sick and wounded of our armies, and to bring the blessings of salvation to them that are ready to perish. Christian people, too, of different denominations, have found, in the opportunity here afforded for coöperation in the ways of practical benevolence, a corresponding and happy opportunity for demonstrating that substantial unity which exists in the whole body of Christ, and for increasing its consciousness to themselves.

(5.) One of the darkest features of the reports is found in the general representation which they make of the prevalence of gross immoralities. The bonds of morality in society are greatly relaxed. Intemperance, profanity, Sabbath-desecration, and sensuality, fearfully abound. Evils before hidden have now come to light. The stagnant pools of vice and crime have swollen to a sea, whose surges dash against the Church. It is sad indeed, that just when God's sore judgments are on us for our sins, these sins should thus abound. Looking upon the spectacle herein presented by itself, we are almost ready to cry in the prophet's language, "Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more; the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint." Yet we rejoice that we need not look upon this spectacle by itself. This is only one of the many and contrasted views presented us in these peculiar times. The whole scene reveals the strongest antagonisms. Notwithstanding the coldness and the defection of some professing Christians, it may be believed that God's true people in our land were, on the whole, never more prayerful, never more fully imbued with Christian love, never more earnestly set to do God's will, than just at the present time, when wickedness is most rife. We trust that, the enemy coming in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord is raising up a standard against him. We trust that the children of God will more and more fully ally themselves with his Spirit, that instead of being carried away by the delusions of the wicked; instead of becoming complicated with prevalent and popular sins, they will be prompt and courageous, in the Master's name, in resisting all sin. And we trust, likewise, that the ministers of the word will show themselves true prophets of God, in faithfully warning every man—that they will keep back nothing, but speak the full truth of God in his threatenings of wrath, as well as his promises of mercy; that so the blood of souls may not be found in their skirts, but rather, if it please God, the wicked may be turned from his wickedness, and the whole land from its iniquities, and God's full favour once more return unto us.

And now this Assembly would record its heartfelt thanks to God, that so much of blessing has been vouchsafed to us during the year,—would trustfully commit to him, amidst all our tremblings, the ark of God—the ark of his own covenant and of his people's security,—and would humbly and fervently pray, that instead of taking his Holy Spirit from us, he would be pleased to restore unto us, and to all the churches and people under our care, the joy of his salvation and the upholdings of his free Spirit, and to bring the Church and the country out from the fierce furnace of affliction purified and made meet for the Master's use.

Of these, J. R. Dewing and George H. Smyth came with regular testimonials from the Western Theological Seminary; George L. Raymond from the Theological Seminary at Auburn; William Moore and Francis L. Patton from the Theological Department of Knox College, Canada West; and L. Bernard from the Seminary of the United Presbyterian Church of the Lower Provinces. Some six resident graduates, and three others not matriculated, attended on the instruction of the Seminary partially. The whole number including these, connected with the Institution during the year, is one hundred and eighty-six, of whom six have been absent during the whole term. One of these absentees died at his home in Indiana—T. Porter Stone, a student of great promise in talents, piety, and diligent study.

At the close of the session, the students were examined before a Committee of the Board, who report great pleasure at the result.

Certificates of having finished the whole course of three years were conferred on the following forty-two students of the Senior Class, viz., Pitson J. Abbott, David J. Atwater, Frederick Bates, Samuel Bernard, George S. Bishop, Peter Hanerly Brooks, Henry E. Butler, Andrew G. Chambers, Seldon Jennings Coffin, Newton James Conklin, Edward P. Cowan, Daniel Deruelle, Clarence Eddy, John P. Foreman, Charles Fueller, Samuel H. Howe, George R. Howell, Thomas S. Johnson, Samuel K. Kellogg, Joseph C. Kelly, James M. Ludlow, M. McMartin, J. S. McCoy, Benjamin Merrill, Samuel S. Mitchell, Joseph H. Myers, John Orr, Willis B. Phelps, George C. Pollock, Alexander Rankin, John Rule, George L. Shearer, Ambrose C. Smith, J. M. Stephenson, James P. Viele, Meade C. Williams, C. M. Wines, B. H. Witherow, James S. Wylie, John Wylie, Richard Wylie, and Theodore S. Wynkoop. Two others, Charles Beattie and H. S. Newcomb, have been on the roll of this class for two terms, and having passed through the regular examinations, will receive separate certificates. Another member of the class, William E. Honeyman, has been a student for three years, but interrupted by sickness, and obliged to be absent from the closing reviews and final examinations. Of the whole number, nearly the one-half are already engaged for definite fields of labour in the pastoral relation, or in the Foreign or Domestic Missionary work. The actual attendance upon the exercises of the Institution, even to the close of the term, has been larger than usual, notwithstanding the great inconvenience occasioned by the meeting of our Presbyteries at the time of closing. There is much occasion for gratitude to God, in view of the prosperity he has granted, for the temporal favour and spiritual benefits he has vouchsafed so graciously during the term now closed.

The Board have further to report that the term of office of the following Directors expires during the session of the General Assembly:

The whole number on the roll is one hundred and fourteen—and the total in attendance is one hundred.

The following twenty-three students have completed the regular course of study, and having passed the requisite examinations, have had awarded them the diploma of the institution: John S. Leyenberger, Edward P. Lewis, James H. Lyon, Samuel W. Miller, Cornelius V. Monfort, Edwin R. Nugent, R. Thompson Price, James S. Ramsey, David K. Richardson, B. S. Sloan, Joseph H. Stevenson, William S. Vanceve, William W. White.

The Board are happy to report that the Rev. Charles C. Beatty, D.D., LL.D., has entered upon his duties as Lecturer Extraordinary, and has filled an important department in practical theology.

The examinations at the close of the term were conducted before a Committee of the Directors in a way to furnish a faithful test of the acquirements of the young men in the respective classes, and the report speaks of the highly creditable and satisfactory results in all the departments.

The studies in the department of Theology have been conducted by the other Professors with great acceptance and success.

The Faculty refer with high commendation to the diligence of the students and their Christian earnestness, not only in the class-room but in the prayer-meeting and the Sabbath school. Some have taken occasional part in such missionary enterprises of the cities as have been well calculated to enrich their experience, and bring them into contact with their work.

Two of the Senior Class have offered themselves to the work of foreign missions.

The health of the Professors and students has been uniformly good.

The chair of theology being still vacant by the declinature of Dr. Atwater, the Board of Directors would request the Assembly to fill the vacancy.

The Board are called, in the providence of God, to report the death of three of the members, viz. Rev. James Hoge, D. D., Rev. Josiah D. Smith, D. D., and Rev. Alexander B. Brown, D. D.

The term of office of the following members of the Board will expire during the session of the present Assembly, viz.

ANNUAL REPORT OF TRUSTEES.

In submitting to the General Assembly their nineteenth annual report, the Trustees of the Western Theological Seminary represent, that by the good hand of God upon us, we have been enabled (notwithstanding the terrible calamity of war that has and still affects our beloved country) slightly to increase our permanent funds during the past year, as well as to pay our current indebtedness. Some extraordinary expenditure will have to be made this year to grade and pave streets adjoining our premises. Provision for this, as well as to carry out a resolution of the Board to supplement, during these extraordinary times, the salaries of the Professors, has been made by the appointment of committees, with a reasonable prospect of success.

The Treasurer, whose accounts have been carefully audited by a Committee of the Board, reports a balance from all sources from current receipts of the year to be $1104 74.

The Librarian reports the following donations as having been received during the past year, viz.

Ten volumes of the "Presbyterian Banner" (bound in five) from Rev. David McKinney, D. D.

A box of the recent issues of the Board of Publication. Also,

One hundred volumes, including set of "Encyclopedia Britannica," from that firm friend of our Seminary, the Rev. C. C. Beatty, D. D.

The following donations for distribution amongst the students were also announced, viz.

Two volumes of the "Alexander Books" for each member of the Junior Class, from an unknown friend.

One volume, "Dr. Taylor Lewis on Inspiration," for Middle Class, from Messrs. Carter and Dr. Jacobus.

Dr. Samuel Miller on "Clerical Manners and Habits," for all the students, by Dr. Beatty.

Dr. Spring's volume, "Good Hope through Grace," from Hanson K. Corning, Esq., for all the students.

"Five years in the Alleghenies," for all the students, through the Secretary of the American Tract Society.

The Life of "Bridgeman," the first Missionary to China, for the Middle Class, from an unknown friend, through A. D. F. Randolph, Esq., New York.

Whilst with gratitude we acknowledge the goodness of the Divine Being to us as a Board, we record with unfeigned regret the decease of our venerable fellow-member, John Irwin, Sen.

DANVILLE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

The Board of Directors of the Theological Seminary at Danville, Kentucky, respectfully submit to the General Assembly their Eleventh Annual Report, as follows:

During the session just terminated, the whole number of students in attendance has been fourteen. Of these, the following new students have been admitted since our last report:

William C. Condit, graduate of Centre College, Ky.
Thos. H. Cleland, Jr., " " "
Charles Hill, " "	Marietta College, Ohio.
T. H. Aufder Heide, " "	Des Peres Institute, Mo.
J. C. Shepard, " "	Westminster College, Mo.
Davis Rathbun, " "	Central College, Mo.

The Board take pleasure in calling the attention of the Assembly to the increase in the number of students in attendance during the past session, as well as to the probability of a still larger increase during the next session. The cheering prospect of continued quiet and security against invasion, together with the prevalence of the spirit of revival in a number of our churches in Kentucky, particularly the work of grace in the churches of Danville, bringing into the fold of Christ nearly seventy persons, among whom were a number of the students of Centre College, encourages us to look for a considerable addition to the next class in the Theological Seminary whose interests we have in charge.

It also gives the Board much pleasure, especially in view of the state of things which existed in Kentucky the two previous years, to report that the exercises of the Seminary have been uninterrupted for a single day during the past session. And, inasmuch as the professorships are all filled, and the professors diligently engaged in their work, we think, with the blessing of God, a prosperous future may be anticipated for the institution. There is one cause for solicitude, however, connected with the sustentation of the Seminary, to which we regard it our duty to direct the attention of the Assembly. Owing to the greatly enhanced expense of living, the real value of the salaries of the Professors, as fixed by the Plan of the Seminary, has been reduced far below what it was in former years. We deem it important that a very considerable addition should be made to these salaries, leaving it to the wisdom of the General Assembly to determine what measures should be taken to secure that object—suggesting, however, that in our judgment it would be wise in the Board of Trustees at once to put an agent in the field, in order to augment the funds for the support of the institution.

The diligence of the students, and their exemplary Christian conduct, have, in the opinion of their instructors, been worthy of commendation.

It was a source of grief to the Faculty and the friends of this Seminary, that for a number of years none of those trained here went into the field of foreign missions. Now, we are happy to state that two of those who have gone out from this institution, are labouring in heathen lands—one in India, the other in China.

Owing to the peculiar circumstances arising out of the progress of the war, no students were reported at the close of the preceding session as having completed the prescribed course of study. Two have completed the course at the close of the present session; and six of those now connected with the Seminary are expected to do so at the end of the next session. The two who have just completed the course, being recommended by the Faculty, and having sustained an examination in the presence of the Board of Directors, have received the usual certificate—namely, Joseph H. Byers, of Kentucky, and John N. Rankin, of Missouri.

The Librarian reports the addition of one hundred and twenty-one volumes to the Library; two by purchase, and the remaining one hundred and nineteen volumes by donation from the Board of Publication.

The Board reports further, that the term of office of the following Directors expires with the sessions of the General Assembly of this year:

Ministers.

John H. Gray,
R. F. Caldwell,
J. Mitchell,
T. F. Cortelyou,
W. W. Hill,
E. T. Baird,
Samuel Steel,
J. K. Lyle,
R. G. Brank,

Ruling Elders.

John McCullagh,
Curran Pope,
C. H. Rochester,
T. W. Bullock,
C. Carter,
Thomas Henderson,
J. B. Neely,
John A. Lyle,
W. Addison Smith.

One vacancy has occurred in the class whose term expires in 1866, occasioned by the death of the Rev. Lewis W. Green, D. D., late President of Centre College. It is also the painful duty of the Board to record the decease of two other honoured brethren of their number, namely, Col. Curran Pope, and Thomas Henderson, Esq. Their names are found in the list of those whose term of office is about to expire.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

The Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Danville, Kentucky, present the following as their Eleventh Annual Report to the General Assembly.

I. According to the Annual Report of the Financial Agent, received and approved by this Board,

Deduct amount of income invested,	104 61
Leaves balance of cash on hand as stated,	$1416 05

3. It will be seen that the income, for the current year, of the Professors' Fund, has not been equal to its expenditures by about one thousand dollars—having drawn, to this amount, upon the surplus of the preceding year. This deficiency is, in part, a real one; but in part is only apparent, arising from the reinvestment of a portion of the Synod's funds, in stocks, the semi-annual income of which is paid the first of May, a few days after this report is made up, instead of the first of January, as heretofore.

4. The aggregate amount of funds belonging to the Institution is $146,344 99, to wit:

Professors' Fund,	$103,273 76
General Fund,	32,755 18
Scholarship Fund,	8,900 00
Cash,	1,416 05

The amount expended in the erection of the new buildings, of which mention is made in the last two reports of this Board to the General Assembly, was $6648. The whole of this amount was borrowed from the General Fund, reducing the stock belonging to that Fund by that amount. And yet this report shows no diminution of the permanent funds of the institution, as compared with the amount reported in the Seventh Annual Report of this Board, made in May, 1860—the time at which these separate Funds were created. Special reference is made, in this connection, by the Board, to their Seventh and Eighth Annual Reports.

5. The depreciation in the value of the stocks, in which a large part of the funds of the institution are invested, which has been alluded to in former reports, reached its lowest point more than a year ago; since which time nearly all of these stocks have been gradually appreciating, until their present estimated cash value is about $130,000, their par value being $146,344.99. This change, however, does not affect the income.

6. In conclusion, the Board would express their confidence that, according to present prospects, the institution can be carried successfully through the next year, paying to the Professors their salaries, as at present fixed, viz., $1500 per annum, without encroaching upon any part of the permanent funds. They have, in fact, ventured to direct the payment of the amount formerly allowed for house-rent, $250, to the Professors, for one year from the first of September, 1864, provided the income of the institution will admit of it. They would not, however, conceal the fact that the expenditures of the institution, for the past three years, have required a constant drain upon the surplus income of preceding years; and that, should things remain as at present, there must necessarily be, in a very few years, a failure of income to meet the current expenditures, or a still further reduction of the salaries of Professors, and other expenses. These facts look to the imperative necessity of increasing the permanent endowment of the institution.

All of which is respectfully submitted, on behalf of the Board.

HEMAN H. ALLEN, Assistant Secretary.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OF THE NORTH-WEST.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS.

In presenting their Fifth Annual Report to the General Assembly, the Board of Directors of the Seminary of the North-west desire gratefully to acknowledge the good hand of God, as it has been stretched out in favour of this institution, during the year just closed. A new and most commodious edifice has been erected, completed and partially occupied. In tastefulness, adaptation, and durability, it is believed it will not suffer in comparison with any of the kind in the land. It contains very convenient accommodations for lodging and boarding at least about forty students, besides two commodious library rooms, which will be used as lecture rooms also, for the present.

The twenty-five acres of land originally offered by Messrs. Sheffield and Ogden with others, and by Messrs. Lill and Diversey, and forfeited by delay, have again been generously tendered to the Seminary; and due conveyance has now been made, and the building is on the grounds.

The entire cost of the naked edifice, as reported by the Building Committee, has been $16,125; and it is now estimated by competent judges to be worth at least $25,000. Against this building, owing to some changes of plan, deemed important to be made after the contract was let, there remains at this date the trifling debt of about $800. This, with the greatly diminished amount due the Professors, the Board cannot doubt the churches will soon give the Trustees the means to remove.

The heavy filling up which the lowness of the ground demands, the erection of indispensable out-door improvements, and the equipment of the refectory department, with the furnishing of the whole edifice, except seven students' rooms already supplied with new furniture, and occupied for the last few weeks of the late term, will require an outlay of probably $6000 more. This too, we trust the Master will dispose the churches and individual Christians to supply cheerfully and promptly. This done, as the Board hope it will be before the opening of the next term, this Seminary will afford as attractive accommodations for students as any other; and thus one of our greatest embarrassments will be removed. There is, however, still one other serious lack; that is, of an adequate number of permanent scholarships. The Board report gratefully that Dr. A. M. Bruen, of New York, has recently given $2000 in United States 5-20 Bonds to endow one scholarship; and trust that others may be found who will speedily follow his liberal example.

The Rev. Charles Elliott, D. D., having accepted the appointment made by the last Assembly, was duly inaugurated as Professor of Biblical Literature and Exegesis, at the opening of the late term, and has without interruption and with acceptableness discharged the duties of the office throughout the session. And the other Professors, Drs. Lord and Halsey, have uninterruptedly met the duties of their respective positions. Dr. Lord has filled the vacant McCormick Professorship of Theology, as well as his own.

Five new students have been admitted, viz.

Alexander G. Wilson,	graduate of	Jefferson College,	Pennsylvania.
Harlan P. Peck,	"	Nassau Hall,	New Jersey.
C. F. Waldecker,	"	Westminster College,	Missouri.
James H. Smith,	student of	West Alexander Academy,	Pennsylvania.
John McC. McDonald,	"	"	"

Of these, James H. Smith was received on certificate of dismissal from the Western Theological Seminary.

A thorough examination of the students has been had in the presence of a Committee, and of other members of the Board, which was highly creditable to both professors and students. At the close, certificates of having completed the full course of study were awarded by order of the Board to Messrs. James H. Smith, of Pennsylvania, Warren Norton, of Maine, and Maurice Waller, of Chicago.

The entire Library—now amounting to about seven thousand volumes—has been removed into the rooms in the new building, fitted up for the purpose. It is divided into the Corning Library, the General Library, and the New Albany Library. About one hundred and fifteen volumes have been added during the past year, as reported by the Librarian, Professor Elliott. Of these, about one hundred volumes, were the generous gift of the Rev. C. C. Beatty, D. D., and the remainder were purchased to complete sets of Bacon's Works, and the American Encyclopedia.

Hanson K. Corning, Esq., has placed at the disposal of the Faculty fifty copies of Dr. Spring's "Good Hope through Grace," and twenty-five copies of Locke's "Common Place Book," for gratuitous distribution among the students. This generous friend has also added to his previous and frequent liberal donations to the Library, to the building fund and the furnishing fund, the further handsome sum of $1000 cash for the Library. This was received through the Rev. Dr. Lord, during the present session of the Board. The thanks of the Board and of the Assembly are due Mr. Corning for these repeated acts of considerate liberality.

STATEMENT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

The Board of Trustees, through their Treasurer, E. Wood, Esq., have made the usual annual statement, out of which the following summary is compiled:

It is a source of great satisfaction to the Board to find that the amount reported a year ago as due the Professors, is now very materially reduced.

The Trustees report that $9000 of the Endowment Fund have been paid in during the year, and that the money has been re-loaned on bond and mortgage on first class City property at eight per cent.

ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1863-4.

During the year, death has removed three members of the Board—the Rev.
Dr. James Hoge, the Rev. Dr. H. S. Clarke, our estimable vice-president and chairman of the Executive Committee, in the prime of his life and the fulness of his usefulness, and the Hon. H. Gamble, of Missouri. Our days for working are passing away, and the lengthening shadows warn us that, in the rescue of a continent for Christ, what is done must soon be done, or other labourers will ere long occupy our places and succeed to these high privileges.

Three of our missionaries have ceased from their labours and entered upon their rest—Rev. Joseph Rogers in New Jersey, Rev. R. I. Evans, Washington Territory, and Rev. James Green in Iowa.

SUMMARY OF RESULTS.

The whole number in the service of the Board, as will be seen in the tables accompanying the report, during the year closing March 1, 1864, is 452.

These have been distributed in twenty-four States and Territories, as follows:
Massachusetts 1, Connecticut 1, New York 36, New Jersey 20, Pennsylvania 75,
Delaware 4, Maryland 12, West Virginia 4, Ohio 44, Indiana 33, Illinois 68,
Michigan 5, Wisconsin 33, Minnesota 19, Iowa 55, Missouri 13, Kansas 12,
Nebraska 4, Colorado 1, Kentucky 3, Tennessee 1, Oregon 2, Washington 2, California 4.

The number of churches and mission stations, in whole or part supplied (so far as reported) by these brethren, is 719.

Nineteen churches are reported as organized—the number admitted to the Church on profession of faith, 1482, and on certificate 1021—making a total of 2503.

The entire membership in churches connected with the Board is 19,736.

The Sabbath-schools number 322, with 2775 teachers, and 19,561 scholars.

The number of baptisms reported is 2218.

Notwithstanding our former complaints, many do not report, and the details are therefore inadequate. This makes our exhibit less satisfactory than we could wish. Your reverend body last year, in the resolutions of the Standing Committee on Missions, rebuked this, but the evil still exists.

APPROPRIATIONS.

The amount promised to the missionaries from March 1, 1863, to March 1, 1864, has been $58,924.33, an increase of nearly six thousand dollars beyond the measure of the year preceding. However gratifying this may seem, and for which we owe thanks to the Church's glorious Head, it is manifestly inadequate to the magnitude of the field and the vastness of the work. It is inferior to the doings of other years. In the year ending March, 1860, the appropriations were double. This, however, was before the disrupting influences of civil war, whereby more than one-third of the entire field was swept away, and also was the period of the expansion which culminated in the severe embarrassments of 1861. We refer to it here to say, that while in times like these, this advance, though pleasing in itself, is not by any means in keeping with the ability of the Church, and the grand necessities of the case.

THE TREASURY.

Receipts.—The entire amount, during the fiscal year ending March, 1864, received from all sources, was $82,684.29, an excess beyond the year preceding of $11,473.51.

Payments.—The amount paid, including the Presbytery of West Jersey, was $56,801.02; less than the year before, because there was no outstanding debt to liquidate, as in years past. The balance we were happy to report to the last Assembly, enabled us to pay regularly the salaries of the missionaries as they matured, though it was more than absorbed in the first six months, which experience has taught us are always months of light receipts. It is a matter of prime necessity to pay punctually the comparatively small sums we promise the brethren on the mission field. It gives them credit in the eyes of the community amid whom they live, and adds to the dignity of their office.

In legacies received there has been an increase of $2813.18, and in miscellaneous and individual donations of $677.94. The most pleasing fact revealed by these statistics is in the increase from the churches—the bulk of the increase was there—on these must ever be our main reliance. The legacies of the sainted dead, and the offerings of large-hearted individuals, must, of necessity, vary in the ever-changing circumstances of human life. The gifts of the people of God, in his churches, from year to year, must be the measure and gauge of our movements—we can expand safely when a roused and cheerful Church shall make us the almoner of large increasing benefactions.

CLOTHING.

Clothing valued at $13,984.08 have been received and distributed to the missionaries over and above the salaries paid them, affording seasonable relief and a blessed testimony to the faithfulness of our ladies, in the midst of the wonderful demand for our patriot soldiers.

OUR MISSIONS.

In some respects we have enlarged our missions, and would have been happy to have expanded still further, had the right men offered. Fewer applications have been made, because, in part, the war has absorbed many into the service of the government. Fields of promise and of vast importance have opened, and are opening, and the demands for active and earnest labourers are unprecedented. The vast regions beyond the Mississippi—the plains full of gold which skirt the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains, the wide and populous Pacific coasts—all open before the energetic Christian and the patriot with eloquent appeals. The increasing population of our country—doubling in twenty-five years, and spreading itself over areas only lately mentioned on the most recent atlases—bids us be solemn, industrious, and earnest in our prayers to God that we may not fail of our high privilege. The amazing emigration from Europe—in face of civil war, and in spite of the warnings of the hierarchy and the piteous appeals of hostile journals, rushing to these shores too fast for an overcrowded marine—excites our liveliest apprehensions, and enlarges the field of Christian effort. God has a purpose in all this, and we can no more doubt his goodness in this than all the acts of his glorious administration—and then the South, with its desolations, extinct churches, and ruined people, is before us. To reconstruct churches, to win back with the kind persuasions of the gospel the deceived and the erring, to cast the mantle of Christian charity over the past, and bid the gospel exert its blessed and benign influence over white and black, over the former master and his former slave, will make demands upon the benevolence of the Church unknown before. For years the South will be a mission field, to be supplied by the kindness of the North. Where shall be found the men to do this work? Where is the ministry anointed of God for this service?

The peculiarity of much of the work to be done will require more of itinerant labour than we have been accustomed to employ. Few applications are made for a service involving so much discomfort. It is true, men of peculiar habitudes are needed, or we lose time and money. It demands men of special culture and no mean powers, to move successfully over the out-lying fields of Christian civilization. And as new territories are created, and demand their places on the map, we do not see how we can successfully accomplish our work without such agencies. The gold fields on either side of the Rocky Mountains can be penetrated only in this way, or the thousands and tens of thousands will not otherwise hear the words of this life. And after the war, and as the country returns to its former quiet, such agency will be imperatively needed in the South and South-west; and if men can be found, and the means supplied, incalculable good may be expected. Most gladly will the Board welcome, to the full extent of the means entrusted, men who, with proper qualifications, will offer themselves for the high places of the field.

Our hope then is, that the ministry will instruct and give the people facts. We have great faith in sanctified and enlightened sympathy. Our plans of systematic benevolence fail, because too much is taken for granted. There is and there can be no charm in any such system—no magic influence. Teach the people; instruct them in the wants of the great mission enterprises; let the pastors study these mighty themes, and present the glowing picture to the Christian sensibilities of their people. If we may hint at a defect in our otherwise excellent ministry, it is a failure sufficiently to impart this light.

ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1863-4.

PART I.—MINISTERIAL EDUCATION.

Candidates.—The following table exhibits the operations of the Board of Education in the department of candidates for the ministry:

The number of new candidates received during the year has been	61
The number received from the beginning (in 1819,)	3263
The whole number on the roll during the past year has been	265
Of these latter there have been,
In their Theological course,	145
“ Collegiate “	88
“ Academical “	32
	— 265

The number of new candidates this year is larger than that reported last year.

From reports received from our literary and theological institutions, the Board feel authorized to report to the Assembly that progress has been made, during the past year, towards a higher standard of ministerial qualifications; and that to no cause can this be traced so obviously, as to a greater caution on the part of Presbyteries in receiving candidates, and to their increased diligence and fidelity in watching over them after their reception.

Though all has not been attained which was anticipated from the action of the Assembly, recommending to the Presbyteries an annual examination of the candidates under their care, yet the good which has resulted from it proves that what is necessary to secure all that was hoped for from this arrangement, is increasing caution and faithfulness. The importance of fidelity in the primary examination cannot easily be overstated. Most of the failures which have occurred, have their origin at this point. The Board do not expect to gain the confidence, or to receive liberal contributions from the churches, unless they are persuaded that those whom they are sustaining during the preparation for the ministry possess gifts and graces greater than ordinary believers.

Though no human foresight or caution can prevent unworthy and incompetent men from gaining admission into the ministry, the number of such instances for the last ten years has been very few. At the request of the Board, all the Presbyteries in connection with the General Assembly have instituted a thorough examination of the position and employment of the candidates which have been under their care during the last twenty years.

We cite from one of the reports received, the following statement, furnishing a most animating motive to renewed activity in the employment of all right means to increase the number of the publishers.

“Of the one hundred and thirty candidates whose names are on our Presbyterian catalogue, I have a personal recollection of almost every one; and it gives me pleasure to state that, with very few exceptions, and I cannot say that they are exceptions, all are either pursuing the work of the ministry with credit—some of them in distinguished positions—or have finished their course honourably and gone to their rest. I cannot recall one who has abandoned the ministry. I find one or two who, having been ordained or licensed, have served the Church in ministerial labours, but for failure of health, &c., have entered upon the work of teaching, yet preaching as they are called upon, and their names stand on the rolls of their respective Presbyteries in good and regular standing. I do not suppose such cases come under your inquiry.”

This statement would seem to confirm the testimony of the oldest of all the Professors connected with our various Seminaries, “that we have the history of no benevolent enterprise which has accomplished so much good with so few failures as the Assembly's Board of Education since its organization."

Though the number of candidates is greater this year than the last, still the increase of the ministry does not keep pace with the increase of our membership; and this is the more deeply to be lamented, as during no period of our Church's history has the need of an increase of ministers been as great as in the past year. Never was the harvest greater, and, in proportion to its magnitude, never the labourers fewer.

The Board would respectfully recommend to the General Assembly that the maximum of the scholarships for the present be increased from eighty to one hundred dollars to academical students, and from one hundred to one hundred and twenty to collegiate students, and from one hundred and twenty to one hundred and fifty to theological students. The necessity of this increase is so great, the reasons for it so obvious, that the enumeration of them is deemed unnecessary. If the candidates are men of the right character, and possess the requisite qualifications, there need be no anxiety as to the increase of their number, or the willingness of the churches to sustain them. The Church is in as little danger of having too many ministers as she is of possessing too great spirituality, or too frequent or too plentiful effusions of the Holy Spirit. It would be easier to sustain six hundred candidates, possessing the confidence of the churches that they were men called of God to the ministry, than half this number if there were doubts lest they should prove to be workmen of whom the friends of Zion need to be ashamed.

It becomes the painful duty of the Board to report to the General Assembly the death of two of their highly esteemed members during the past year, the Rev. George W. Thompson, D. D., and the Rev. John N. Campbell, D. D.

State of the Treasury.—The following is a general view of the pecuniary affairs of the Board, during the ecclesiastical year ending May 6, 1864:

I. CANDIDATES' FUND.		II. SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES.

The total receipts of the year, from all sources, are $47,726 88. Total receipts of the Candidates' Fund are $43,438.16—$905 01 less than those of last year, but an increase on the receipts of the year previous of $4090.13.

II. GENERAL EDUCATION.

The Department of Schools, Academies, and Colleges.

Perhaps no year in the history of our country has presented so remarkable a record in educational matters as that which has just taken its place in the annals of the past.

The uniform testimony of those in charge of literary institutions is, that the year just closed has been one of unprecedented success. In the midst of the most extended and expensive civil war the world has ever known, the above statement stands as an anomaly in national experience.

1. PAROCHIAL SCHOOLS.—This gratifying and most commendable impetus to education has in no slight degree favourably affected our Parochial School system; and the hope is strongly cherished, that its beneficial influence is but begun to be felt in this vital department of the Church's labour.

The practical question which to-day most significantly confronts the Church and people of God, is, How are the breaches and the waste places yet existing in the field we are called upon to cultivate, to be recovered and rebuilt? The Board has long and frequently declared to the Church her abiding conviction that the Christian School is of vital importance as an auxiliary of the Christian Church, and that the Christian Church is the proper conservator of the Christian School. They are the complements the one of the other, and are integral parts of one and the same grand system for the glory of God.

Hence the wisdom and piety of our fathers have left us, as their richest patrimony, the Parochial School, the Academy, and the College—all the human appliances which can be required to instruct the children of the Church, and train them for efficiency in the future—these, too, under the rightful guardianship and prayerful supervision of the Church itself.

2. ACADEMIES.—A fact which has deeply impressed the Board of Education for many years, is the apparent want of appreciation in many sections of our Church, of the proper estimate and true worth of the Academy and the Presbyterial or Collegiate Institute.

Costly experience, it is hoped, has at length fully demonstrated to the Church what the Board has repeatedly declared to the Assembly, that extent of territory, cities, towns, synods, nor yet large population, do not in themselves either originate or justify Colleges. These are each important elements from which, in due time, and through proper culture and combinations, the highest grades of educational institutions may result; but it is absolutely necessary to have these constituent elements in certain and necessary forms, before the much coveted issue of the College can be secured.

The Board, therefore, would again most earnestly urge upon the Assembly, and through your venerated court, and by your gravest sanction, would we implore the churches to look with stronger favour, warmer sympathies, and greater scrutiny, upon academic instruction. There is no danger of our having too many first class Academies—every Presbytery should have at least one. Nor can we err in elevating the standard of their curriculum; for in the ratio in which these exist shall we the more surely lay the firm basis of subsequent intellectual attainments.

Good Academies and thorough Presbyterial Institutes rarely fail; but Colleges have, and will again, imperilling education, unless they are projected on more feasible grounds than they have been in many instances in the past.

The grave mistake of the friends of education in this country has been their investment of capital in buildings and lands, instead of securing for their institutions the most competent instructors—from which error, however, the Board have much satisfaction in assuring the Assembly that the funds entrusted to its care have been almost entirely exempt.

The Board, except it be in rare cases, and then to free an enterprise absolutely from debt, supplement the salaries of teachers and professors; thus paying only for work that has been performed, and enjoying the full consciousness of having prudently expended the benefactions of the Church. With confidence, therefore, the Board would ask for larger contributions with which to aid deserving and struggling institutions; and we would most sincerely urge the brethren to plant and foster Academies or Presbyterial Institutes in every eligible opening.

3. COLLEGES.—From what has been said under the previous heads, the Assembly and the Church cannot fail to understand the views entertained by the Board in reference to the highest and final department of the Church's Educational Scheme. Time only deepens the conviction of the Board as to the importance of first-class Colleges, few in number, in central and accessible points, well equipped, and thoroughly endowed. A most hopeful sign is the manifest indications that the multiplication of feeble Colleges, which must at best drag out a sickly existence, is a positive injury to the true interests of education. The Board rejoice in the evidence that the zeal for multiplying is obviously on the decrease, and a much more healthful indication as to the necessity of consolidation of some existing institutions, and the conjunction of stronger elements in other enterprises, is rapidly on the increase. One well endowed College can do all the work of a large region, and better train all of its well prepared applicants for literary degrees, than can two or three inefficient institutions. In union there is strength.

From an extended and instructive experience, the Board do not hesitate to assure the Assembly that they feel a solemn and conscientious obligation, as conservators of the best interests of education, to discountenance all immature and impracticable college schemes. It is with much satisfaction that the Board reports the activity shown during the past year in the endowment of both Synodical and other Colleges.

An unusual spirit of liberality has been evinced, and some of the most cherished institutions of the Church have greatly increased their means of accomplishing their noble mission.

ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT, APRIL 30, 1864.

The Executive Committee feel grateful to God that they are able to make an encouraging report of the year just ended. It has been a year of much anxiety, in some respects, in the prosecution of their work, but at its close they are permitted to see all the missions enjoying tokens of God's favour, and to record their testimony to the liberality of the churches and the friends of missions.

State of the Treasury.—The year closes without a debt on the mission treasury, though there is a heavy liability of not less than $52,000, at the rate ruling April 25th, for extra exchange on bills remitted, but not yet matured, which must be met in due time. The receipts of the Board from all sources have been $222,397.13; the expenses, $221,609.93. It is a cause of great thankfulness, that in these times of trouble, the people of God have been enabled to extend such a steady and liberal support to the cause of missions. During the last year, their gifts considerably exceeded those of the preceding year.

New Missionaries, &c.—The number of missionaries and assistant-missionaries sent out was thirteen, of whom six are ministers—two of them returning to their fields of labour. The removal by death of the Rev. H. V. Rankin, of the Ningpo mission, is deeply deplored—the only death in the ranks of the ordained missionaries. The death of a female missionary among the Indians, Mrs. Williams, and the death of Mrs. Herron, wife of the Rev. D. Herron, in India, are also afflictive events; but in all these instances, death was gain to our departed friends. It is mentioned with special pleasure, that three native missionary labourers were licensed to preach the gospel in India, and six in China, by Presbyteries in these countries.

The Work of the Missions.—The work of the missions has been carried forward as in preceding years. This work is conducted among several of our Indian tribes; in New Granada and Brazil; in Liberia and Corisco in Africa; in India, Siam, China, and Japan; among the Chinese in California; in Belgium, France, and Italy; and among the Jews. Full accounts are given in the Report of the condition and progress of all these missions. These accounts show that 67 ministers of the gospel, 11 licentiate preachers, 4 physicians, 193 teachers, colporteurs, &c.—in all, a staff of 275 labourers, including the wives of the missionaries, are connected with the Board. It is particularly interesting to see that of these various labourers, not less than 125 are natives of the countries in which this work is carried on. The work itself is that of making the gospel known to those who sit in darkness, by preaching, by conversation, by teaching, by distributing the sacred Scriptures, and other Christian books. In such a brief abstract as this, satisfactory details cannot be furnished, but as giving some idea of the work in progress, it may be stated that over 21,000,000 pages of the Scriptures and tracts were printed last year at the mission presses; nearly 5000 youths were taught in the schools; and hopeful converts were admitted to the churches in Liberia, at Corisco, Bogota, Rio de Janeiro, Rawal Pindi, Lahor, Jalandar, Kapurthala, Lodiana, Ambala, Saharunpur, Dehra, Futteghurh, Mynpurie, Etawah, Bangkok, Petchaburi, Canton, Ningpo, Shanghai, Tungchow, San Francisco, Iowa, Chippewa—in some cases one, two, or three; in other cases, eighteen, nineteen, thirty. In no former year has greater encouragement been granted to the servants of Christ, in the hopeful conversion of souls unto God.

Progress called for.—All this should point the attention of the churches to the duty of continuing in well-doing, and of making greater efforts in this cause. Their past efforts have met with the favour of Heaven; but the great work yet remains to be done; the vast unevangelized multitudes still call for help; the Saviour's last commandment is not yet fulfilled; the encouragement of his last promise is still in full force. The shakings and distress of our own and other nations are preparing the way for the coming of his kingdom of righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost; and they are preparing his disciples for greater devotedness to the service of the Lord.

ABSTRACT OF THE TWENTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT, 1864.

Whilst a civil war, never equalled in extent and earnestness in the history of our world, has been desolating portions of our fair and once happy land, the Board has been enabled, by the good providence of God, to prosecute its accustomed labours without disaster or disturbance, and even with an increased measure of prosperity and usefulness. The number of new books issued from its presses has been larger than in any former year of its history. Its sales have been considerably in advance of the years immediately preceding. Its receipts for Colportage and Distribution have exceeded those of any former year, even when the churches of the south and southwest were contributing to its resources. The issues of the Board have been scattered, both by sale and gift, far and wide over the land, and there is cheering reason to believe they have been accompanied and blessed in their mission by the converting and sanctifying influences of the Holy Spirit. Altogether, the Board feels that it has cause for expressing sentiments of profound gratitude to the great Head of the Church for his help during the year past, and to look to him with increased confidence for aid and guidance in time to come.

The series of resolutions adopted by the last General Assembly, containing directions to the Board on various points, and founded upon the report of the Assembly's Special Committee appointed in 1862, was received by the Board on the ninth of June last at its annual meeting. A series of resolutions, intended and adapted to give full efficacy to the action of the Assembly, was immediately adopted by the Board at the same annual meeting. These resolutions were published in the preface to the last Annual Report, and the Board has diligently endeavoured to carry them into effect. Whatever opinions may have been entertained in various quarters respecting the action of the last General Assembly, the Board having unhesitatingly obeyed those directions, and finding itself at the end of its first year after, in a condition of comfort and prosperity, expresses the earnest hope that its future progress may be marked by an immunity from those external and agitating discussions, and by the bestowal upon it from all sides, of that generous confidence, so necessary to its enlarged usefulness.

We now proceed to lay before the Assembly a full report of the last year's operations.

I. THE DEPARTMENT OF PRODUCTION.

The great difficulty of the year in this department has arisen from the unsettled and constantly increasing prices of labour and materials. Almost month by month the prices demanded for paper, stereotyping, engraving, printing, binding, and every other branch of the book-making business, have been steadily advancing. Owing to the large increase in the price of nearly every article needed for the sustenance of a family, and to the example set by other publishing establishments, the Board also felt compelled, in duty both to itself and to them, to make a temporary addition of twenty-five per cent. to the remuneration before allowed to several of the officers in its establishment. Constant care has been used to avoid unnecessary expense, but it was found that the Board must either increase its rates of payment as did other publishers, and make a corresponding rise in its Catalogue prices, or else must absolutely cease from publishing, at a time when the demand for its publications was on the increase.

The Board has issued during the year,

87 new books, of which have been printed	152,950 copies.
1 Revised Book of Discipline,	3,000 "
2 new 18mo tracts,	7,000 "
2 sheet hymns,	10,000 "
2 packages of sailors' tracts, (12mo.)	6,000 "
1 certificate of reception,	1,000 "
1 marriage certificate,	3,000 "
18 new 12mo. tracts,	57,000 "
Total copies of new publications,	239,950

The reprints of former publications during the year have been,

Of books,	176,150
Of tracts and catechisms,	263,900
Of packages of tracts,	28,000
Of sheet hymns,	50,000—518,050 "

Total number of publications during the year, 758,000

Total number of copies of books and tracts issued by the Board since its organization, 11,548,488.

In addition to the above, there have been printed during the year,

Of Sabbath-School Visitor ,	646,000 copies.
Of the Home and Foreign Record ,	121,350 "
Of the Annual Report of the Board,	4,000 "
Of the Report on the Disabled Ministers' Fund,	2,000 "

The demand for good religious reading for soldiers continues unabated. The issues of "The Soldier's Pocket-Book" alone have reached since its publication, about 222,000 copies. Large numbers continue to go forth on their errand of mercy, of "The Good Soldier," of the first and second "Soldier's Series of Tracts," of "Hospital Cards," Sheet Hymns, Sheet Music, and many other publications. To these has recently been added "The Christian Soldier," which is intended to carry a special message to professing Christians in the army.

God has of late been doing great things for "them that go down to the sea in ships." A very unusual number of conversions have occurred among them, and an increased anxiety has been manifested by them to secure religious reading. Naval officers and chaplains have been calling upon us more than ever before, to furnish their ships and stations with good books and tracts. In answer to this demand, the Board has not only distributed large numbers of suitable publications before on its catalogue, especially of "The Sailor's Companion," but has issued two packages of tracts, entitled "The Sailor's Series," Nos. I. and II., which are peculiarly adapted to interest and benefit this class of readers. It also has in press one or two small volumes for sailors, which will soon be issued.

In accordance with the suggestion made by the Special Committee of the Assembly in its report last year, (See Appendix to the Annual Report of the Board for 1863, page 69,) as well as with the previous judgment of the Board itself, even greater attention than in former years has been given to the issue of Sabbath-school books. By reference to the preceding list of new publications, it will be seen that sixty-two new books have this year been added to our Sabbath-school catalogue. We may be allowed to say that they can safely challenge comparison, not only as to material and outward finish, but also as to the instructiveness and general excellence of their contents, with any other works for juvenile readers to be found anywhere.

The number of Sabbath-School Visitors issued monthly, as last year reported, was 55,000 copies. The same number continued to be circulated monthly until last December, when it was diminished to 52,000. New subscriptions are now again coming in, and it is hoped the decrease will prove to have been but temporary. Constant care is taken to fill it with the most interesting and instructive matter obtainable, and to present it in as attractive an exterior as possible.

The monthly circulation of the Home and Foreign Record reported to the last Assembly was 10,400 copies. Towards the end of the year it declined to 9,600 copies, but since the first of January last has risen to 10,750 copies, at which number it now stands. On the first of January, the whole edition, according to the direction of the last Assembly, began to be published in a neat pamphlet form, with covers, and this change seems to have met with very general favour among the churches, as is evinced by the new subscriptions made. With the greatly enhanced prices of paper and printing, however, and the added cost of the cover, the paper is sure to draw more largely than heretofore upon the treasuries of the several Boards, unless an earnest effort is widely made to increase its circulation. In view of this danger, may we not appeal to pastors and sessions to do all in their power to increase the subscription list of the Record?

II. DEPARTMENT OF DISTRIBUTION.

1. Sales in the Depository.—The sales of the year in the Depository have been 179,871 volumes, and 1,971,419 pages of tracts, which is an increase of 4,852 volumes, and 1,400,958 pages of tracts, upon the sales of last year. The net value of these sales is $37,857 74, which is an increase of $11,968.59 upon the sales of the preceding year. The sales and distributions made by colporteurs are stated elsewhere, and are not, of course, included in the above figures.

2. Distributions by the Executive Committee.—The amount received for the Distribution Fund during the year has been $5017.28; the value of the books and tracts distributed from it, $6193.21.

These distributions have been made as follows:

1. To Mission and other needy Sabbath-schools,	2,626 volumes.
2. " Ships and naval and military stations, hospitals, soldiers, and prisoners,	42,650 "
3. " Humane Institutions	1,724 "
4. " Ministers,	262 "
5. " Feeble churches and literary institutions,	862 "
6. " Individuals, for gratuitous distribution,	1,299 "

Total of volumes granted,	49,423
Pages of tracts granted,	566,782

As church collections are rarely taken for this fund, its entire reliance is upon the munificence of individual Christian friends of the Board and its work, and the close of the year finds the fund empty and overdrawn. We bespeak for it the contributions of the benevolent for the coming year.

3. Distribution by Colportage.—The unusually high prices of labour, and the many useful and remunerative avenues open for its expenditure during the past year, have made it far more difficult than usual to secure colporteurs having the desirable qualifications. Every individual thus qualified, for whom a commission has been sought, has been gladly engaged. The number of colporteurs in commission during the past year has been only ninety. The reports which have been received show that they have performed 7243 days of labour, have sold 52,411 volumes, have given away 33,857 volumes, have distributed 1,623,063 pages of tracts, and have visited and conversed with 432,582 souls.

While the number of regularly commissioned colporteurs has been smaller than usual, hundreds of ready hearts and hands have been found among the chaplains, officers, hospital nurses, and others, to aid in the distribution of books and tracts without any charge for the service; and wherever the Board has received an intimation of such readiness, it has gladly furnished its publications.

The Board has seized every opportunity to place some good religious reading in the hands of the soldiers and sailors, wherever they were accessible. At every prominent naval or military post along the Atlantic seaboard, in the Gulf of Mexico, or along our western rivers, some of its publications have been distributed among them.

The sick and wounded soldiers in the military hospitals have received especial attention. Always ready eagerly to receive books, tracts, and papers, there is good reason to believe that the Spirit of God has led their minds, in instances not a few, by the perusal of these pages, to a saving knowledge of the Lamb of God.

The Southern prisoners in the hands of our government have also been, to a large extent, supplied. At Fort Delaware, Pa., Rock Island, Ill., Johnson's Island, near Sandusky, Ohio, and elsewhere, thousands of them have gratefully received and read the pages of printed truth. From Johnson's Island particularly, most encouraging accounts have been received of the usefulness of the books sent to them.

During the past year the coloured freedmen have become a numerous and important class of claimants for the benefactions of the Board. They are now found collected in villages at numerous points along the Atlantic coast and the Mississippi River. Their eagerness to learn to read and to possess books, is very remarkable. The Board has begun to send to them supplies of suitable elementary books and tracts, as an aid to those who are engaged in their instruction, and will, as the providence of God may open the way, gladly extend its efforts among them.

In the West, Dr. C. O. Waters has continued his valuable labours in the service of the Board. He has visited every important point on the Mississippi River between Vicksburg and Rock Island, everywhere engaging the services of suitable helpers in the work, and placing supplies of books and tracts in their hands. He has been indefatigable, also, in personal visits to camps, hospitals, gunboats, and steamers, besides having supervision of a number of regular colporteurs within his district.

The Rev. M. G. Knight has made extensive distributions in camps and hospitals in Kentucky and Tennessee. The Rev. S. T. Wells also continues his labours in California.

Total of Distribution.—Gathering up the various items, we have the following as the aggregate work of distribution of the year now under review:

Volumes sold at the Depository,	179,871
Volumes sold by Colporteurs,	52,411
Volumes given by Colporteurs,	33,857
Volumes granted by Executive Committee,	49,423

Total of volumes distributed, 315,562

The pages of tracts distributed are as follows:

By sale at the Depository,	1,971,419
Gratuitously by Colporteurs,	1,623,063
Granted by Executive Committee,	566,782

Total, 4,161,264

In addition to these, the Board has issued,

Copies of the Sabbath school Visitor,	646,000
“ “ Home and Foreign Record,	121,350
“ of various Reports,	6,000

The net value of the issues of the year has been:

Sales in the Depository,	$37,857.74
Sent to Seminaries, Authors, Editors, &c.	627.45
Sales by Colporteurs,	28,538.10
Home and Foreign Record,	3,800.99
Sabbath-school Visitor,	6,905.37

Total of net value, $77,729.65

As this total comprehends not only cash sales, but credit sales and donations, it does not, of course, correspond with the Treasurer's account, which exhibits only cash received.

The catalogue value of this total would be $94,008.27, the difference being made up of discounts allowed to clergymen, theological students, booksellers, and synodical depositories.

There is no doubt that a vastly increased circulation might be secured for the publications of the Board, if our ministers and sessions generally felt the great importance to the cause of truth and of Presbyterianism, of securing a place for its publications in the homes of their respective congregations, in the libraries of their Sabbath-schools, and upon their own book-shelves. In reference to this point, the Special Committee, in its report made to the last General Assembly, remarks:

"We desire to see a greater degree of working interest secured among the ministers and members of the Church generally, to promote the circulation of the Board's volumes. There is an indisposition among our ministers to promote actively the sales of books, which cannot be justified, since the press should be auxiliary to the pulpit. Every good book placed in one of the families of a congregation, is a quiet, untiring worker, in the same direction with the labours of a faithful pastor. Sometimes this pastoral coöperation with the Board—and many a private member should afford the same—should take the form of a commendatory notice, in the public prints, of some valuable volume. Interest would thus be added to the columns of our papers, and the impulse given to the sale of books by such notices of the Board's publications, would be but one of many advantages secured. Personal recommendation of the Board's volumes, pains taken to procure any book for those who may wish it, and diligent efforts to scatter them through his congregation and Presbytery, should be thought useful labours on the part of any pastor." (Report for 1863, pp. 69 and 70.)

III. DEPARTMENT OF SUSTENTATION.

The entire receipts of the Treasury during the year, exclusive of the balance in hand March 1, 1863, have been $97,897.14, an increase of $16,226.21 over those of the year preceding. The aggregate expenditures have been $106,622.31, an increase of $34,772.72, occasioned by the increase of publications.

The amount of cash received from sales of books, tracts, and periodicals has been $63,081.49, an increase of $13,203.67.

The balance in the Treasury at the end of the year is $7182.53.

The Colportage Fund.—The receipts for Colportage have amounted to $28,508.29, being a gain of $3429.94 over the year preceding, and a little more than has ever been received in a single year, even when the entire South was in coöperation with the Board.

The number of contributing churches has been 703, an increase of 30 over that ever before contributing to the Fund in a single year.

The expenditures for Colportage have been $23,024.02, leaving a balance in the Colportage Fund, on the first day of March, of $5484.27.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

President—REV. JAMES H. BROOKES.

Corresponding Secretary—REV. H. I. COE.

Treasurer—DAVID KEITH, Esq., St. Louis, Mo.

ABSTRACT OF THE NINTH ANNUAL REPORT.

We must open our Ninth Annual Report with a record of death. On the 31st of January, 1864, Hamilton R. Gamble, Governor of Missouri, and one of the original members of the Board, entered into his rest. By his removal, the country has lost one of its wisest and purest statesmen; the Church one of its brightest ornaments, and the Board one of its most liberal and judicious friends. Saddened as we are by this great calamity, we yet find abundant cause for thankfulness in the favour of God shown towards the work entrusted to us. He has increased the receipts of the Board $5622 27 over those of last year, and inclined 713 instead of 566 churches to remember the cause of Church Extension.

APPLICATIONS.

The number of applications for aid filed from April 1, 1863, to April 1, 1864, was seventy. These applications were from churches in the bounds of twenty Synods, thirty-six Presbyteries, and fifteen States and Territories. These seventy churches ask for aid amounting in the aggregate to $31,054.02, averaging $442.91 each.

Besides these new applications, there were thirty-two previous applications, calling for $12,750, undisposed of, April 1, 1863. The Board therefore had before it during the period covered by this report, one hundred and two applications, calling for nearly $44,000.

During the year, seven applications, calling for $7100, were stricken from the file, because they had not furnished the requisite information in the two years allowed for that purpose.

There remained on file, undisposed of, April 1, 1864, applications from forty-two churches, requesting aid to the amount of $22,210.

APPROPRIATIONS.

During the year under review, appropriations amounting to $11,557.27 were made to forty-seven churches, in the bounds of seventeen Synods, thirty-one Presbyteries, and fourteen States and Territories. The average amount appropriated to each of these forty-seven churches was $245.90. If the special appropriations, for which the Board took no responsibility, be left out of view, the appropriations would average $304.27 to each church.

The Board also found it necessary during the year to make a number of informal pledges of aid on special conditions, which should be reckoned in its liabilities, yet cannot appear among our formal appropriations until further action is taken in reference to them.

Appropriations amounting to $1200 were, during the year, withdrawn from eight churches which had not called for them in the two years to which they were limited. The names and localities of these churches will be found in the Appendix to the Report.

From April 1, 1863, to April 1, 1864, forty-three churches drew their appropriations, amounting to $9843.52.

COST OF CHURCH EDIFICES.

Since the organization of the Board, July, 1855, appropriations have been made to five hundred and seventeen different churches. Of these, seventy-one churches were aided by special appropriations, for which the Board took no responsibility. As nearly as we can ascertain, the remaining four hundred and forty-six churches cost $874.847, or $1961 each.

The reported average cost of the churches aided by the Board, during the year under review, is $2254.39. This is an advance of $567.38, or nearly thirty-four per cent. over the reported cost of churches aided during the previous year. In the last two years, the average cost of churches reported has risen from $1127.90 to $2254.39, or almost exactly one hundred per cent., while the size and style of building, so far as we can judge, remain the same. The appropriations of the Board, during the same period, have advanced from an average of $172.58 to $304.27, or nearly seventy-seven per cent.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

The balance on hand, April 1, 1863, was $20,506.58. The receipts from all sources, during the year, were $24,847.49, of which sum, $14,936.52 were from churches. The available means of the year, therefore, were $45,354.09.

The expenditures of the year, as shown by the Treasurer's statement in the Appendix, were $12,302.81. The balance in the treasury, April 1, 1864, was consequently $33,051.26. There were, however, unpaid at that time, liabilities amounting to $15,552.71, leaving as the unpledged balance, at the close of the fiscal year, $17,498.55.

In reference to this large and unexpected balance we desire to submit the following facts to the General Assembly and the Church:

1. There are, on file awaiting the receipt of additional information, applications amounting to $22,210, or $4711.45 more than the balance on hand.

2. Every church that properly applied and furnished the necessary information during the year was aided by an appropriation.

3. The appropriations made were in each case as large as the Board in view of the necessities of that case, and the restrictions imposed by the Assembly and by contributors felt warranted in making. In but three cases of perfected applications, did the Board fail to grant the full amount asked. In two of these the appropriations made have already completed the house free from debt. In the third case the grant (which was a liberal one) will probably accomplish the desired result.

4. The average advance in the appropriations made by the Board from April 1, 1863, to April 1, 1864, almost exactly kept pace with the advance in applications during the same period. The appropriations rose from an average of $243.11 to $304.27, or more than twenty-five per cent., while the applications rose from $356.49 to $442.91, or less than twenty-six per cent.

5. While the applications filed during the year amounted to $31,054.02, those perfected so that the Board could formally act upon them reached only $10,494.02. This single fact points to the chief cause of the balance in the treasury, to wit, the inability of our feeble churches to mature and execute their plans for building. They feel deeply the need of a sanctuary. They plan, but where they count the cost they cannot find the means to warrant them in undertaking the heavy task. They must have more aid from some source, or postpone the enterprise.

It may then be asked why the Board, with the balance in its treasury, does not encourage our feeble churches with yet larger promises. In reply, we beg leave to submit for your judgment the reasons that present themselves for and against such an increase. On the one hand, the great sacrifices of our missionary churches and brethren—the increased cost of building, (which, as we have seen, has risen one hundred per cent. in two years)—the eventual saving of church funds, in the diminished appropriations necessary for the support of missionaries—and the value of a sanctuary to a community in these days of abounding wickedness, all urge us to give, as we are asked, while a dollar remains in the treasury.

On the other hand, we cannot shut our eyes to the fact that contributors generally do not expect the Board to make large grants to churches engaged in building. Some of the wisest and largest donors accompany their gifts with special restrictions as to the amount and manner of distribution, which of course we must carefully regard. Moreover, we cannot interpret the voice of previous Assemblies otherwise than as limiting us in ordinary cases to the work of supplementing the sums raised at home, by comparatively small appropriations. We see also that any large increase of appropriations would not merely exhaust our balance in a short time, but would excite expectations of aid that could not be realized for want of funds on the part of the Board. We feel bound, therefore, as the disbursing agents of the Assembly, and of contributors, to refrain from any very great advance in the scale of our appropriations until the limitations imposed upon us are removed. At the same time, we are persuaded that with the amount of aid the Board now grants, church building must for the present be greatly restricted in our feeble congregations—that many ministers must abandon their posts, or draw more largely on missionary funds for their support—and that our houseless churches, drained of their strength by the war, must languish, if not perish. The Assembly and the Church must decide what shall be done to prevent these great calamities, at a time when the voice of God bids his people strengthen the things that remain and are ready to die.

FUND FOR DISABLED MINISTERS AND THE FAMILIES OF DECEASED MINISTERS.

NINTH ANNUAL REPORT TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF ITS TRUSTEES IN RELATION TO "DISABLED MINISTERS IN NEED, AND THE NEEDY WIDOWS AND ORPHANS OF DECEASED MINISTERS," FOR THE YEAR ENDING MAY 1, 1864.

THE first Annual Report of the Trustees to the General Assembly, in relation to "Disabled Ministers, &c.," was made at their meeting in 1856. It informed the Assembly that during the year relief had been given to the families of eight ministers, eleven widows, and one orphan—about sixty persons—among whom were disbursed one thousand five hundred and eighty dollars. The Assembly can estimate the progress of this cause, when that Report is compared with the present, in which the Trustees have the pleasure of announcing that the appropriations of the year ending May 1, 1864, have been eighty-eight, an increase of more than fourfold. Forty-eight of these have been made to widows, thirty-seven to ministers, and three to families of orphans—in all, not less than two hundred and fifty persons, putting the number of each family at the low average of three. Among these have been divided, in different proportions asked by Presbyteries, thirteen thousand one hundred and sixty dollars.

In no former year have the contributions to this object been so large, nor have the cases relieved been so numerous. The plan of annual collections, so often recommended by the Assembly, is received with increasing favour by the churches, and none are made with more cheerfulness. A large proportion of the ministers aided are in the decline of life, from seventy on to more than eighty years.

Among the widows are several with children too young to do anything for their own maintenance or that of their mother. In some cases only enough is asked to eke out the inadequate income of a family who support themselves, so far as they can, by their needle, by teaching, or some resources of their own. In others, the dependence is wholly on the Fund disbursed by the Trustees. Three of the receivers are disabled by palsy, and two by consumption. A widow, for whom was made an appropriation of one hundred dollars, was the teacher of a public school in the place where she lived. A letter from her pastor informed the Trustees that during the winter "she was very sick from bleeding at the lungs. She was too unwell to be in a schoolroom," the writer says, "and would not have been there had she any other way of earning her bread. Her sickness and loss of time had prevented the payment of some small debts, by which her mind was greatly troubled. This mental anxiety had much to do in undermining her health." A subsequent letter announces her death, and adds, that "she continued to teach until she could scarcely walk to the schoolroom."

Another lady, in acknowledging the receipt of the same amount, writes: "I can hardly find words to express my gratitude for so great a favour. May he who careth for the widow and orphan reward the givers of the bounty as I never can."

"Your appropriation," writes a third, "is received with a heart truly thankful, for without it I could not have kept together my family of four children, the oldest of whom—a son—is under fourteen, and has been sickly from his infancy. Could this sum be continued to me a little longer, until they have become older and less dependent, it would be a great favour. I hope that in time they will be able to pay back to the Church all that they have received."

"During seventeen years of our married life," says a fourth, "my husband was an invalid, and for almost twelve he was crippled by rheumatism. We have had seven children, only four of whom are yet living. At times, we have been without wholesome food or comfortable shelter; yet we never received help from any source but the Board of Domestic Missions. A short time before his last sickness, when he felt that his time on earth would not be long, he told me that while he lived he hoped to be able to provide for his family, 'but when I am gone,' said he, 'you must apply to the Fund provided by the General Assembly.' Accept my thanks for the liberal and timely aid, which will keep us above actual want. While watering others, may my benefactors themselves be refreshed. The blessing of the widow and orphan is upon them, and may God bestow his own in rich abundance."

An old and infirm minister, far distant in the west, acknowledges the receipt of one hundred dollars, "with heartfelt gratitude to God, and to all whom he has stirred up to contribute to the Fund for his relief." "Fervently do I pray," he says, "that long as such feeble and dependent ones as myself shall continue in the Church, such a source of relief may not fail for the want of liberal hearts and hands to replenish it. The few annual donations I have received since my decrepitude from age, have not only relieved me of much actual suffering, but have taken from me a mountain of painful anxiety about the future. What can be more in accordance with the spirit of Christ, as exhibited in the gospel, than such an agency of the Church as this? May the Lord prosper it greatly, and bless all who unite in sustaining and giving it efficiency."

A letter was received, in the latter part of March, from an invalid minister who has not yet passed the ordinary meridian of life. "For five weeks since January," he says, "I have been confined to my room, and much of the time to my bed. During this short period, I have had from ten to twelve profuse discharges of blood, at one time more than a pint. For seven years my poor, shattered frame has stood these shocks, and now I scarcely breathe day or night without pain, and never cough without the apprehension of the giving away of another of these attenuated blood-vessels. And how shall I sufficiently thank God, who inclines his servants to care for me in my extremity, not only to supply my necessities, which I do not see how else could be met, but to do it all in a way so soothing to a stricken heart! God bless you all abundantly!"

The Trustees have noticed with pleasure the scrupulousness generally manifested by the recipients of this Fund, who have not only needed all, and often more than they asked, but they have declined assistance any longer than their condition made it necessary. A venerable minister of more than seventy years, was aided in a time of utter destitution. By an unlooked-for change in his circumstances, within the past year, he has become able to provide for himself an economical living, and has requested the Presbytery not to ask for another appropriation. "I am truly thankful," he says, "for what I have received. It has cheered my heart through surrounding darkness and desolation. May God enlarge and bless the noble Fund for Disabled Ministers. It will assuage the anguish of many a sorrowful heart."

The two ministers mentioned in our last report—both men of years—who had been assisted in a state of prolonged illness, have, since their recovery, not only refused further help, but have become regular contributors to the fund. Each has sent us annually the liberal sum of ten dollars, out of a salary quite too small to warrant so large a deduction.

In some cases, it has been almost painful to witness the severe economy to which some have subjected themselves, in order to reduce the amount asked in their behalf to the lowest sum on which they could subsist. To a venerable missionary of threescore years and fifteen, with a wife but little younger than himself, and too blind and feeble to move about unattended, was made what was deemed an inadequate appropriation. Though possessed of a small house, which they desired to occupy, they had neither furniture, nor means to keep it; but were living on the hospitality of a kind relative, who could ill-afford to support them. The two hundred dollars sent them were less than their condition really called for, and yet, not long after the money had been transmitted, a letter was received by the Trustees, containing twenty-five dollars, with the following explanation: "I cannot but feel sensibly the marked kindness to myself and wife, by the appropriation; and now, when age and feebleness have overtaken us, the money comes to us truly as a God-send, meeting our necessities, when other resources have in a great measure failed. But as one hundred and seventy-five dollars, I think, will supply all our needs, the excess is hereby returned, for the Trustees to give to some who are probably more deserving and needy than ourselves."

Such are only samples of many cases that might be reported, to show the delicacy, modesty, and high Christian integrity of those among whom our funds are disbursed. Few of our ministers, yet in the vigour of life, and at the period of their greatest popularity and usefulness, are more loved and honoured than were some of these superannuated fathers, who are now without property, and in a state of dependence. Nor is their present penury the result of unthriftiness, nor a want of proper economy. With inadequate salaries from the beginning, it has been utterly out of their power to do more than meet, in a frugal way, the yearly current expenses of their families. The contributions of the Church to the present maintenance of such ministers, therefore, is not a charity, but a debt. It is no more than a just tribute to these venerable men, who, with "Paul, the aged, have fought their good fight, and finished their course." Like the pay of the retired officers of our army and navy, or the pensions of our disabled soldiers, what the Church dispenses to these, her old and invalid servants, is but a reimbursement for their unrequited labours. It is an expression, not of her sympathy and gratitude only, but of her sense of justice in the discharge of a well-earned claim.

The Assembly will observe with pleasure the report of a balance in the treasury, which will probably be sufficient for all the appropriations called for before the month of September, the time designated for the contributions of the churches to this Fund. So large are the drafts during the summer, that were our treasury found exhausted in the spring, not a small proportion of our disbursements must be postponed until after the collections of the churches during the autumn and winter. The Assembly, moreover, will not forget that the balance would have been materially reduced, but for the fact that hitherto the cause has borne but a small proportion of its own expenses. Nothing has been paid for office-rent, and the cost of travel has been greatly diminished by the liberality of several railroad companies, that have courteously given the Secretary a pass free of charge. For the past ten years, the labours of the Treasurer have been gratuitous, and the chief support of the Secretary has hitherto been derived from private sources. It is not so clear therefore to the Trustees, that the amount in the treasury so far exceeds what will be needed for the prospective expenditures of the year, that they have deemed it prudent to subtract any portion for investment, except those sums which were designated for this purpose by the donors.

The Trustees have reason to believe, that had all the cases requiring assistance during the year been reported, a large proportion of the money in hand would have been expended. In many cases, help has failed to reach the sufferers, from the neglect of Presbyteries to make the proper inquiry and application. No person nor committee being specially charged with this duty, it has been overlooked by all. Instances of this omission are occurring every year, betraying an apparent apathy or want of sympathy with these suffering brethren, which the Trustees have noticed with not less surprise than pain. In numerous cases, there is a backwardness to disclose their necessities—a morbid shrinking from the observation of others—by reason of which they will be permanently overlooked, without proper vigilance to search them out.

In presenting a report on the case of Disabled Ministers, the Trustees feel constrained to notice, as an ominous characteristic of the times, that the category of superannuated preachers is becoming so large, embracing many who have been coerced to enter it prematurely, and much against their will. But the fact is too patent to be hidden, that few pastors of the present day are able to hold their pulpits in quiet possession, if they hold them at all, beyond the age of fifty-five or threescore. In a class of more than twenty young men that entered the ministry from one of our Seminaries in 1822, only one sustains the pastoral relation now, when their average age is but sixty-two. Many of the most active, successful, and popular professional men of the day in the various secular callings of life, are nearer fourscore years than three. The physicians and lawyers usually most sought for, are of mature age and experience. But with regard to the sacred ministry, the difference in popular sentiment is as humiliating as it is remarkable. Men of talents and culture, interesting and instructive as preachers, and not beyond the meridian of forty-five, are continually debarred access to vacant pulpits for no other alleged reason, than because they are so old. It does not belong to this Report to treat of this delicate subject at length, nor to dilate on the causes in which such an anomaly originates. It is enough for our present purpose to remark, that its tendency is to dishearten, to crush the spirits and break the hearts of these repudiated men, and often suggests the fear that they were never "called of God as was Aaron." It is this which is rapidly multiplying that afflicted class, whose condition is so touchingly described in the following letter, addressed some months ago, to the editor of a prominent religious journal.

It is from the wife of a clergyman, who, in her deep anxiety, writes without the knowledge of her husband. "We are in great distress," she says, "and I do not know to whom we ought to apply for counsel but to you. My husband is a laborious, faithful, and excellent preacher, but is getting old; that is his only fault. In former years he has been an acceptable, useful, and successful pastor. The church has grown up under his ministry. Many have been converted, and great peace has been enjoyed. But he is now in want of a field of labour. His people thought they must have a more rousing kind of preacher, one who would make a sensation, and stir up the community. For some years his salary was poorly paid; but had it all been paid, it would have been barely enough to keep us in food and plain clothes, so that now, when we are crowded out altogether, and have no income, our situation is very distressing. Sometimes I think I shall lose my mind. I do not know what we shall do, unless some door is opened. My husband is as able to preach as he ever was, and if he had a settlement, could serve acceptably and usefully. But at his age no church will have him. He loves to preach, and is not fitted to do anything else, unless he were made Professor in some college, for which his learning and talents qualify him well. Will you tell me what I must do?" The reply to this letter was full of sympathy and kindness, but what could the editor say more than the sufferer already knew by experience. "The case of your family," he replies, "is only one of many, and there is no present relief. We have received several letters to the same purport, and our only reply is, to have faith in God, when faith in his people fails. There is utterly a fault in the Church respecting the ministry, and it grows worse and worse every year. We have now in our minds," he adds, "several men of ability in the pulpit who are idle and unsought, though they have but one fault—their age. Age has brought with it wisdom, learning, experience, preparation, and mellow piety, but age is a fatal fault with all these virtues superadded."

It is not easy to ascertain, in our numerous body, how many belong to this class of displaced and repudiated ministers; but, as testified by the writer just quoted, they are "many." In addition to these, there is a reduced remnant of aged pastors, who, though tolerated still, feel the burden of their charge to be greater than they can well sustain; yet to relinquish their pulpit is to deprive their families and themselves of their only means of support. Some of them are clinging to their people with an unrequited affection, in spite of many significant hints and mortifying neglects to which they are subjected; but with wounded feelings and heavy hearts, they hold on from year to year, in earnest prayer to God that they may "not be cast off in the time of old age, may not be forsaken when their strength faileth." To seek another settlement, and form new associations, at their period of life, is impracticable. Without relatives that are able or willing to help them, without the sympathy of their congregation, most of whom are now younger than themselves, their faith sometimes almost fails, and they contemplate the increasing infirmities of age, aggravated by poverty, with a solicitude and depression of soul which none can understand nor imagine, but those who know them by experience.

The condition of this class is exciting not less interest among the evangelical churches of England, Scotland, and Ireland, than is that of others who are disabled by mental imbecility or bodily disease. When the late Dr. Brown, of Glasgow, (Scotland,) in 1857, asked to be dismissed from his congregation on account of the disabilities of age, his people, in token of their affectionate and grateful respect, presented him the generous sum of about forty thousand dollars; but having sufficient property for his own support, he caused it all to be invested as the nucleus of a retiring fund for aged pastors in need. While

God has blessed me with an abundance, said he, these my brethren are in penury, and are compelled to relinquish their pulpits without the means of procuring their bread. One of the English dissenting bodies has an income already of about sixty thousand dollars for this object, and it is their intention to double that sum as soon as practicable, in order that ample provision may be made to sustain all indigent ministers of their Church who have become too infirm to labour. In Ireland, almost every Presbyterian pastor has a parsonage or manse, and if the congregation contribute thirty pounds, they become entitled to the Regium Donum, or State endowment, amounting to seventy-five pounds. Both the parsonage and royal bounty belong to the pastor as long as he lives, and cannot be taken from him, although disqualified for labour by his many infirmities. But the gift of the State and of the manse being in many cases insufficient for the support of the retired pastor, since the year 1857 vigorous and successful efforts have been made, not only to increase his income, but to provide for all disabled ministers in want, and for the needy widows and orphans of deceased ministers.

At no former period have the churches generally of our country manifested so deep an interest in this subject as at the present. Within a short time, prominent members of three sister denominations have applied to the Secretary of our Fund for information as to the working of our plan, with which all were so favourably impressed, that they will probably propose it to their several churches for adoption. "I very much admire," one writes, "this provision of your Church. Its value has been lately disclosed to me in the relief of an excellent but deeply afflicted widow of your denomination, which came indirectly to my knowledge. It gave me occasion to notice with what delicacy of feeling, and beautiful cordiality, this bounty is bestowed." The United Brethren, a numerically small body of Christians compared with many others, provide liberally for their infirm ministers, dependent widows, and orphans. They are at present supporting no less than one hundred and sixty-four missionaries of both sexes, who have become disabled by age or disease. They are also educating two hundred and eighty-seven children of missionaries.

The apprehension of some, that an additional collection would be unwelcome, and injurious in its effects on other enterprises to which our churches are committed, have not been realized. On the other hand, the contributions to these have steadily increased; nor is it believed that a penny less has been given to our noble Boards because of what has been collected for our invalid ministers and the needy widows and orphans of the deceased. The Trustees would reiterate the opinion expressed in former Reports, that the present mode of accomplishing this great duty to their brethren is the best that has been proposed. Its excellency has been demonstrated by its success, which is attracting the attention of other denominations, and receiving their warm approval. It invites for investment the large donations and bequests of those who prefer a permanent Fund, while it secures abundant means for the immediate relief of the needy by annual collections.

The Trustees believe that the resolutions of the past Assembly were seasonable and judicious. They have proved greatly auxiliary in their influence, so far as they have been diffused and read. Nor do they deem that any farther legislation of the Assembly is needed at present; but that this interesting cause is now placed on the proper basis.

There is reason to believe that a large fund will be ultimately secured to the cause by liberal donations and bequests, of which more is known to the Trustees than it would be proper for them to publish. How long the annual collections of the churches will be indispensable, to meet the current demands for relief, none can foresee. They are our main dependence now, and may be, as with the Boards of the Church, for years to come. Nor need we fear that the friends of our Zion will become weary in giving to either. The results of the year just ended show a healthful and cheering advance in our work; and let the gifts of the coming year be as much increased as they have been during the past, and it is confidently hoped that the treasury will respond to the Presbyteries for the full amount which they may reasonably ask.

In times like the present, when personal and domestic, as well as public expenses, are so greatly increased, it is worthy of thankful recognition, that every agency of our Church has been well sustained, and that the treasury in each department has been so liberally replenished. Amidst all that is occurrent to disturb the mind and pain the heart, it is a solace to know that the love of so many in Zion does not wax cold in prompting to works of Christian philanthropy.

May the terrific overturnings now in progress, not in our country only, but in others, prove to be a harbinger of the coming of Him whose right it is to reign, when the dreadful groanings and travail of the earth shall subside in the submission of all to his heart-subduing sceptre!

CORRESPONDENCE.

LETTER FROM THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN IRELAND TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN—In the name of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, we give you fraternal salutations in the Lord.

At the last meeting of our Assembly, we welcomed among us your delegate, the Rev. Robert Watts, of Philadelphia, and we now beg most cordially to reciprocate those expressions of regard conveyed to our Church in the commission which he presented, and in the address which he delivered.

Our whole Assembly heard from him with the deepest interest, and with devout thankfulness to God, the cheering account which he gave of the state of religion in the American Church, and of the noble and self-denying efforts made by her to maintain and extend the blessings of the gospel in her own and in foreign lands. We heartily rejoice, also, that there are brightening prospects before you of closer intimacy, and perhaps ultimate union, between the different members of the great Presbyterian family in America. In the present eventful age, when enemies without the Christian Church, and traitors within her pale, are making such determined attacks upon her great standards, we cannot but feel that it is the duty of all true Presbyterians, endeavouring to overlook those minor points which have hitherto divided them into distinct sections, to unite in one army around our common Lord, and in defence of our common faith.

Beloved brethren, we deeply sympathize with you under the sore afflictions and long-continued disasters which the present war has brought upon your Church and your country. In our public Assembly, in our several congregations, and also, we feel assured, in the closets of the great body of our people, earnest prayer has been made to Him who ruleth over the nations of the world, and who hath the hearts of all men in His hands, that it may please Him, in His infinite mercy, speedily to turn the minds of the contending parties to thoughts of peace, that the effusion of blood may be stayed, and tranquillity restored to your distracted country. We also pray, beloved brethren, to the God of love and of power, who "hath made of one blood all nations of men," that He, in His infinite wisdom, may so order it that the system of slavery, which has so long been an incubus upon your great Republic, may be at once and for ever uprooted from your land.

We thank God that we are able to tell you of the continued prosperity of our own Church. During the last few years, we have occupied some important places in the south and west of Ireland, and have gathered into our churches a considerable number of scattered colonists from Ulster and from Scotland. Thus, in districts where Papal superstition long reigned sole and absolute monarch, blighting the land and enslaving the people, there are now at least a few places where the doctrines of the gospel, which embody the elements alike of temporal prosperity and spiritual liberty, are faithfully proclaimed. We have also been enabled to send upwards of sixty ministers to labour among our brethren in the various colonies of the British Empire, and we have missionaries working with zeal and success among the heathen in India, and among the Jews in Palestine, Hamburgh, and Bonn.

Praying that the Lord Jesus, our King and Head, may abundantly communicate Divine grace and wisdom to your Church in this your season of sore trial, and that the God of peace may speedily send peace to your country, we beg, in the name and by the authority of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, to subscribe ourselves,

Yours in the Lord,

H. COOKE, D.D., LL.D., Moderator.

ROBERT PARK, A. M.,

Clerk of General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland.

LETTER FROM THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN IRELAND.

The Committee on Correspondence beg leave to report that they have endeavoured to discharge the duty assigned them, of examining and replying to the letter addressed to this General Assembly by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. They have been brief in their notice of our own religious and benevolent institutions, in the hope that this Assembly will order the Reports of all our Boards to be sent to the Stated Clerk of that Assembly; and they take the liberty of recommending that this Assembly do so, because in their opinion this will give a far more intelligent view of our operations than can be done by letter. The letter which they have prepared, and now beg to lay before this General Assembly, is as follows:

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland.

REV. AND DEAR BRETHREN—In the name of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, we return to you our fraternal salutations. This General Assembly was greatly refreshed by your fraternal letter, in this our day of sore trial, and reciprocate, with high satisfaction, the Christian feeling and sentiments you so kindly expressed towards our afflicted Church and bleeding country.

Your reception of our delegate to your General Assembly was peculiarly gratifying, and we heard, with deep emotions, the joy that you felt when you were informed that, although God be humbling us, on account of our sins, as a nation, he has not withdrawn from his Church tokens of his presence. Sorely indeed have we been tried, but God has fulfilled in our experience the truth of his promise to his people, "as thy day is, so shall thy strength be," for our people have come forth in greater strength, to the help of the Lord against the mighty, than ever before in the history of our Church. All our Boards have been efficiently sustained, although unprecedented claims have been made upon them, in regard to the many sick and wounded, in the large armies assembled in our hitherto peaceful and happy country, and daily meeting in mortal combat, needing so many comforts that no government could provide for, have been most fully provided for by our Christian people. Nor have their benevolent and pious efforts been confined to the wounded and sick among our own soldiers, but many thousands of the wounded and sick among our enemies have shared in their care and kind offices, towards both soul and body, yet amid all the claims thus made upon them, they have nobly remembered Zion, enabling her to provide more abundantly than ever before the bread of life for perishing men.

Beloved brethren, this General Assembly was profoundly affected by the assurance that you gave us of the sympathy manifested by your warm-hearted people towards us in this the day of our severe trial—that in your public assemblies, in your several congregations, and also, that in the closets of the great body of your people, earnest prayers have been made to Him who ruleth over the nations of the world, and who hath the hearts of all men in his hand, “that peace may speedily return to our suffering country.” For this manifestation of your Christian sympathy this General Assembly beg that you will accept of our cordial thanks, and it assures you that our Christian people will not fail to estimate aright this token of the sympathy of their brethren in Ireland. We also rejoice in the efforts that you are so successfully making to rescue your own countrymen from the desolating power of Popery in your own land—that in districts where Papal superstition long reigned sole and absolute monarch, blighting the land and enslaving the people, there are now places where the doctrines of the gospel, which embody the elements alike of temporal prosperity and spiritual liberty, is faithfully preached.

We also rejoice, brethren, in the efforts that your Church is making to send “the glorious gospel of the blessed God” to your brethren in the colonies of the British empire, and that you have missionaries among the heathen in India, and among the Jews in Palestine, Hamburg, and in Bonn; and our ardent prayer is, that the Great Head of the Church may greatly prosper your efforts, and refresh you with many evidences that your labour is not in vain in the Lord. Our branch of the Church is also heartily engaged in extensive missionary operations among the heathen in India, Africa, China, Japan, in some of the Papal States in Europe and in South America, also among the Indian tribes of our own vast territories west of the Mississippi River; and we have great reason to bless God for the many proofs given us, that the gospel preached by our missionary brethren is the power of God unto salvation.

Your prayer regarding the uprooting of slavery in this country, we presume, has, in a large degree, been answered, by the proclamation of the President, and by the action of the Congress of the United States. God has, in his wise providence, solved the problem of Negro emancipation, that so long perplexed many of the best and wisest men, both in Church and State, in this country. The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, as her records abundantly testify, has ever lamented the existence of slavery among us, and has never withheld her influence to mitigate the evils of the system, and ultimately to destroy it. That signal providence that has filled our land with suffering and with sorrow, has also broken the captive’s chain, throwing hundreds of thousands of freedmen upon the hearts and hands of the Church, for sustenance, for education, and for religious culture—a work which has been promptly responded to; and we ask an interest in your prayers, that we may be able to meet the great demands that are thus made upon us. We may also mention in this connection, the Ashmun Institute, established under the care of one of our Presbyteries, for the training of pious coloured men for teachers, physicians, and ministers of the gospel, has been greatly prospered. The call for well-qualified coloured men, both as teachers and preachers, is peculiarly pressing at the present time.

This General Assembly also most heartily responds to the desire you so earnestly express, that all sectional differences existing in the great Presbyterian family in this country, may soon disappear; and we perfectly agree with you in the belief that there are brightening prospects before us of closer intimacy, and perhaps ultimate union. For this desirable consummation our Church never ceases to labour and to pray.

Praying that the Lord Jesus, our King and Head, may abundantly communicate divine grace to your Church, we beg, in the name and by the authority of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, to subscribe ourselves, yours in the Lord.

STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES

ARE EARNESTLY REQUESTED

1. To make their Annual Reports to the Assembly. If they have no printed blanks, after the form on the page opposite. Blanks can always be obtained gratis, on application to the Stated Clerk.

2. To make their Reports in fair, distinct writing, especially the columns of figures.

3. To make them as accurate and full as possible. If, in any instance, churches do not report to Presbyteries, it is desirable that their number of communicants should be inserted from their last report.

4. To report no cents. The Assembly has so ordered. If therefore they are reported, the Stated Clerk of the Assembly is obliged to throw them out altogether, or to incorporate them with the dollars. This costs him a serious amount of labour, to which he ought not to be subjected.

5. To add up each column of figures with care. Many still neglect this, and thus oblige the Clerk of the Assembly to do what they should do themselves.

6. To append to the statistics of Presbyteries a brief account of the changes which have occurred during the year, such as the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dismissions of pastors, organization of new churches, and the names of ministers deceased.

7. To transmit their reports to the Stated Clerk, either at the meeting of the Assembly, or to Princeton, New Jersey, not later than the first day of June, fully post-paid.

N. B.—The General Assembly, in its sessions at Nashville, Tennessee, directed that the Presbyterian Reports should be made out at or before the Spring meetings of Presbyteries, and read in Presbytery, for ratification and sanction.

☞ Blank forms for Sessional Reports are not furnished by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, but are kept for sale by the Presbyterian Board of Publication, 821 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

TO THE STATED CLERKS OF SYNODS.

It is the duty of the Stated Clerks of their respective Synods to send up to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly an annual report, stating, in brief, the number of Presbyteries, ministers, churches, licentiates, and candidates, within their bounds, and particularly all changes which may have been made in the arrangement of Presbyteries. By the Assembly of 1841, (see p. 425,) it has been made their duty also to transmit to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly the time and place of meetings of their respective Synods.

THE CONTINGENT FUND.

There is a necessity for calling the particular attention of the churches and Presbyteries to the Contingent Fund. The expenses for which it provides are indispensable to the maintenance of our ecclesiastical organism; and it is now in debt several hundred dollars. Delegates to Corresponding Bodies cannot have their expenses paid without an increase of this Fund.

REGULATION RESPECTING THE MINUTES.

Adopted by the Assemblies of 1836 and 1837. Directed to be republished in the Appendix to the Minutes.

Each Presbytery shall forward to the Treasurer, for the Contingent Fund of the Assembly, at or before the meeting of the Assembly in each year, a sum equal to fifty cents for each member of the Presbytery, and for any licentiate or other person who shall desire the Minutes, and whose post-office address shall be given. And the Stated Clerk shall not forward the Minutes to the members of any Presbytery from which no such remittance shall be made, but only to the Stated Clerk of such Presbytery, and to such members as shall forward the sum above stated.

By the Assembly held at Newark, in 1864, it was resolved, That the Trustees of the General Assembly be, and they hereby are, authorized hereafter to charge seventy-five cents per copy for the Minutes of the Assembly. P. 290.

ERRATUM IN THE PRINTED MINUTES OF 1861.

On page 302, and Overture No. 5.—From the Executive Committee of the Board of Foreign Missions, respecting the word "baptizo." The true Minute, as adopted by the Assembly, and recorded in the original and the transcribed Minutes, reads thus—"that this word be transferred instead of translated, &c."

This correction was made, after the publication of the Minutes, in different journals of the religious press; and is now inserted here, by the Stated Clerk, to give it more distinct and permanent form.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN REGARD TO COLLECTIONS.

Whereas, Many of our churches do not contribute to our benevolent enterprises, and, whereas, it is desirable to test the power of simultaneous effort; and whereas, an emergency has arisen, requiring the coöperation of all our churches to save our Boards from serious embarrassment, therefore,

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly earnestly request all our churches that have no fixed times for the purpose, to take up annual collections as follows, viz.

For the BOARD OF DOMESTIC MISSIONS on the FIRST SABBATH OF NOVEMBER.

For the BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS on the FIRST SABBATH OF JANUARY.

For the BOARD OF EDUCATION on the FIRST SABBATH OF MARCH.

For the COLPORTAGE FUND of the BOARD OF PUBLICATION on the FIRST SABBATH OF MAY.

For the BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION on the FIRST SABBATH OF JULY.

For the DISABLED MINISTERS' FUND on the FIRST SABBATH OF SEPTEMBER.

Resolved, 2. That when the annual collections cannot be taken up on the days above designated, it be recommended to take them up as soon thereafter as possible.

FORM OF A DEVISE OR BEQUEST TO ANY OF THE BOARDS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The State Laws differ so much, that no one form will answer in all the States, but in every case it is essential to give the RIGHT CORPORATE NAME.

The oldest Board was originally called the Board of Missions, but is now incorporated, under the laws of Pennsylvania, under the title of "The Trustees of the Board of Domestic Missions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

Of the Board of Education the corporate name is, "The Trustees of the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

The Board of Foreign Missions is incorporated under the laws of New York, under the style of "The Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

The Board of Publication is incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania, under the style of "The Trustees of the Presbyterian Board of Publication."

The Board of Church Extension of the General Assembly is not incorporated, but the following form of bequest, it is supposed, would be valid:

"I bequeath to my executors the sum of _____ dollars, in trust, to pay over the same in _____ after my decease, to the person who, when the same shall be payable, shall act as Treasurer of the Board of Church Extension of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, located in the City of St. Louis, Missouri, to be applied to the uses and purposes of said Board, and under its directions; and the receipt of the said Treasurer shall be a full and legal acquittance of my said executors for the same.

Form of Bequest for Disabled Ministers, and Families of Deceased Ministers.

I give and bequeath to my executors hereinafter named, _____ dollars, in trust, nevertheless that they shall, within _____ months after my decease, pay the same to George H. Van Gelder, Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, or to his successor for the time being in said office, for the use of such disabled ministers and their families as the said the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America shall or may designate.

When real estate or other property is given, let it be particularly described.
